Million Parisians Give Ike Hero's Welcome

Conferees Adopt Labor Bill

Scene Rivals Capital's Day Of Liberation

First Two Talks With De Gaulle "Encouraging"

PARIS (AP)— President Eisenhower toured Paris in triumph Wednesday and opened his talks with President Charles de Gaulle amid an outpouring of excitement and affection rivaling the city's day of liberation in World War II.

Swept with emotion and choking as he spoke, Eisenhower told a vast, silent French throng: "I can only say that over the years, this city, this country has become (to me), like it is for almost every American, something very dear."

Then he said he would attempt one sentence in French: "Je vous aime, tous"—"I love you, all."

Thousands of people, packed tight in the great square in front of the Hotel de Ville (city hall), yelled, cheered, waved flags and handkerchiefs in a frenzy of almost hysterical enthusiasm.

Paris is the third major European capital—Bonn and London were the others—to explode with a thrilling, spine-tingling demonstration over Eisenhower, who is consulting with his allies as the prelude to an exchange of visits with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Million Line Streets

In numbers, it equalled the gigantic London outpouring. A million or more Parisians lined the streets and jammed the squares where the President appeared. In fervor, it was like the roaring, chanting scenes in Germany.

"We like Ike," said a red-white-and blue placard blazing down two floors of a great department store.

"Vive Ike," the crowds roared.

"Eek! Eek! Eek!" yelled a short, bereted Frenchman, jumping up and down to see over the heads of the crowds lining the broad avenue Champs Elysees.

That's the French pronunciation of "Ike."

Between public appearances, Eisenhower and De Gaulle held their first two conferences. One was private except for the presence of two interpreters. At the second and longer meeting, Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and French and American aides joined them.

First Talks Go Well

"Everything has gone very well between us," De Gaulle told the throng at the Hotel de Ville in a statement introducing and warmly praising Eisenhower before Eisenhower rose to speak.

Eisenhower said the talks began in a "good and encouraging manner."

Diplomatic sources said they covered four points—a summit conference, NATO, Algeria, and Berlin.

From the French point of view, the Algerian rebellion is the thorniest topic and perhaps the one De Gaulle wants most to discuss with Eisenhower.

De Gaulle would like American support in the United Nations for whatever plan he proposes to advance for solving the Algerian nationalist rebellion that is costing France a billion dollars a year. The details are his own closely guarded secret—unless he disclosed them to Eisenhower.

But it was the excitement, the pageantry, the ritual, the massed bands, the forest of flags, the storms of applause, and the sight of loved old regimental colors that thrilled Paris Wednesday.

Eisenhower rode the crest of a great wave of affection all day.

A high point came when he and De Gaulle relived the heady days of World War II victory in a parade up the Champs Elysees to the tomb of France's unknown soldier.

'Pork Barrel' Veto Upheld By One Vote

Action By House Keeps President's Record Unmarred

WASHINGTON (AP) — After frantic last-minute vote switching, the House Wednesday upheld—by a single vote—President Eisenhower's veto of a big "pork barrel" money bill.

This kept unblemished Eisenhower's record of never having had a veto overriden in his more than 6½ years in the White House. So far, he has rejected 144 bills, seven of them this year.

The roll-call vote Wednesday — announced after feverish maneuvering—was 274-138 in favor of passing the $1,216,000,000 water projects bill over the veto. This was one short of the required two-thirds majority.

New Bill Planned

Eisenhower rejected the bill because it provided funds for planning and starting 67 projects he had not recommended, along with hundreds of other rivers and harbors and flood control works provided for in his budget.

The House Appropriations Committee made plans immediately to meet Thursday and draft a new bill omitting the 67 projects. Chairman Clarence Cannon (D-Mo) said he expected the revised bill to pass without difficulty Thursday or Friday.

Meanwhile, a move was started in the Senate to tack the public works money onto Eisenhower's 3½-billion-dollar foreign aid appropriations bill now being prepared in committee.

Demo Leaders Jolted

The outcome in the House was a jolt to Democratic leaders, who had radiated confidence in advance. Since the bill contained money for projects in virtually every congressional district, these leaders counted on holding the Democrats in line while picking up support from many Republicans.

But on the final vote only 11 Republicans joined 263 Democrats in voting to override. At the same time, 6 Democrats voted with 132 Republicans to sustain the President's veto.

Alaska Plane Crash Kills Six Girls, Two Men

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP)— A twin-engine plane crashed Tuesday night in a storm, killing six girls on a magazine subscription tour, their crew chief, and the pilot.

Dead are C.W. (Bud) Priest of Anchorage, the pilot; C.A. Bailey, 35, of Seattle, formerly of Lynchburg, Va., who had charge of the group; Rose Johnson, Minneapolis; Diane Nelson, Fargo, N.D.; Shirley Salazar, Hawaii; Cathy Clark, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Virginia Lee Ostrander, Seattle; and Alberta McKellop, Oklahoma.

The plane was nearing McGrath, 300 miles southwest of here, on a flight from Tanana when the pilot reported at 10:12 p.m. that he was lost in a storm and running low on fuel. That was his last report.

Searchers sighted wreckage from the air early Wednesday 5 miles from the town of Ophir. A helicopter from the 71st Air Rescue Service investigated and identified the wreckage.

Because of the rugged terrain, the helicopter crew had to land some distance away and walk to the site.

Except for Miss Ostrander, the group had been selling magazines in Alaska for several weeks. She had joined them for a final week. They had finished the tour at the Eskimo village of Kotzebue on the west coast, above the Arctic Circle, leaving there Tuesday morning.

Once forced down by fog near Tanana, they had taken off again in the late evening for McGrath.

Bailey's wife, waiting in Seattle with their three children, said her husband called her during the Tanana stop. She said the girls were in their early 20s or late teens. Miss Ostrander was 18.

Bailey worked on contract for the Local Reader Service of Chicago. The plane was chartered by Bailey in Anchorage.

Compromise Victory For Eisenhower

Follows Pattern Of Tough Version Passed By House

WASHINGTON (AP)—After 12 days of haggling, Senate-House conferees agreed Wednesday on a compromise labor bill to curb union racketeering.

The final product was closer to the somewhat stiffer version the House passed than to the measure the Senate passed last spring. Leaders of organized labor had opposed both, especially the House bill.

The compromise immediately was taken to the Senate, where a vote was scheduled Thursday.

The conferees topped their final hurdle in late afternoon, working out an agreement on how to deal with picketing at construction sites.

In its final form, the compromise provides means that are intended to guarantee the rights of union members and to safeguard union treasuries.

Bans Secondary Boycotts

It also would ban secondary boycotts and extortion picketing, limit organizational picketing, and spell out a procedure for the states to dispose of labor disputes the National Labor Relations Board refuses to handle.

The product of the conference represented a victory for President Eisenhower who had urged many of the provisions it contains, especially bans on secondary boycotts and blackmail picketing.

It was a victory, too, for Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark), chairman of the Senate rackets investigating committee, which laid the background for the new bill.

McClellan called the compromise "a long stride in the right direction."

There was no immediate comment from the White House, or from Eisenhower, now in Paris.

But Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell issued a statement in which he said: "I am extremely pleased that the Senate and House conferees have agreed to labor-management relations legislation of the type the President has long requested."

Labor "Explosion" Likely

There was no immediate reaction from organized labor leaders who had bitterly fought the House bill, some of whose key provisions found their way into the compromise, although in modified form.

The AFL-CIO didn't like the Senate's original version either, but was inclined more to it than the House bill which it called a union-busting measure.

Reps. Phil Landrum (D-Ga) and Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich), co-authors of the House bill, said in a joint statement the conferees had retained the essential elements of their measure.

India's Defense Command Will Continue Intact

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — India's defense command came through its political crisis intact Wednesday.

Tension over the northeast frontier also relaxed somewhat with reports that Red Chinese troops may be pulling out of border posts they grabbed last week.

Prime Minister Nehru told Parliament the nation's defense command will continue unchanged despite a dispute over army promotions between Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon and Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, army commander.

Nehru said Thimayya resigned Monday but was persuaded to stay in his post.

Nehru indicated his complete support for Krishna Menon, praising the controversial defense minister and diplomatic trouble-shooter.

Nehru's statement that "civil authority must remain supreme" apparently squashed reports that Krishna Menon would leave the cabinet.

Sources close to Menon and high in the ruling Congress party said Menon had offered his resignation. Menon and other high government officials refused to comment until Nehru could appear in Parliament.

Nehru termed Thimayya a gallant soldier but scolded him for resigning when India's borders were threatened.

Nehru did not refer to the commanders of the air force and navy who were reported to have resigned with Thimayya.

A Socialist demand for a secret session to discuss the issue and a Socialist request to see Thimayya's letter to Nehru was rejected.

The newspaper The Statesman reported the border troubles with the Communist Chinese on the northeast frontier apparently had eased, and that the Chinese may be pulling out.

Red Forces Smash Laos Outer Defense

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Communist forces sweeping into northern Laos have knocked out the government's first line of defense outposts and penetrated to within 12 to 18 miles of military headquarters in Sam Neua, officials said here Wednesday.

Defense Secretary Phoumi Nosavan said rebel units and North Viet Nam Red regulars swarmed into the Nam Ma River valley parallel to the twisting mountain of North Viet Nam, and drove towards the interior, capturing or occupying some 80 Laos villages.

The government forces, mostly irregulars, withdrew.

But Vientiane, the administration capital some 200 miles from the front, remained calm. All government offices, including the Ministry of Defense and military headquarters, were closed for the Buddhist festival of the dead.

The attack was launched Sunday morning along the Nam Ma River about 10 miles inside the northeastern border of Sam Neua province, and was supported by 105mm. howitzers, said Col. Phoumi Nosavan, the defense secretary.

Phoumi said government soldiers captured by the Communists later escaped and confirmed that at least one of the attacking forces was a Vietminh—Red North Vietnamese—battalion.

Phoumi estimated that some 2,000 to 2,500 Communist troops — Pathet Lao tribesmen and Vietminh soldiers—were engaged in the offensives. Pathet Lao is the Communist-led movement that ruled Sam Neua until two years ago when it agreed to cooperate with the royal government.

All traffic to the town of Sam Neua was suspended Wednesday. But planes were reported delivering supplies by airdrop.

Million Dollar Donation Given Steel Strikers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Walter Reuther announced Wednesday a million-dollar union donation to steel strikers. He also charged that President Eisenhower is evading his public responsibility in dealing with the eight-week walkout.

Reuther, head of the United Auto Workers Union, said the million dollars comes as an initial down payment from unions comprising the AFL-CIO Industrial Union Department he also heads.

He said the IUD unions are mobilizing funds and picket line demonstrations around steel plants to bolster the strikers in a labor showdown that he said may last into the winter.

Reuther said Eisenhower is evading his leadership responsibilities by not appointing a public fact-finding board to sift steel dispute issues and recommend a solution. He said fact reports issued by Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell are too little and too late.

"If Eisenhower publicly takes a hands-off position in this, as he has done, and then turns around and invokes the Taft-Hartley law to stop the strike and bail out the industry when it begins to feel a pinch, the President will be using his office as an antilabor weapon and strike-breaking agency," Reuther told a news conference.

Reuther was reminded that the Taft-Hartley emergency provisions are a matter of law, while there is no statute either authorizing or forbidding a fact board that would recommend a strike settlement plan.

"The essence of White House leadership is not what the law technically requires you to do, but what common sense and the public good requires. The President can't escape his moral obligation by hiding behind legal technicalities," Reuther replied.

Three Chicago Cops Indicted In Narcotic Ring

WASHINGTON (AP)—A federal grand jury at Chicago Wednesday indicted three Chicago police officers and a former Treasury agent in connection with the operation of a nationwide narcotics distribution ring.

Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers, who made the announcement, said 21 defendants were named in two conspiracy indictments returned by the jury.

The indictments said the defendants made up a narcotics distribution ring headquartered in Chicago that supplied illicit drugs coast-to-coast. San Francisco, Los Angeles, Miami, Cleveland, Detroit, and Gary, Ind., were named among the receiving points.

The three Chicago policemen charged with giving protection to the ring by supplying information on the activities of law enforcement officials, were named as Sheldon R. Teller, Miles J. Cooperman and Richard E. Austin.

The indicted former Treasury agent is Edward Richardson Gayles, now a practicing attorney in Chicago.

According to records here, Gayles became an agent with the Federal Narcotics Bureau operated by the Treasury Department Nov. 20, 1950, serving until Dec. 5, 1952, when he resigned.

Return of the indictments followed an exhaustive investigation by Justice and Treasury officials in the field. It was described as a major development in Justice's announced drive against organized crime and racketeering across the nation.

According to the announcement here, the three Chicago policemen named by the grand jury were only recently transferred from that city's police narcotics squad.

The indictments were returned under sections of the federal narcotics laws which provide a mandatory penalty of five years' imprisonment for a first offender and possible maximum penalties up to 20 years' imprisonment and a fine of $20,000.

Fed Up Farmer Turns His Land Into Drag Strip

CLOQUET, Minn. (AP)—A dairy farmer said Wednesday he's fed up with agricultural controls and is turning his farm into a hot-rod drag strip.

Ernest Luomala said he is using about 80 acres of his best land for the strip.

"I'm tired of government controls, milk marketing regulations, Secretary Benson and the whole works," said Luomala.

Woman Plunges 198 Feet To Death From Bay Bridge

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — A 37-year-old Baltimore woman died Wednesday in a 198-foot plunge from the center span of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge.

State Police identified the victim as Mrs. Lois Mae Schaible from a billfold which had been left on the seat of her parked automobile.

Later, her husband Gorman Schaible, went to Anne Arundel General Hospital and identified her. Police quoted him as saying his wife had been despondent lately.

The body was retrieved from the water by a nearby fisherman and Mrs. Schaible was pronounced dead at the hospital by Dr. Elmer G. Linhardt, county medical examiner.

Exiled Dalai Lama Confers With Nehru

NEW DELHI (AP)—The Dalai Lama came here Wednesday and conferred with India's Prime Minister Nehru on the future of Communist-ruled Tibet.

Informants said the exiled Dalai Lama of Tibet felt an appeal to the United Nations would be helpful in bringing world attention to the situation but that Nehru felt otherwise.

The Dalai Lama has been living in Mussoorie, an Indian town in the foothills of the Himalayas, since he fled his homeland after the Red Chinese suppressed a Tibetan uprising last spring.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Gen. Elbio Anaya, Argentine secretary of war, has fired Gen. Carlos Severo Toranzo Montero, commander in chief of Argentina's army. Defiant 'Dracula' Seized In N.Y. Teen-Age Killings

NEW YORK (AP)—Sharp-eyed officers Wednesday grabbed the object of one of the city's greatest searches—the teen-age "Dracula" sought in the senseless playground slaying of two boys of 16.

"I'm the guy you're looking for," snapped arrogant little Salvatore Agron, 17, a Puerto Rican youth who fancied himself a modern counterpart of a blood-sucking fiend in a novel of long ago.

He and two pitiful companions were grubbing for food in a garbage can as two radio car patrolmen, George Perette and Patrick O'Hare, spotted them at 2 a.m. on a Bronx street.

"Well," said young Agron, "you're going to find out anyway."

In a final burst of bravado, he snarled at the policemen: "I don't care if I burn. My mother could watch me."

The reference was to death in the electric chair.

Agron's mother, who left the boy's father behind to come to this country when her son was a child of 8, rushed to the police station with a Bible in hand. She said her son used to read it but had quit.

She caught a glimpse of him and pushed through a crowd of officers and newsmen. But the 5-foot-7, 110-pound boy stonily brushed past.

The mother asked a detective to take the Bible to him. The officer came back a moment later and said: "He doesn't want it."

Asked if she thought her son capable of murder, the mother, Frances Rodriguez, 37, now remarried to a minister, replied: "I don't know. I don't think so. But he is seldom home. I don't know what he does or who his friends are."

Adenauer, NATO Target Of New Khrushchev Blast

NEW YORK (AP) — Nikita Khrushchev accuses the North Atlantic Alliance of letting the West Germans convert it into an instrument for aggressive plans that could "plunge the whole world into the chasm of a devastating war."

The Soviet Premier says the West has no choice but to fall in with the Soviet policy of peaceful coexistence of communism and capitalism if it wants to avoid the most destructive war in history.

He expresses confidence the Communist system eventually will win out in what he calls peaceful competition, but says that does not mean Red interference in other nations' affairs.

In an article appearing less than two weeks in advance of his U.S. visit, Khrushchev reserves his harshest words for Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany.

The article appears in the current Foreign Affairs, quarterly review of the Council on Foreign Relations.

The article was arranged before the actual invitation to Khrushchev to visit America, but in it the Communist party boss refers to the forthcoming visit as providing hope for reaching an understanding.

The article is entitled "Peaceful Coexistence." In it the Soviet leader attempts to persuade his readers that there is neither Communist fraud nor trap but a real policy aimed at ensuring world peace. But the article deals harshly with NATO and West eGrmany, pushing his proposal for a demilitarized West Berlin and a peace treaty with both West and Communist East Germany.

Penny Gas Tax Hike Bill Sent To House Floor

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposed penny increase in the federal gasoline tax to keep the interstate highway construction program from stalling for lack of money went to the House Wednesday on a take-this-or-nothing basis.

Rules Committee clearance of the bill put it up for House debate Thursday with passage expected quickly.

The procedure under which the measure was sent to the floor prohibits amendments, blocking the efforts of House members who want extra money for the highways to come from sources other than a bigger gasoline tax. However, the way is still open in the Senate for changes after the House votes out a bill.

The proposal would boost the present three-cent federal gasoline tax by one penny only until July 1, 1961—for the next 21 or 22 months depending on when it could go into effect.

During the three years after that, the extra money would be obtained by diverting one-half of the 10 per cent manufacturers' excise tax on new automobiles and two-thirds of the 8 per cent tax on auto parts and accessories. These now bring about 800 million dollars a year into the general fund of the Treasury.

Compromise 'Equal Time' Bill Approved By House

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House gave its final approval Wednesday to a compromise bill to exempt radio and television newscasts from the law requiring stations to grant equal time to all political candidates.

The bill, passed by a standing vote of 142-70, was worked out by a House - Senate conference committee after the House and Senate approved differing versions.

It now goes to the Senate where swift favorable action was expected that would send the measure to President Eisenhower to be signed into law. He has characterized the present statute as ridiculous.

The federal Communications Commission has interpreted the present law to mean that radio and TV stations must grant political candidates equal time when their rivals are featured on any type of program, including spot news.

The House - approved compromise would waive the requirement in the case of "bona fide" documentaries where the candidate's appearance is incidental to the overall show.

The measure likewise would apply to on-the-spot news coverage of political candidates—a point of considerable interest in the Senate which is brimming over with potential 1960 presidential candidates.

In drafting the bill, the conferees drafted a report making clear that the bill would apply to such news panel shows as "Meet the Press," "Face the Nation" and "College News Conference."

Mother Ends Lives Of Self, Three Children

TROY, Ohio (AP)—The bodies of a 28-year-old mother and her three children, missing since Monday afternoon, were found Wednesday in a parked station wagon in a picnic grove along the Stillwater River at nearby West Milton.

Miami County Coroner William Adkins said it was a case of suicide by the mother and murder of the three children with carbon monoxide fumes.

Officers identified the woman as Elizabeth Altic of West Milton and the children as Leonard Gene, 5; Lynn Louise, 3, and Laura Lee, 2.

Officers said the woman's husband, Donald, had reported his wife's disappearance Monday night and said she had left a suicide note. He said they had been separated about six months, and that he had been making an effort for reconciliation.

Saturday And Labor Day Senate Sessions Loom

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas was reported getting generally favorable response Wednesday to a proposal that the Senate meet Saturday and Labor Day, next Monday, in a drive for Sept. 12 adjournment.

In polling senators on this question, Johnson was understood to have notified Southern opponents that he intends to bring up the civil rights issue in some form next week.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois has predicted Senate passage, without lengthy debate, of what he called a skeletonized bill.

Johnson also was seeking assurances that the Senate will pass without amendment a bill to abolish the present 3¼ per cent interest rate ceiling on government "E" and "H" savings bonds.

Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) said an effort will be made to pass such a bill in the House, where this type of legislation originates. He said the success of any such move depended on the Senate's action.

The House plans a session on Labor Day, but none this Saturday.

Pilot Injured In Plane Crash

BALTIMORE (AP) — A student pilot crashed a single-engine airplane into a creek while coming in for a landing Wednesday at Harbor Field. He wasn't seriously injured but the $6,000 plane was a total loss.

Philip A. Derring, 26, of Baltimore, also a tower operator at the field, was alone in the two-seat Champion 7-FC when the light green craft dropped into the water beside a seawall.

One gash in Derring's forehead was sewed up at City Hospitals. Hospital personnel said x-rays showed some very minor fractures around the sinus and nasal areas and Derring probably would be sent home.

Derring made it ashore by himself. The Maryland Air National Guard dispatched a truck-crane which retrieved the plane.

The cause of the 2 p. m. crash was not determined. There were reports — unconfirmed officially— that Derring was caught in the strong propwash of a four-engine Constellation practicing instrument landings about 500 yards in front of him.

U.S. India Ocean Fleet Advocated

LOS ANGLELES (UPI) — Delegates to the 60th annual national convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Thursday urged the government to establish a new naval fleet in the Indian Ocean because of troubled conditions in that part of the world.

Approval of the resolution came shortly after Secretary of Navy William B. Franke told a news conference at the convention that while the Navy would like to have such a fleet, he did not believe it was necessary at this time.

The resolution to create the new fleet was offered to the delegate by VFW Commander-in-Chief John W. Mahan.

China Communists Deny Encroachment

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China's Foreign Minister Chen Yi declared in Peiping Wednesday "China has never encroached upon other countries." His statement was an apparent reference to incidents on the India-China border.

"Neither will it tolerate encroachment by other countries," Chen said at a reception of the North Vietnamese Embassy in Peiping.

China has contended that Indian border points its troops recently occupied were part of China.

Two Virginians Held For Robbing Co-op

TOWSON, Md. (AP)—Two Radford, Va. men were charged Wednesday with robbing the Southern States Cooperative in Cockeysville last week and held under $2,500 bail each for police court hearing.

Frank E. Turpin, 20, and Cloyed J. Ross, 32, were captured Friday night by State Police near the Conowingo Dam after a 95 m.p.h. chase which ended when they abandoned their car and tried to escape on foot.

Police said the burglary at Cockeysville netted the thieves $398.34 in cash, $600 in stock, $40 worth of postage stamps, and merchants stamps valued at $200.

PRR Installs Hot Box Detector

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad is going to enlist electronic aid in detecting hot boxes on freight cars.

The railroad said Wednesday it is installing a hot box detector at Bengies, Md. on the main line between Baltimore and New York.

The device consists of electronic scanners on the track at Bengies, 12 miles northeast of Baltimore, and a recorder at Edgewood, about 8 miles farther northeast.

When the scanner finds a freight car with an overheated journal, it automatically sets a signal and stops the train. The recorder shows which car and wheel is affected.

The railroad said the new system not only is a safeguard against derailment, but reduces the time required to locate trouble of this nature. Heretofore, the entire train had to be examined to find the trouble spot.

Similar devices are being placed in operation at other points.

Good Turn Ends In Fatal Crash

BALTIMORE (AP) — A motorist doing a good turn was involved Wednesday in a two-car collision that killed two persons and injured five others.

Mrs. Corrine V. Julian, 42, was killed in the accident in suburban Essex. John Colley, 25, died later at City Hospitals from head injuries and multiple fractures.

Police said William L. McDonough, 23, met Colley at a service station. Colley's car had broken down and McDonough offered him a lift back to the disabled vehicle.

Mc Donough apparently was making a U turn to park behind Colley's car, officers said, when the headon crash occurred with a car driven by Walter R. Bisarz, 26.

Critically hurt were Clayton Davis, 30, and Mrs. Helen Smith, 35.

All involved were from the Baltimore area.

Two Cecil Co. Girls Win Top Prizes At Fair

TIMONIUM, Md. (AP) — Two young girls from Cecil County, one a blonde and the other brunette, won top prizes Wednesday in 4-H Club judging at the Maryland State Fair.

The brunette, Ruth MacCauley, 18, who lives on a farm in northern Cecil County, was far and away the top winner in the judging of food exhibits. She won seven first place ribbons, four second prizes and two third place awards.

The awards covered 4-H exhibits in food preservation and baking.

The blonde winner was pretty 16-year-old Adele Brown, whose father, Frank D. Brown Jr., is chairman of the Maryland State Fair Board. He has a large dairy farm near Port Deposit in Cecil County.

Adele's senior yearling heifer was judged the best of its class in 4-H Guernsey competition over 13 other entries. She has been in 4-H activities for seven years and has shown cattle at the fair the past six years.

She and first place winners in other Guernsey classes will compete for the junior, senior and grand championship. Other judging Wednesday included 4-H Holstein.

Brown, who was elected chairman of the Fair Board last fall, presented special awards to 4-H youngsters who are showing cattle for the first time this year and whose parents have shown livestock in past years.

It was Eastern National Livestock Day and fair officials also gave that name to the day's feature purse at the half-mile track.

There were a few showers during the day, but the weather was nice enough to draw 15,018 persons to the fair. Of the total, 5,582 attended the races.

One feature Wednesday which was revived after a lapse of several years was a 4-H horsemanship contest. Some 21 youngsters competed for prizes by showing their ability at judging various ponies in five catagories, including breeding, anatomy, and general characteristics. The winner was Mary Whedbee of Baltimore County.

Sound Sleeper Is $520 Poorer

BALTIMORE (AP)—George W. Wood had a good night's rest but it cost him $520.

The tavern owner reported to police that early Wednesday someone placed a 20-foot ladder against his three-story building, forced a living-room window in his apartment, and removed from the living-room floor a cash register containing $340.

The thief then went into the kitchen, opened another cash register and took $80.50. On his way out, he picked up a cloth money bag containing $100 in nickels.

Wood slept through it all.

M&P Plans To Quit Operations

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Maryland & Pennsylvania Railroad Co. plans to go out of business. To do that it needs approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The line now operates between York, Pa. and Whiteford, Md.

James M. Hood, president of the American Shortline Railroad Assn. said deficits over the last 18 months have forced the company to the decision to abandon operations.

"The company does not intend to operate any further," Hood said. "It has concluded that is the only out."

The company has applied to the ICC for authority to abandon its 46 miles of tracks. It gave up service between Baltimore and Whiteford some time ago.

Hood speculated that the Pennsylvania Railroad or the Western Maryland Railroad might take over some of the Maryland & Pennsylvania terminal tracks at York.

Tanker Launching Set

BALTIMORE (AP)—A new 29,250 deadweight ton tanker, the S.S. Gulfsolar, will be launched Sept. 9 at the Bethlehem Steel Co. Sparrows Point shipyard.

The craft was built for the Gulf Oil Corp. and is one of six under contract. Two others have been completed.

When you have a bad day and everything goes wrong, look for the common denominator of your troubles!

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

A "Bad Day" Suggestion . . .

As often as it happens each day, every time a Powers Girl looms on my horizon, I automatically note all the details of her appearance. I can no more help it than a Geiger counter can help picking up radiations. The beauty, grooming and behavior of the Powers Girls has been my business for so many years that it's a spontaneous reaction — not critical, just fact-finding.

So naturally I was puzzled yesterday when a model I had already noted and approved, burst out with, "I don't know what's wrong with me today! I feel utterly drab and dismal. Everybody's down on me!"

But even a second, sharper survey of her appearance proved that she looked just as pretty, healthy and well-groomed as she should!

"Who's wrong with you today?" I asked, tsk-tsking a bit and lifting an eyebrow.

With a startled look, (I suppose she was mentally adding me to her list of wrong people of the day) she rushed to summarize the sad events. "Well, first thing a bus driver barked at me. Then, my sitting didn't go right because the stylist was cranky. A new dress I wanted for tonight did not arrive, and my luncheon date was the all-time bore of the year. . ."

"Sounds like the whole world's sure out of step with you today," I interrupted. "You don't look like a girl who deserves such a fate. I wonder just what the common denominator of all your day's troubles could be?"

Suddenly she laughed. "I know . . . you're just pointing out to me that I'm the one who's been uncooperative all day, and that nobody's down on me except myself!"

"You said that, I didn't! But you couldn't possibly have a bad day on any day that you are your natural, out-giving self!" I added.

She left my office singing this spur-of-the-moment jingle:

"Next time I feel this way,
I'll ask
Who's wrong with me today?"

Exchange Farmer Brings Ideas To Garrett County

The visit of a New Zealand dairy farmer to a Garrett County dairy and broiler farm brought about an exchange of ideas.

Twenty-five-year-old John Rodney Dodd of Dargaville, near Auckland, an International Farm Young Exchange farmer, put on his work clothes and worked right alongside Ross Crowe, of Gortner, president of the Garrett County Farm Bureau and winner of the Farming for Better Living Award.

Crowe has 100 acres along Route 219 between Oakland and Red House and he has 24 Holstein dairy cows and 12,000 chickens

Dodd brought with him some interesting information on his New Zealand farms. His father and his brother operate two farms—one of 200 acres and another of 73 acres. They have 110 dairy cows and 300 sheep.

He informed the Crowes that they had a pipeline milk system installed in their milking barns 20 years ago.

Very little grain raising is done as the cattle are pastured all year round. The New Zealander brought with him pictures verifying the results of heavy fertilizing of the pastures.

As a use of their byproduct of dairying, the Dodds raise hogs, feeding them skim milk.

The pastures can be used nearly all year around as the Dodds live in the northern (warmer) part of the country. Some years, young Dodd said, there has been no frost.

The Crowes said Dodd arrived in hay season and worked in the fields with the family.

He also took in the Garrett County Fair, showing interest in all of the exhibits and events. He said in his country they have one-day fairs sponsored by the Young Farmers Clubs. This organization corresponds to the older 4-H groups.

Dodd left Garrett County to stay on the Fred Kutschenreuter farm in Baltimore County and later he will go to the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Savage in Montgomery County.

Jury Will Hear Assault Case

The assault and battery case against Roscoe Tutwiler, a member of the Hampshire County Board of Education, will be heard before a jury in Circuit Court later this month.

Transfer of the case from the court of Justice of Peace A. L. Russell was arranged yesterday when State Sen. Ralph Bean, attorney for Tutwiler requested a jury trial.

R. W. Haines, prosecuting attorney, then asked that the case be transferred to the higher court.

Tutwiler was arrested on a warrant charging him with assault and battery upon A. Clinton Loy, superintendent of schools, prior to a meeting of the board at Romney last month. Loy obtained the warrant and it was served on Tutwiler by Sheriff M. R. Hott.

Loy told officers that Tutwiler grabbed hold of his (Loy's) shirt while he was seated talking to the president of the board, Russell Oates. No blows were struck as Tutwiler was grabbed by another board member, Loy said.

Speed Limit In LaVale Section To Be Lowered

The LaVale Civic Improvement Association board of directors was informed Tuesday that the speed limit on Route 40 in western LaVale will be lowered.

The association's directors, meeting in the LaVale Fire Hall, were informed by Lloyd Buchanan, president, of the results of the group's letter to the State Roads Commission.

The SRC traffic division stated that the limit will be lowered from 50 miles per hour to 40-35 from Cupler Drive to the Intersection of Route 40 with Route 53 at the Six Mile House.

The request for this action was made by the association due to the danger of school buses having to stop in that section.

Introduced as new members of the board of directors were Mrs. Verna Huff, 6 Richard Way, and Douglas Smith, 157 National Highway.

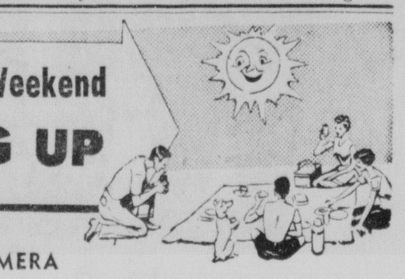

Cromwell Zembower, treasurer of the LaVale Volunteer Fire Company, reported on plans for the company's annual fund drive. This campaign held annually will be conducted with the assistance of the civic improvement association.

A fire tax for LaVale failed in a two-to-one vote in the referendum last month.

Zembower was informed that a committee will be named to assist in the door-to-door canvass scheduled next month.

Buchanan named a special committee on fire, sewage and water—Mrs. Florence Whitworth, Frank Tepper and Douglas Smith.

Committee reports read included Henry Wintermyer, police and fire; Byron Bonebreak, finance; Tepper, zoning, and Mrs. Whitworth, water and sewage.

Omicron BSP Rush Party Will Be Held October 6

Activities, beginning with a Rushing Party, were discussed at the first fall meeting of Omicron Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, which was held Tuesday evening at Central YMCA in the form of a dinner, marking the annual get-together to open the season. Mrs. Eve Sliviak presided. The party is to be held October 6, with Miss Patricia Golden chairman of arrangements. Plans will be completed at a meeting of the social committee to be held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Alpha Barb, LaVale.

A year's leave of absence was granted to Miss Dolores Chase and Miss Ellen Newnam; and Mrs. Kathryn Koon was appointed a member of the BSP City Council, replacing Miss Newnam.

Christmas cards, to be sold, were distributed. The standing rules for the chapter were adopted. Program books were distributed and each was assigned a topic for the meeting programs, which this year will be on the theme, "Heart To Heart," and are to be based on "Happiness."

Each member told of her vacation activities.

Miss Brunhilde Seidel was a guest. Other members present were Mrs. Koon, Mrs. Helen Arthur, Mrs. Loretta Smith, Miss Margaret Smith, Mrs. LaVerne Hankins, Miss Helen Mae Kreiling, Mrs. Martha VanHorn, Mrs. Charlotte Northcraft, Miss Shirley Sandsbury, Miss LeAnnah Matthews, Miss Golden, Mrs. Shirley Showengerth, Mrs. Emma Brugh, Mrs. Alpha Barb, Miss Newnam, Mrs. Mary Harrison and Mrs. Frances Frank.

Christian Miller Reunion Sept. 6

The annual Christian Miller clan reunion will be held September 6 at the Fairview Christian Church, Artemus, Pa. A basket lunch will be held at noon, followed by a program at 2 o'clock in the church.

East Side Club Favors Home Cake

Demonstrations featured the meeting of the East Side Homemakers Club Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Willmettie Haller, Goethe Street. A check for $15 from the Fair Association was placed in the club treasury for the sewing demonstration given at the Fair. The report on it was given by Mrs. Herman Curry, Mrs. Clara Flora and Mrs. Stanley Leasure. Routine reports were given by Mrs. Thomas Buser and Mrs. Stanley Morris. Mrs. Earl Smith reported on birthday cards sent.

Four types of devil's food cake were made by Mrs. Daniel Klavuhn and Mrs. Clarence Stewart in a food and nutrition demonstration on "Shall I Use a Mix or Mix it Myself?" Fourteen of the 15 presented voted in favor of the completely home-made cake.

Mrs. Lawrence Miller presided and gave the history of the hymn of the month, "Jerusalem, the Golden." Roll call was answered with ways to stretch the family food dollar. Mrs. Ella Simons was welcomed as a member and the group sang, "Fairest Lord Jesus," and "My Old Kentucky Home."

The next meeting will be October 6 at 7:30 at Melvin Methodist Church, with Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Leasure as hostesses. Concluding the meeting refreshments were served. Others present were Mrs. Debra Burkett, Mrs. Joseph Goodyear, Mrs. John Aaron and Mrs. Nettie Dicken.

Cormorants, after catching a fish, must bring it to the surface before swallowing it.

Our Flag of Cumberland Council 100, D of A, will meet at 8 tonight at Junior Order hall.

QUEEN OF THE FAIR—Pretty 18-year-old Allie Lee Boice, a University of Maryland sophomore, receives a bracelet and silver bowl from Rep. Daniel B. Brewster. They are symbols of her office as Maryland Farm Queen. The Prince Georges County co-ed was selected Monday evening to reign over the Maryland State Fair, now under way at Timonium. The Frederick County 4-H booth won the blue ribbon with its Study Center emphasizing "Light Bright-Study Right." The Howard County exhibit, "Be a Clean Jean," of a girl's bedroom, also won a blue ribbon. Red ribbons were awarded to Caroline 4-H'ers, "Be Alert-See Home Hazards," showing frayed electric cords, rubbish in the attic, open trunks, scatter rugs and overloaded outlets; Dorchester and Charles counties with exhibits on grooming and bedroom closet accessories. Junior Civic Club Board Outlines Year's Activities

Plans for the year were outlined at the board meeting of the Junior Woman's Civic Club, which was held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Sell Jr., Camden Avenue, acting president.

Discussing the vacancy of vice president, when Mrs. Sell assumes the duties of Mrs. Ray Hull, who is moving to Pennsylvania, it was decided that the nominating committee is to submit a slate at the September meeting and election will be held in October.

The first general meeting will be a dinner September 8, instead of the 9th as originally scheduled. It is to be at the Cumberland Country Club at 6:30 p.m. Mrs. Leslie Clark and Miss Marilyn Heiskell are co-chairmen of arrangements.

Activities discussed included the annual dance to be held late in November or early December; the annual style show, Christmas bazaar, and speakers and programs for the general meetings.

Board Of Education Spends $11,659 To Correct Fire Hazards In Schools

Much work has gone into public schools for correction of fire hazards, Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of Allegany County public schools, noted yesterday.

During the fiscal year that ended June 30, a total of $11,659 was spent on repairs to correct the hazards reported during the winter inspection by Jesse E. Jacobs, assistant state fire marshal.

More was spent this summer, Webster noted, when boiler rooms and coal bins were idle.

One of the main steps taken, as advocated by the state fire marshal, John Meyers, is plastering boiler rooms with fire resistant materials.

Many have already had this treatment and this summer the work was done in Midland, Corriganville and LaVale schools.

Doors of many boiler rooms were covered with metal and coal bins were partitioned.

All fire extinguishers are of the new type, CO 2 or soda acid. Panic doors were installed this summer on Penn Avenue, LaVale, Central Elementary, Barton and Columbia Street schools.

Doors and panic equipment were checked on every school. The fire escape on Virginia Avenue School was repaired.

The Board of Education continued on its program of eventually having all schools with new wiring. This is a continual process, keeping the electric systems up to date.

Stage curtains of older variety were flame-proofed this summer. The later curtains all have flame proofing according to the Board of Education's specifications.

Treasure In Coins

LISBON (AP)—A crock of gold coins worth around $20 each has been found in a ruined house in Moncarapacho, in southern Portugal, by the village gravedigger. The hundreds of coins are 18th century and earlier. The gravedigger for years had been telling people there was treasure in the house but no one could find it.

Accident 50 Years Ago Figures In Award Case

An accident 50 years ago in which a Lonaconing man, then 11 years old, suffered the loss of his left foot when run over by a street car, figured in a Workmen's Compensation Commission award.

Simon F. Reilly, attorney for Archie H. Ferrens, 61, of Lonaconing, yesterday received notice of an award of $20,000 for Ferrens for being totally disabled.

Reilly explained that Ferrens lost the left foot 50 years ago and that some months ago while employed at the Mt. Wilson State Hospital in Baltimore the man slipped on a wet porch and was thrown. He suffered an injury to his right leg.

A hearing was held on Ferrens' claim by the Workmen's Compensation Commission and under the provisions of the Second Injury Fund it was found that he was totally disabled.

The $20,000 is being paid at the rate of $35.73 per week. Under the state regulations the insurance company pays part of the award and the balance comes from the Second Injury Fund. Ferrens was carrying a container while at work at the hospital when he fell.

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN: My wife's mother lived with us for 12 years. She helped with the house work and cooking and was wonderful with the children. We never considered her a burden. The only time I became slightly annoyed with her was when she'd take the page with your column out of the paper and forget to put it back.

My wife has two sisters and a brother. They never offered to help with Grandma's expenses. We bought her clothes, paid her doctor bills and saw to it that she had a little money in her purse. The last year of her life was expensive. She was ill a great deal.

Grandma's will was probated last week. We didn't know she had anything. To our surprise she owned modest amounts of stocks and War Bonds from both World War I and II.

The estate is not large by some standards, but it's a lot of money to people like us.

Now the big question: Grandma left everything to us. The brother and sisters are closing in. They say Grandma was "all there" and it's up to us to do the "right thing." So—Ann Landers, what is the right thing? Shall we let them share in Grandma's money? B and C.

DEAR B and C.: The money isn't Grandma's, it's yours. She left it to you—all of it. If you want to share your money with a swarm of locusts, go ahead.

DEAR ANN: What do you do about friends who borrow books and forget to return them? (Sometimes, when they do come back, several pages are folded over, passages are underlined in ink and coffee-cup circles appear here and there.)

Do you suggest such friends buy you a new book?

THE SIMP.

DEAR SIMP: If this happens more than once with the same slob—I mean friend—then you deserve it.

People who forget to return books, or return them in poor condition are boors—and their name is legion. Don't ask for a new book. If they aren't decent enough to bring back the old one they'll never buy you a new one. Just inform them (when they want another book) that the lending library has gone out of business—and why.

DEAR ANN: I came from a small town and grew up with a fine girl I'll call Molly. Before I left for service I gave her a ring. She wrote to me every day and I wrote whenever I felt like it, which was about twice a month.

When she began to describe the things she was buying for our home I felt like a dog because I'd already started to date Anita, who lived in the town where I was stationed.

I don't know how to explain this, but before I knew it, Anita and I were married. My mother and dad are no longer living but I have two brothers back in the home town and I haven't told them yet because of Molly.

I know if I don't tell them soon the news will leak. To make matters worse, I think I love Molly and not Anita. What shall I do? G. I. J.

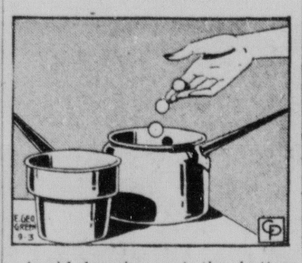

DEAR G. I. J.: What do you mean "Before you knew it you were married to Anita"? Did you just look in the church—and there you were, getting married?

Write Molly at once. And now that you're married, make the best of it. Peersonally I think Molly is lucky. You sound like a double-dealing, faithless heel. It's Anita who got stuck.

To learn the difference between a marriage that "settles down" and one that "gets dull," send for Ann Landers' booklet, "What To Expect From Marriage," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners voted unanimously Tuesday to require all constables to turn all of their fees in to the county treasure.

Industry-Union Showdown Nears

Big labor is using the occasion of Labor Day this year to post a unified battle line in support of David J. McDonald and his beleaguered Steelworkers. The AFL-CIO Executive Council, in a militant resolution August 20, declared the federation's "determination to make the steel strike the struggle of the whole American labor movement."

Members of 135 affiliates were asked to demonstrate the "solidarity of American workers (in) this historic struggle for human justice" by observing "Support-the-Steelworkers" Day instead of the usual garden-variety holiday. More to the point, the affiliates were asked to help refurbish the Steelworkers' war chest by kicking in perhaps a penny a day per member. A wholehearted response would bring in about $4 million a month, exclusive of whatever cash value may be placed on James R. Hoffa's offer of "100 per cent support" from the Teamsters.

The common front appears to have developed out of a spreading conviction among union tacticians that more is involved in the current steel strike than the usual two-sided paring down from rhetoric to essentials. When negotiations began last spring, the general prognosis was for a small wage increase followed by a small price increase or, alternatively, for some concessions involving fringe benefits and no price increase.

But industry negotiators have shown no disposition to split the difference in the customary way. In fact, they've even proposed abolishing the cost-of-living escalator clause in the old contract.

In the face of record profits, what is billed on the industry side as a battle against inflation looks increasingly to labor like a straight power play, aimed, says one pro-labor commentator (Paul Jacobs in The Reporter, August 20), at freeing "American industry from its bondage to the trade unions." What began as a mild labor dispute could very well turn into one of the bitterest labor struggles in the past quarter century.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

The Chien Lung Line

The Manchus, a Tatar race, came through the Great Wall into China in 1644 and conquered the country. They continued their conquests until they reached their apogee during the reign of the Emperor Chien Lung. At that time, the indefinite Chinese boundaries "included" such areas as Manchuria, Mongolia, Turkestan, Tibet and some parts of what are now Burma and India.

I put the word, included, in quotation marks because the Manchus never rules any part of China. They reigned but did not rule. They conquered some areas by military force, but they employed Chinese to govern and they employed mostly Chinese troops to fight for them. They accepted tribute and sold tax rights, but the government of peoples was always in the hands of those directly concerned with localities.

So when it is claimed that such areas as Bhutan, Sikkim and Nepal and parts of Kashmir were once Chinese territory and are included in China on a map prepared by the Communists, it is meaningless phraseology. At one time or another many Asiatic countries sent tribute to the Chinese throne, but such tribute was not evidence of ownership of the territory by China.

In fact, it has always been difficult to define the term, China. The Chinese themselves referred to their country as "The Middle Kingdom," that is the center of the universe, and all lands on the periphery of "The Middle Kingdom" were either tributaries or barbarians. When the Ta Ching Dynasty collapsed and China became a republic, the five-barred Chinese flag was adopted and the variegated racial character of the country was recognized, each bar representing a distinct race. The Kuomintang, when it took over the government of China under Chiang Kai-shek, gave up the five-barred flag, denying, in effect, the racial differences and distinctions among the Chinese people. The number of distinct races in China is greater than the flag represented, including many aboriginal pre-Chinese peoples.

The Kuomintang adopted the principle of nationalism, a principle which had never existed in China before and was not understood by the Chinese people. They had believed in the principle of local self-government, "difan chui," which had stood them in good stead for centuries.

The significance of this in the present quarrel with India is that the term, China, is geographical and has never been political in the sense of a national state because no government before ruled over the entire extent of the territory that at any time appeared on the map as China. Arnold Toynbee, in his study, makes a distinction between Sinic and Chinese in order to explain the very complex distinction which I am attempting to explain here.

In effect, China has historically been a civilization rather than a country; a way of life rather than a government. Whether the Chinese Communists can alter varying traditions; create a single tongue out of more than a hundred languages and dialects; break down countless variations of traditional habits — all this is yet to be seen. Present indications are that they are not succeeding as rapidly as they had expected.

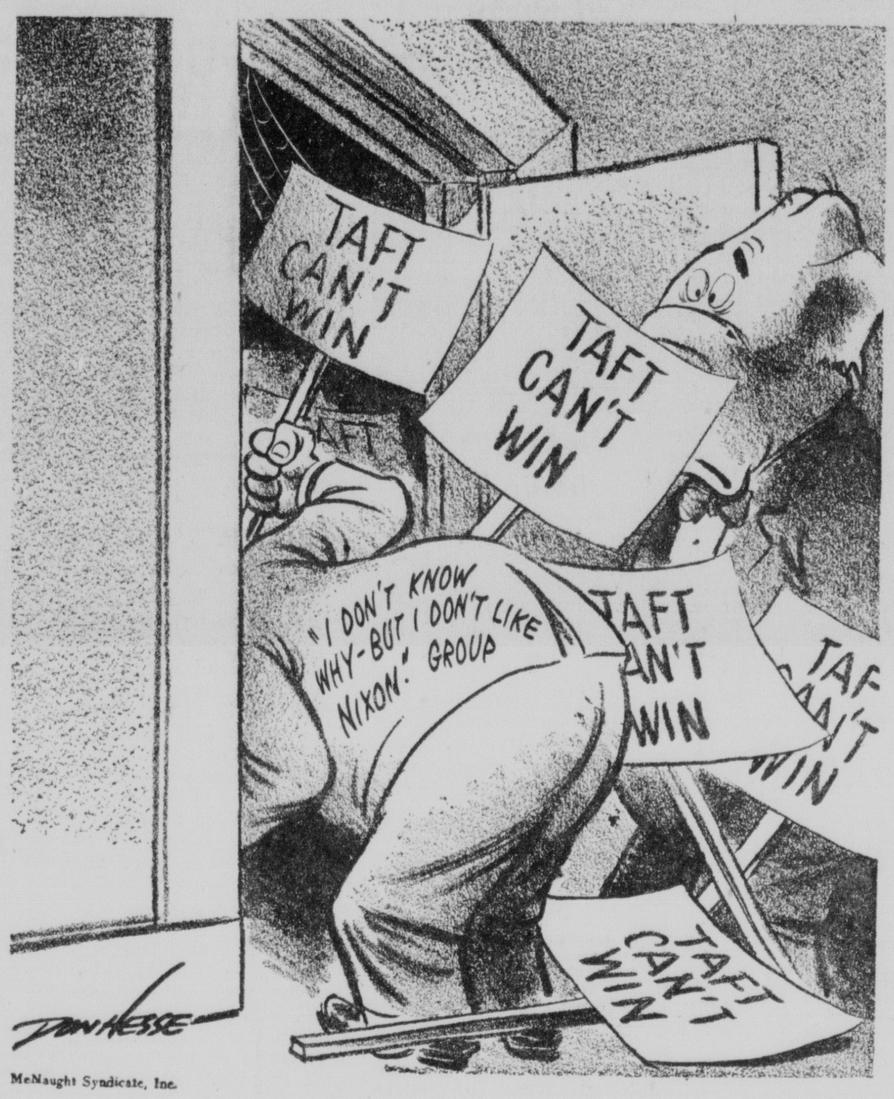

Such countries as Nepal, Bhutan and Sikkim lie in the Himalayas on the borders of two civilizations, the Chinese and the Hindu. In such countries, the variations of religious and traditional and linguistic experience become mixed. The influence of Hinduism (Brahmanism), Buddhism and Confucianism are strongly intermingled and produce blooms that are different and variegated. The peoples are blended, as all border peoples are mixed everywhere in the world. In Asia, where plural marriage has been usual, centuries of intermixture of races and peoples have produced new races and new peoples in each generation with a sturdy peasantry that represents a basic stock.

Red China, by moving into Bhutan and Sikkim, serves notice on India and the world that its immediate territorial designs reach to the Chien Lung line which will also include some territory in Kashmir. This can produce a war with India that could, and probably will if it happens, involve Great Britain as a member of the Commonwealth, and the United States as a SEATO power. Nehru is, however, not one to make war readily. Whether it is cowardice or an Asiatic brand of pacifism, he prefers to talk rather than to fight. The Communists are breathing down his neck and he cannot talk much.

Is this a pleasant introduction to Khrushchev's visit to this country?

(King Features Syndicate)

'All We Need Is To Change Taft To Nixon'

Allies Must Avoid Appearance Of Indecision

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON—Although President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Macmillan gave an impression of unity of purpose in their joint television-radio broadcast from London Monday night, there were plainly apparent some substantial differences as to what are the best tactics to use in dealing with Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Quite clearly the political under-currents in Britain require a Prime Minister to favor "summit" meetings and personal negotiations with the Soviet Premier irrespective of the ultimate consequences, whereas Mr. Eisenhower seems to feel that even a "summit" meeting should be preceded by some show of progress toward peace with the Moscow government.

These postures are not new. London and Washington have made them plain before. But it was nevertheless significant that in this impromptu conversation between the two leaders of the West the same skepticism and doubts about Soviet policy that hitherto have been expressed by the United States government are accompanied by the same words of confidence uttered by the British that somehow by continuous talk with Khrushchev solutions will be found, even if it takes a dozen meetings of the top leaders of both sides.

Mr. Eisenhower, on the other hand, is troubled by the impression of weakness which a marathon of talks could produce. He was careful to point out that talk is all right in its place as a means of exploration or search for a solution but that principles cannot be abandoned.

Mr. Macmillan agreed broadly with this approach, but he left some doubt as to whether he believes principle is worth standing on indefinitely, when he said that "We have got to be flexible about the new conditions that arise and how to deal with each situation." The President graciously translated this into flexibility of "tactics," rather than retreat on the principle itself. He said:

"In other words, you are saying strategic principle stays immutable—tactics change according to armed weapons and the different changes."

Mr. Eisenhower then, as an example, emphasized the principle involved in West Berlin, where, he said, two million free Western Berliners cannot be abandoned—a case in which we've really got to be firm, in my opinion."

While the British leader was trying hard to give the appearance of harmony, he still put in a boost just the same for his favorite concept — "flexibility." He commented:

"I agree with that, and I agree also with your other principle, that we've got to use the right tactical methods to achieve our purpose with a reasonable amount of adjustment that is necessary from time to time."

All this may sound as if the television broadcast was a kind of struggle with words and their finer meanings as applied to the diplomatic problems of the hour, but actually the differences are ingrained in the philosophy of the London government and in the point of view toward Europe taken by the United States in the last four decades.

Thus in Britain, as the President recognized, there is a pressure for more trade with the Soviet Union and a trend toward "adjustment" of differences on what is called a "practical" basis. But the United States has been able, in connection with the policies it followed in entering the two world wars, to disassociate itself from the material side and to emphasize its many sacrifices for the cause of human liberty and freedom.

The most realistic portion of the broadcast was the pointed references made by Mr. Macmillan to the circumstances that led to the two world wars. He thought the First World War could have been prevented and "happened by mistake," but that the Second World War could not have been avoided, no matter what preceded it, "because wicked men plotted it who were determined to achieve their aims."

The British Prime Minister refers to the "danger that we might drift into something by mistake," but, unfortunately, the situation facing the world today is more like that which preceded World War II than World War I. For "wicked men" are in power in Moscow, and again there is a tendency on the part of their potential adversaries to appease them. These are the tactics which can lead to another miscalculation as to the resoluteness and determination of the West.

Altogether, the decision of Messrs. Eisenhower and Macmillan to avoid the explicitness of a question-and-answer press conference, and to deal instead with current problems in an implicit way through carefully chosen phrases in an extemporaneous broadcast, is a sign of the gravity of the whole situation. For, while the President has undertaken his present trip to Europe in order to cement the Western Alliance, he is well aware that the psychological effects of any British-American pronouncements could be far-reaching. The alert-minded Khrushchev could take advantage of any signs of cleavage or indeed weaknesses, despite every outward appearance of unity.

The Eisenhower mission to the Allies is as important as, if not more important than, the subsequent parleys with Khrushchev himself. For the Soviet Premier knows appeasement when he sees it and recognizes irresoluteness if there is the slightest suggestion of it by word or deed.

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

WASHINGTON — As Congress nears completion of its session's work, it can be sized up as a political draw between Republicans and Democrats.

Neither side will emerge from the contest unscathed. President Eisenhower and his administration won some notable victories, including a slow-down on Democratic big-spending plans and an unblemished record of never having had a veto overridden.

However, the Democrats can point to some solid accomplishments, too. They succeeded in delivering a stinging rebuke to the President by rejecting his nominee, Lewis Strauss, as secretary of Commerce. They have markedly reduced the foreign aid program, forced some spending concessions from the White House, and successfully bottled up measures which the administration deeply desired.

Neither political faction can point to a record of accomplishment that is either unusual or "far reaching." It was a pretty routine session of the legislators.

Actually, behind the scenes there is solid evidence that both parties wanted it this way. After all, there are limits to the number of issues that catch the voters' interest, and there's no sense in wasting ammunition prematurely.

Next year is a presidential election year. Democrats feel they are ahead in this race. Republicans act as though they realize they must overtake public sentiment which went against them so strongly in the 1958 congressional elections.

The big, sensational battles are apt to be fought then, under more urgent political conditions, and with a bigger prize immediately at stake.

Reducing Pills No Shortcut For Losing Weight

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

There are no short cuts to dieting if you really want to lose weight. The record sales of reducing tablets is the response to the demand for an easy way to shed a few pounds. But, despite claims to the contrary, to lose weight, a person must eat less.

Added poundage represents fat that has been deposited in the tissues. It does not come in through the air. This fat must be burned by the body to make it disappear. This is done by reducing the intake of food to such an extent that the body must call upon the stored fat to obtain its energy requirements. When this stage is reached, weight loss occurs.

Weight reducing tablets or capsules cannot eliminate surplus fat. The most they can do is to discourage appetite, which helps the individual eat less. Some capsules also impart a sense of well-being and, in this respect, nullify the weakness bothering so many reducers. But the effect of these products usually wears off in a few weeks and thereafter tubby is on his own again.

Dietary supplements, such as vitamins and mineral, do not melt away the excess fat. They are recommended on the assumption that a low caloric diet may lack certain food elements. They are advertised as supplements and that is all they are.

Failure to lose weight is traced to lack of will power in some and ignorance concerning foods and calories in others. Many persons sneak tidbits during the day that add hundreds of calories to the diet. Sauces, spreads, and other food extras are loaded with hidden calories. Cocktails are poison to a dieter and the fat on meat doubles the calorie count. There is no need to go hungry so long as celery or fresh fruit is available. A glass of water is better than nothing for this purpose.

Take it easy and don't go overboard on dieting. Cutting down to a normal size takes time, and maintaining a slim figure represents a lifetime job.

(Dr. Van Dellen will send a leaflet on reducing if stamped, addressed envelope accompanies request.)

HE CAN'T REMEMBER

S. N. writes: If, after many drinks on an empty stomach, a man cannot recall certain events the next morning, does this mean he is an alcoholic?

REPLY

No. He was intoxicated. But more information would be needed before he could be labeled an alcoholic. It depends on how often he drinks and what his drinking is doing to him. Many alcoholics go through a stage in their downfall during which they drink so much they do not remember what they did the night before.

HAY FEVER BRINGS TEARS

L. R. writes: Why do the tear ducts become overly active with hay fever?

REPLY

Because pollen irritates the inner lining of the eyelids, causing congestion.

NOT TOO HELPFUL

W. B. writes: Is a vaccine available against staphylococcal infections?

REPLY

Yes, but it is not always effective.

TOMORROW: Why they stopped smoking.

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Old Doc Schnitzel, in the hillbilly country, was called upon to treat the very young bride of a worried moonshiner. He assured the husband, "That little wife of yours is going to be all right. She's just teething."

Another time, Doc. Schnitzel gingerly raised his scalpel to perform an appendectomy on what looked like a long black cord on the table. A nurse whispered admiringly, "There goes old Doc Schnitzel again—operating on a shoe string."

Three gents in a hurry had lunched together in a beanery. "I want some tea," the first one told the waiter, "and it should be in a glass." "I also will have a glass of tea," said the second. The third added, "Make mine tea, too—but remember, I want it in a clean glass."

The waiter returned in his own good time with three glasses of tea. "Now which one," he demanded, "wanted the clean class?"

Mitchell, Summerfield Feud Over Who's In Charge Of Labor Affairs

By Jack Anderson

WASHINGTON—The backstage tugging and tussling over labor reform legislation has brought to a head a feud inside the President's official family between Secretary of Labor Jim Mitchell and Postmaster General Art Summerfield.

Long annoyed over Summerfield's obsession with labor matters, Mitchell finally threw up his hands in despair when the Postmaster General took over the lobbying campaign to pass the Landrum-Griffin bill.

This is a labor bill which has nothing to do with the post office. It was up to Mitchell, not Summerfield, to decide how to steer it through Congress. Except for setting forth the administration's views in a letter to Congressman George Wallhauser (R-N. J.), Mitchell left the lobbying to the legislative experts from the White House and Labor Department.

But Summerfield marched up to Capitol Hill, set up a command post in Illinois Congressman Les Arends' office close by the House floor and summoned wavering Republicans into his presence.

He put on the heat with the skill of a housewife cooking Sunday dinner. On some he used threats to cut off their post-office patronage. To others, he simply pleaded: "The President wants this bill badly. He's depending on you. Please don't let him down."

Pressure Cooker

Among those who stuck their heads in Summerfield's pressure cooker were Congressman Bill Cahill and Frank Osmers of New Jersey, Bob Corbett and John Saylor of Pennsylvania, Arch Ward of West Virginia, Bill Bray of Indiana and Fred Schwengel of Iowa. All voted exactly opposite to the way Summerfield instructed them.

The reason the Postmaster General temporarily dropped his campaign against smutty literature to lead the fight for labor reform was to appease the Republican bosses in his home state of Michigan. He has been on the defensive with them over many Eisenhower policies, but their stand on the labor issue happily coincided.

Knowing the GOP powers in Michigan are more interested in cracking down on labor unions than cleaning up the mails, Summerfield leaped into the middle of the labor reform battle. By this he hopes to gain their support for the vice presidential nomination, a prize Mitchell also is known to covet.

But the Labor Secretary wishes Summerfield would campaign for the vice presidency in his own department. At a recent Cabinet meeting, Mitchell offered not to interfere with the mails if Summerfield would keep his nose out of the Labor Department.

Lobbyists' Tactics

An attempt by the trucking lobby to bring Congressional pressure on the Interstate Commerce Commission has backfired like a truck with a bad engine.

The truckers helped prepare a letter which Sen. George Smathers, Florida Democrat, unwittingly signed. When he found out how the letter had been used, however, he fired off a second letter withdrawing the first.

The issue: The truckers hoped to influence the ICC's decision on piggy-back service, the name given to railroads' practice of hauling trailers on flat cars for less than trucks can pull them over the highways. Those in the trucking business understandably would like to outaw the practice.

To give political emphasis to their arguments before the ICC, their lobbyists slipped around to see Senator Smathers who, as chairman of the Senate's Surface Transportation subcommittee, is a big power in this field.

Without taking sides, Smathers agreed to investigate their complaints and asked Frank Barton of the subcommittee staff to draft a letter to the ICC for his signature.

Loaded Letter

The letter was supposed to invite the commissioners simply to participate in an informal discussion. But Barton permitted the trucking lobbyists to help compose it.

They twisted the letter into a propaganda document for the truckers. Sample: "Some of the rates being published for performance of piggy-back service are destructively low and violate the established principles of transportation rate-making."

Barton delivered the finished composition to Smathers as he was about to board a plane. With only a quick glance at it, he scrawled his signature across the bottom.

Next day he learned that his letter had been written to influence the ICC's decision on the piggy-back cases. He hastily dictated another letter, declaring: "It has long been my personal view that the Commission was in the best position to decide problems of this type and certainly it was not my wish to be pictured as an advocate of being on either one side or the other of an active litigation going on. For these reasons, I respectfully request that the Commission ignore in toto my (previous) letter."

Political Potpourri

Two big guns in the Republican Party — Kentucky's Sen. Thruston Morton, GOP National Chairman, and Pennsylvania's Congressman Dick Simpson, GOP Congressional Campaign Chairman, recently flew to Kansas City together. Browsing through a news magazine, Simpson came upon a report that he was the Republican Congressman Ike dislikes most . . . "I wonder who the hell put this out," snorted Simpson, pointing out the passage to his seatmate. Morton discreetly didn't mention that the passage was based upon his own remarks to newsmen at an off-the-record dinner . . . President Eisenhower, before his European departure, tried to make up with Simpson by phoning him and thanking him warmly for his help in pushing the Landrum-Griffin labor reform bill through the House.

More On Birrell

By Leslie Gould

NEW YORK — An Over-the-Counter brokerage firm — which is still active — in January of 1956 — put out a circular on Greater New York Industries. This was one of fugitive financier Lowell Birrell's vehicles for picking up millions.

The circular puffing Greater New York Industries started:

"Practically overnight this company has changed from a status of slow growth to one of dynamic aliveness — a change which we believe gives investors with vision an unusual opportunity for profits.

"The business acumen and foresight of the management of Greater New York Industries has never been more clearly demonstrated than by the recent exchange of over 200,000 Doeskin Products, Inc., on a basis of 2½ for one giving Greater New York Industries more than 500,000 shares of Swan-Finch Oil Co. Through this move Greater New York Industries still retains working control of Doeskin and assumes control of Swan Finch which is a 103-year old business formerly part of the Standard Oil empire. . .

"We believe that the market price of this stock has not yet begun to reflect the tremendous improvement that Swan Finch exchange has made in its affairs and that discerning investors who purchase at current levels will receive large profits."

The brokerage firm that sent out the above quoted "puff" says it had no contact with Birrell, being merely impressed by the outlook and the market at that time.

The firm is J. A. Winston & Co., members of the National Association of Securities Dealers, with offices at 11 Broadway.

The date of this circular was Jan. 30. The stock went up right after this plug was sent out.

The stock in January had a range of 50 to 68 ¾ cents on the bid side, 75 cents to $1 on the asked. On Feb. 2 it was quoted at $1.25 bid and $1.43 ¾ asked. The stock has never been that high since.

Today the market is one cent a share bid and 4 cents asked. The company has vanished as also have its books and records. The office was closed with no forwarding address.

Greater New York Industries has been a scandalous operation almost from its inception. It started out as a combination of four New York area breweries, taking the name of Greater New York Breweries in 1940. Birrell became chairman and president in 1942 and two years later changed the name to Greater New York Industries.

The shares were in the penny class when he took over, being around 6¼ cents. He got the stock up to $1.35 in 1944, when the name was changed and it was pushed to its all-time high of $5.12½ in 1946. It settled back, getting as low as 15 cents in '49.

Birrell was still in control and as far as records show he held the top office until just before he became a fugitive in 1957 — more than two years ago.

Another character in deals with Birrell is Alexander Guterma, just indicted with him on SEC charges involving United Dye & Chemical, when its shares were listed on the Stock Exchange.

Guterma, as disclosed by this column, is having other difficulties. A Federal Grand Jury in Washington is seeking to discover whether he obtained $750,000 in cash from Dominican strongman — Rafael Trujillo — to publicize that country over the radio.

If Guterma got his cash, putting up as reported securities purporting to be control of the Mutual Broadcasting System, which he headed for a time, he faces charges of failing to register as agent of a foreign government. The Grand Jury is seeking to find out whether this Mutual stock had been freshly printed and were not the true certificates.

Greater New York Industries was Birrell's main vehicle for financial juggling. He used it to get control of Doeskin and Swan-Finch. He is charged with getting away with $14 million of the assets of those two.

It was done by the swapping around of securities. In 1949 a subsidiary of Greater New York —Louisville Fire & Marine — at Birrell's direction bought out the controlling shareowners in Doeskin — then San-Nap-Pak. He became an officer. In 1953, Greater New York sold out its Louisville Fire shares but took over the insurance firm's holdings of Doeskin.

The next year Birrell got control of Swan-Finch, with its American Stock Exchange listing. In 1956 Swan-Finch exchanged 500,000 shares of its stock for 200,000 shares of Doeskin from Greater New York.

Investors in all these ventures have fared the same — badly. Doeskin shares went from $5 in '49 to $11.75 in '53 and $19.37½ in '54 — its high. The current market is $1.87½ bid.

Swan-Finch shares, which got to $38 the year Birrell got control, were split three for one the next year. The American Stock Exchange suspended trading and the split stock got down to 11 cents — or 33 cents on the old basis in 1957. The current market for the split stock is 37½ cents bid.

And Birrell has yet to be brought before a jury.

Syndicate Buys Two Million In Highway Bonds

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—A syndicate headed by the Northern Trust Co. of Chicago was the successful bidder Wednesday for $2,000,000 worth of West Virginia state road bonds.

State Treasurer Orel J. Skeen said the group offered a net interest rate of 3.75 per cent. Second lowest among a record 17 bidders was the Philadelphia National Bank which quoted an interest rate of 3.77 per cent.

The bonds were issued under the 1920 Good Roads Amendment which set up a $50,000,000 revolving fund for highway improvements in West Virginia.

The 1959 Legislature approved the sale of $5,000,000 of the bonds this year. The state sold the other $3,000,000 worth last May at an interest rate of 3.44 per cent.

The net cost of the bonds sold to the syndicate will be $977,400.

Market Follows Narrow Course On Light Trading

NEW YORK (UPI) — Absence of new incentive, and the thorn of tight money kept the stock market in a narrow course on routine turnover Wednesday.

Prices in most groups were irregular although the motors, metals, drugs, and steels generally favored the upside.

Volume lightened again with turnover of 2,370,000 shares 60,000 behind Tuesday's total. Brokers generally expect little of the market the rest of this week in view of the coming long Labor Day weekend.

American Motors, which countered in Tuesday's lower market with a gain of a point, added another ⅝ point on the day's most active trading. Studebaker issues also were active with the common and the common when-issued among the top five actives.

Standard Oil (N. J.) which, after the close announced plans to merge all its domestic producing, refining and marketing affiliated companies, also was well up on the active list. It rose a fraction.

Thiokol Chemical, off 2½ points, completed the top five volume leaders. In the same group, U.S. Borax dropped nearly a point.

Opening lead: Ten of ♣.

East discovered in today's hand that his innocuous looking holding actually contained an overabundance of assets which he was unable to protect against the onslaughts of an excessively ambitious declarer.

South's four no trump call was rather questionable in view of his spade holding, but it is his final leap to seven hearts that inspires our strongest criticism. After North showed only one king, South should surely have been content to settle for a small slam. It was not reasonable to expect North to be able to take care of all his losers.

West opened the ten of clubs, which was taken by declarer with the ace. The ace and king of diamonds were cashed and a low diamond ruffed in dummy with the nine of hearts. Declarer returned to his hand with the eight of trumps and ruffed the remaining diamond with the ten of hearts. East felt that he could not afford to part with a club so he discarded a spade.

Declarer then led the queen of hearts and overtook it in his hand to lead out the rest of his trumps. Two spades were thrown from dummy which came down to the lone ace of spades and three clubs while South held the queen-nine of spades and the queen-eight of clubs.

East found himself in an impossible position. On the third trump lead he could throw a spade. But on the last heart it seemed obviously futile to throw a club so he parted with another spade in the hope that partner had the queen of that suit. Declarer then cashed the ace of spades and the battle was over.

The taunting temptress of "THE YOUNG LIONS" . . . even more taunting and tempting as the half-angel, half-witch whose beauty made fools of all men. No woman ever offered a man more—and gave him less!

She teased, taunted and tempted a man until the fatal fascination of her flesh made her kind of woman—and her kind of love, irresistible!

She knew every trick and wile in the book, every twist and turn of temptation and invented more of her own!

The screen's most adult look at the ways of love!

Moorefield High School Has Overflow Enrollment

Additional Space Being Provided

MOOREFIELD—A sharp increase in the enrollment of Moorefield High School will necessitate additional classrooms, according to the announcement of Raymond Dispanet, county school superintendent. Moorefield high's enrollment jumped by nearly 40 students to 515, the first time in history the enrollment is over 500.

Both Mathias and Wardensville high schools have approximately the same enrollment as last year.

Dispanet said that temporarily the classrooms at Moorefield high would be overcrowded but that the present Board of Education offices and the warehouse would be turned over to the high school as soon as the move could be made and minor alterations completed. An adequate science hall and chemistry laboratory will be prepared in the present board offices and warehouse. Adequate toilet facilities are available. Due to the Federal Aid program which Hardy County qualified for in passing the Special Levy, all equipment will be secured through Federal funds. Dispanet said the additional classrooms would be made available at no additional cost.

The Board of Education offices will be moved to Sanders School which is closed this year.

The three additional classrooms should take care of Moorefield High School's steadily increasing enrollment for the next several years, and will accommodate an enrollment up to 550, according to Dispanet.

Sanders students are attending Moorefield graded school and Toll Gate this year with no significant change in the enrollment at either school. Miss Sara Brooks is assigned to Toll Gate school from Moorefield high as originally announced and Mrs. Mollie Harvey is assigned to Moorefield graded school.

An extra classroom has been equipped at Moorefield graded school for a special educational program for students who need special help.

Enrollment figures for the county schools will be compiled by the end of the week. Dispanet said he doesn't expect a significant change from last year's total enrollment of 2327.

15 Women Drawn For Jury Duty

Garrett Opens Court Sept. 14

OAKLAND — Fifteen women were drawn for jury duty from among the 48 persons selected by Associate Judge Neil C. Fraley to serve at the September term of Circuit Court. This is the first jury chosen since the law went into effect granting women the right to serve on juries.

The law does not actually compel a woman to serve on a jury, but after being selected, if she does not want to serve, she must go through a stretch of "red tape." She must present her objections in writing to the clerk of the Circuit Court within a certain period after being notified that she has been called to duty.

The 23 grand jurors and 25 petit jurors were selected in the presence of attorneys and court officials. Judge Fraley named Gerald R. Iman, of Kitzmiller, foreman of the grand jury which is scheduled to convene Monday, September 14, at 10 a. m.

Other members of the grand jury include Louise M. Shaffer, Edward R. Harris, Eugene N. Johnson, Mahlon Miller, R. Thomas Thayer Jr., Herbert C. Wildesen, Ray Teets, Frank B. Biser, Geraldine E. Pittsburgh Drops Doubleheader To Reds, 6-3 And 2-1

Buccos Dealt Severe Blow By Cincinnati

Jones' Homer Wins First; Newcombe Bags 13th In 2nd

CINCINNATI (UPI) — The Cincinnati Reds delivered a crippling blow to Pittsburgh's pennant chances Wednesday night by sweeping a twi-night double-header from the Pirates, 6-3 and 2-1.

Johnny Temple's two-out triple and Vada Pinson's 44th double of the season, one short of the club record, broke a 1-1 tie in the eighth inning of the nightcap and gave big Don Newcombe his 13th victory of the season against seven losses.

Willie Jones' three-run homer broke a 3-all tie in the eighth inning of the opener. Rookie lefty Jimmy O'Toole went the route to earn his third straight victory.

A passed ball by Smoky Burgess, coupled with singles by Ed Bailey and Newcombe gave the Reds' an unearned run off Bob Friend in the fifth inning of the nightcap.

Whitey Lockman's bobble of Burgess' grounder, and his wild throw which followed, paved the way for an unearned Pirate marker in the seventh, knotting the score.

Jones' game-winning homer in the opener was one of three belted by the Reds who won after wiping out a three-run lead the Pirates had taken in the first inning. Frank Robinson and Pinson also homered.

Jones connected off relief ace Roy Face, but the loss was charged to Vern Law, who put two men on before leaving.

Donald Is Master In Final At Barton

Carl Donald pitched Lonaconing to the playoff title in the Twilight Baseball League yesterday when he shut out the pennant-winning Barton Braves in Barton in the fifth and deciding game of the series by the score of 6-0.

Winner of 11 out of 12 games during the regular season, Donald scored his fourth win in five outings against the Braves this season. He handed them two of their three losses during the regular season, 10-4 and 12-5, and lost once, 6-5, and notched two more wins over Barton in the playoffs, 5-2 and 6-0. Yesterday marked the first time in 35 games this season that the Braves felt the bristles of the whitewash brush. Donald had a 3-1 record in the playoff series with Zihlman and Barton.

Lou Fazenbaker, who started on the mound for Barton, was knocked out in the first inning and Ronald "Butch" Young came on to finish for the Braves.

Roger Wilson accounted for two of Lonaconing's seven hits. Tod Cuthbertson slammed a home run and Bill Richmond and Donald smacked two-baggers. Barton's five hits were shared by as many players.

Barton had won three pennants in a row and copped playoff titles in 1957 and 1958.

Lonaconing won the second, third and fifth games of the series by scores of 5-2, 11-2 and 6-0. Barton copped the first and fourth contests, 7-2 and 11-4. All games were played in Barton.

Barton and Lonaconing will be honored at the league's banquet and dance Saturday, Sept. 26 at the Midland Fire Hall. Supper will be served from 6 to 8 p.m., and dancing will be from 9 to midnight. Tickets may be purchased from team managers. The Hugh Kifer Trophy will be presented to Lonaconing while Barton will receive the league pennant and also the Wilson Hardware Company trophy.

On Critical List

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)— A University of Maryland football center collapsed from heat exhaustion at the end of a hot, humid practice session Wednesday and was put on the critical list Wednesday night.

Charles (Sonny) Lohr, a 6 foot 2, 204 pound sophomore from Bladensburg, Md., remained unconscious at Prince Georges Hospital in Cheverly, Md.

Dick Tiger Springs Upset, Decisions "Ace" Armstrong

African Given Nod By Jersey Referee

CAMDEN, N. J. (UPI) —Dick Tiger, British Empire middleweight champion and a 3-1 underdog, shattered previously unbeaten George (Ace) Armstrong's winning streak at 17 Wednesday night with a knockdown punctuated 10-round decision in their nationally televised bout at Convention Hall.

The 30-year-old Tiger from Amaigbo, Nigeria, found the key to victory in the third round when he floored the fifth-ranked Elizabeth, N. J., campaigner with a left hook to the jaw for a mandatory eight count.

The African invader gained his 34th victory in 44 bouts on the decision of referee Joey Harrison, sole official under the New Jersey boxing rules.

Harrison scored it 6-4 by rounds in favor of Tiger. The United Press International gave six rounds to the British champion with two to Armstrong and two even.

Tiger, unranked, had a five pound weight advantage at 162.

Tiger's weight was two pounds above the contract terms, and Armstrong went through with the bout only after promoter Jimmy Riggio gave him a $500 bonus.

Tiger originally came in at 163¼. Armstrong agreed to Riggio's offer provided Tiger trimmed off one pound and a quarter which he did.

Armstrong, 27, ranked fifth by the NBA and 10th by Ring Magazine, started off fast, boxing smoothly through the first two rounds. However, in the third, Tiger suddenly turned active and began moving inside and scoring with a left hook.

Berra's Homer Wins For Yanks

2-Run Belt In 8th Defeats Ramos, 4-3

NEW YORK (AP)—Yogi Berra's two-run eighth-inning homer gave the New York Yankees the cushion they needed Wednesday night for a 4-3 victory over the Washington Senators.

Berra's homer, his 18th, followed a leadoff single by Tony Kubek off loser Pete Ramos (12-16) and broke a 2-all tie.

The Nats then scored in the ninth, on Harmon Killebrew's double and a single by Clint Courtney, before Jim Coates, the winner relief, fanned pinch-hitter Faye Throneberry and got pinch-hitter Hal Naragon on a game-ending grounder with the tying run on second.

Coates (4-1) came on after starter Duke Maas was lifted for a pinch hitter when the Yankees tied it in the seventh on Enos Slaughter's two-out pinch single.

The Senators broke up a shutout duel with two runs in the fifth on singles by Zorro Versalles, Billy Consolo and Lennie Green. But the Yankees, blanked on one hit until then, got one in their fifth on singles by Hector Lopez and Gil McDougald and a doubleplay.

Braves Trounced By Phillies, 11-5

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—The last-place Philadelphia Phillies beat the Milwaukee Braves for the second straight time Wednesday night, 11-5, pounding the fading defending champions of the National League for 18 hits that included home runs by Carl Sawatski and Gene Freese.

Richie Ashburn added a triple and Ed Bouchee and Wally Post threw in a pair of doubles each in the assault on four Milwaukee pitchers. Every man in the Philadelphia lineup hit safely as the Phillies amassed their second highest hit total of the season.

It was the third straight loss for the Braves, who are still hopeful of pulling out their third consecutive pennant, but are now four games behind league-leading San Francisco with only 22 more games to play.

Robin Roberts was the benefactor of the Philadelphia slugging as he won his 12th game against 15 defeats even though he allowed ten hits and a two-run homer to Henry Aaron in the Milwaukee sixth. It was Aaron's 37th homer of the year.

Bedford Road Optimists Cop Playoff Title

Hardinger's 3-Run Homer Decides, 4-2

Harold Hardinger belted a three-run homer in the fifth inning to give the Bedford Road Optimist Club a 4-2 decision over the Rotary Club yesterday at Penn Avenue Field and with it went the circuit's playoff crown for the 1959 season.

By capturing yesterday's game, Manager Ced Miller's pennant winning club made a two-game sweep of the series, having won the first game, 9-3 on Tuesday evening. The Optimists eliminated the Kiwanis Club in two straight semi-final contests, 3-1 and 6-2, after taking the pennant by the margin of two games with a 16-5 record.

Previous playoff winners were: 1951 — Lions Club. 1952 — Times-News. 1953 — Times-News. 1954 — Cumberland Optimists. 1955—Cumberland Optimists. 1956 — B'nai B'rith. 1957 — Rotary Club. 1958 — Lions Club.

The Rotarians were leading 2-1 in last night's game when Harold Hardinger stepped to the plate and teed off to left-center. Mickey Lantz had singled and Bill Dean drew a pass before Hardinger connected with one of Ronnie Manges' offerings for the game's winning wallop.

Harold Hardinger, a lefthander, pitched until the 6th for Bedford Road and got credit for the victory, his eighth against one loss this season. He fanned eight. Homer Hardinger, his brother, came on in the sixth to finish on the rubber.

The Rotary Club's runs came in the second inning when Miller homered with Roy aboard. Miller, incidentally, had two of the losers' four hits.

Two double plays were executed by the league's champions. The first was started by Harold Hardinger in the opening frame while Tom Hamilton caught a fly and nipped a runner off second base for the other twin killing.

Ronnie Manges went the route for the Rotarians, yielded four hits and struck out eleven. The score:

Rotary Club	020 000 0—2 4 1
Bedford Rd. Optimists	001 030 x—4 4 3

R. Manges and J. Roy. Harold Hardinger. Homer Hardinger (6) and Sisk.

Charles Town Cancels Keyser Game Saturday

Parsons Calls Off September 11 Tilt; Substitute Sought

A last minute cancellation by Charles Town High School will prevent Keyser High School from opening its football season at home on Saturday, Coach Frederick "Tack" Clark, announced last night.

Keyser was preparing for the lid-lifter when a call came through from Principal Gordon Eismon yesterday announcing that Coach Dick Harmison's team, would be unable to keep the Saturday engagement due to injuries suffered by key players in practice and because of the Jefferson County Fair this week at Shenandoah Downs at Charles Town.

The Charles Town cancellation was the second on Keyser High School's schedule to date. Parsons High School was to have played in Keyser on Friday, September 11, but the Tucker County team requested that the game be cancelled.

With two games knocked off the ten-game card Keyser managed to get one back when Berkeley Springs was scheduled for November 13 at Keyser, extending the season one week.

Coach Clark would like to line up a game this weekend and if he is unable to do so he still has an open date on Friday or Saturday, Sept. 1 1or 12, which he would like to fill.

If Keyser is unable to make connections it will have to wait until Friday, September 18, to play its opening game with Beall High School in Keyser.

Any schools interested in playing Keyser are requested to contact Coach Clark.

Cleveland Tops Athletics, 6-3

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Gary Bell, relieving Herb Score, who failed to retire a batter in the first inning, allowed the Kansas City Athletics only one run and five hits the rest of the way to pitch the Cleveland Indians to a 6-3 victory Wednesday night.

Dick Williams' third inning homer accounted for the only run off Bell, who came in with the bases loaded and the Athletics ahead, 2-0, in the first.

The sophomore right hander struck out four and walked three in receiving credit for his 15th triumph. He has lost 11.

The Indians exploded for five of their runs on five hits in the third to rout loser Ned Garver. Tito Francona's bases-loaded single drove in the first two tallies and Woodie Held's double brought in two more.

Ray Herbert worked 2 1-3 scoreless innings in relief of Garver. But the Indians added their sixth run in the sixth against Tom Sturdivant on Held's triple and George Strickland's sacrifice fly.

O'Dell Beats Red Sox, 4-0

Baltimore Snaps Losing Streak

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Billy O'Dell blanked the Boston Red Sox 4-0, Wednesday night on seven hits as the Baltimore Orioles snapped a four-game losing streak.

O'Dell, in posting his eighth win against 10 losses struck out five and walked two. He never was in serious trouble. Sammy White, Boston catcher, collected three of the seven Red Sox safeties, including a double and two singles.

The Orioles gave O'Dell all the runs he needed in the second inning when they scored twice on doubles by Bob Boyd and Barry Shetrone a single by Brooks Robinson, a walk and an error.

They added two more in the third when they chased starter Tom Brewer, who suffered his 10th setback.

Al Pilarcik and Bob Nieman singled to open the third and Boyd beat out a bunt to load the bases. Brewer walked Gus Triandos forcing in one run and the final tally crossed on an infield out.

U.S. Track Team Cops 26 Of 32 Pan-Am Gold Medals

John Kelley Is Marathon Race Winner

Americans Set 22 Records: Baseball Team Victor, 28-0

By ED SAINSBURY

CHICAGO (UPI) — The United States Wednesday won five more track and field events, four of them with record performances, and wound up that phase of competition in the third Pan American games with 26 of the 32 gold medals.

In the six days of track and field events between athletes of the Americans at Soldier Field, the United States set 22 Pan American records, scoring 1-2-3 sweeps in 10 of the events.

With track and field completed, U. S. swimming and diving stars got going on their expected grab of most of the Gold Medals in their field.

They scored a sweep in 3-meter springboard diving. Gary Tobin, Glendale, Calif., was first, followed by Sam Hall, Kettering, Ohio, and Bob Webster, Santa Ana, Calif.

Farrell Wins 100 Meter

In the 200-meter breast stroke, William Mulliken, Champaign, Ill., a student at Miami University and 1959 NCAA champion, won in the Pan American record time of 2:43.1.

Jeff Farrell, Wichita, Kan., won the 100 meter freestyle in Pan American record time of :56.3, breaking his own previous record of :56.5 in trials two days ago.

Kelley Cops Marathon

Durable John Kelley of Boston Mass., got the United States started Wednesday with a record victory in the 26-mile marathon over Chicago streets. The 29-year-old Kelley, scoring the United States' first victory in international marathon competition in 50 years, won in Pan American record time of 2 hours, 27 minutes, 54.2 seconds. A countryman James Green, 26, Brockton, Mass., also broke the record of 2:35.00.2 set by Delfo Cabrera, Argentina, in 1951.

Relay Teams Win

In quick order after that, the men's and women's 400-meter relay teams, Dyron Burleson of University of Oregon in the 1,500 meter run, and Buster Quist, Albuquerque, N. Mex., in the javelin won Gold Medals.

The only "south of the Border" track breakthroughs were scored by Brazil's Adhemar da Silva in the hop, step, and jump and the West Indies Federation in the 1,600-meter relays.

Gibson, Fageros Lose

But in tennis, Mexico's Yolanda Ramirez and Rosa Reyes defeated Althea Gibson, New York, and Karol Fageros, Miami, Fla., in finals of women's doubles, 6-8, 7-5, 6-1.

Elsewhere, U.S. athletes had a good day. The baseball team swamped Costa Rica, 28-0, a record score in Pan American play. The victory lifted the United States into first place in the "B" division of the baseball round robin.

The soccer team blanked Cuba, 5-0.

Favored Diller Hanover Cops Rich Hambletonian

Wins In Straight Heats, Gets $73,667; 22,000 Witness Race

By BILL HUDSON

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP)—Unruffled by a lost shoe, odds-on choice Diller Hanover scored a straight-heat victory worth $73,667 Wednesday in the Hambletonian, richest harness race in history.

The bay son of Star's Pride lost a shoe on his right front foot at about the three-quarter pole of the second heat but it didn't stop him from taking the final dash in 2:01 4-5.

Ordinarily, such a mishap would throw a trotter off balance and cause him to break stride.

Diller Hanover, a bargain at $6,300, withstood the stretch challenge of stablemate Tie Silk to win the first mile in 2:01 1-5.

Pinch-hitter Frank Ervin, driving Diller Hanover for only the second time, said "I wasn't in doubt about the second heat but I was a little afraid of Tie Silk the first time."

The Diller Hanover-Ervin combination proved too much for 14 competitors in this 34th renewal of the year's biggest race for 3-year-old trotters, worth $125,284.

Tie Silk and Flight Song trailed him the first mile; Circo and Lady Belvedere, the lone filly in the field, in the second.

Ervin's strategy with Diller Hanover was nearly identical in each dash. In the first heat, he held the colt in favorable position until the three-eights of a mile post. Then Ervin made his move.

Turning into the stretch with Tie Silk on the drive, Diller Hanover edged over the line by a neck.

In the second heat, Ervin made his move a little later, bringing Diller to the front about the three-quarter spot and leaving little doubt by the outcome in the stretch.

A crowd of 22,000 in the fashionable racing quarters at the Duquoin State Fair saw Diller Hanover push his career earnings to $205,784.

Ervin, long frustrated in his attempts to win the Hambletonian, got his chance when regular driver-trainer Ralph Baldwin fulfilled a contract obligation and drove Tie Silk, the other half of the Baldwin entry.

Chattanooga Folds, Farm Club For Sale

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—The Chattanooga Lookouts, farm club of the Washington Senators, were put up for sale Wednesday, the second Southern Assn. club in the process of folding because of poor attendance.

Calvin Griffith, president of the Senators, directed Joe Engel, president of the local team, to close the Chattanooga park on Sept. 15 and sell the property. Dwindling attendance has made the club, now in sixth place in Southern Standings, too much of a financial burden, Griffith said.

The Atlanta franchise recently was offered for sale by Earl Mann, president and principal owner, but there have been no offers for that club, now in the cellar.

Tackle Lou Groza and defensive halfback Warren Lahr, both 35, are the oldest players on the Cleveland Browns 1959 football roster.

Mill Creek Earns Spot In Playoffs

Mill Creek won the contest for fourth place in the Mountain State Baseball League by beating Elkins last Sunday by the score of 4-0 at Huttonsville and will meet Century's Miners in the opening game of their semi-final playoff series Sunday at Century.

Moorefield and Belington, the other clubs participating in the playoffs, will clash in the second game of their best-of-three series Sunday at Belington. Moorefield dropped the opener at home last Sunday, 11-6, and if the Hardy Countians can square the series Sunday the third and deciding game will be staged in Moorefield, September 13.

Boston had the highest average number of points scored per game in the National Basketball Assn. last season: 116.4.

San Francisco Beats Chicago In Ninth, 4-3

Brandt's Home Run Whips Don Elston

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Jackie Brandt slammed a solo home run with one out in the last of the ninth, giving the San Francisco Giants a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs Wednesday. A crowd of 16,422 watched the National League leaders open their final home stand.

Brandt's blast, his 12th homer, came off reliever Don Elston and climaxed an afternoon in which two other Giants hit the ball out of the playing field.

Big Sam Jones, who came on in the ninth as the Cubs rallied with two runs to tie the score, gained credit for his 18th victory while Elston took his seventh loss.

Earlier, Felipe Alou and Willie McCovey homered for the Giants while Bobby Thomson connected with a Cub round-tripper off San Francisco starter Mike McCormick, who worked 8 1-3 innings.

Elston relieved Art Ceccarelli, lifted for a pinch hitter in the top half of the ninth.

San Francisco collected just five hits, but three of them went all the way. The Cubs had six hits, a homer and five singles.

Post's Playground walloped the Old Germans to the tune of 11-2 at Post Field and the Ridgeley American Legion edged the Sports Shoppe, 6-5, at Naval Reserve Field, as the playoffs for the championship of the Men's Rec Softball League got under way yesterday.

During Post's 7-run rally in the 6th inning, Paul Stickley hit a grand slam home run. He also had a single to his credit. Jim Leamon collected three of the winning team's 11 hits and Bob and Leo Williams garnered two safeties each. Leo Williams excelled in left field with several nice running catches.

Shrout obtained the Old Germans' first hit in the third inning and Junior Eversole and Dunn smacked singles in the 7th.

Mike Lease starred afield for the losers with a leaping catch of a liner from Ray Silvious' bat at third base in the second inning.

The second game of the best-of-three series is set for Friday at Post Field at 6 p.m.

Bill Kenney became a 20-game winner for the season as he pitched Ridgeley Legion to victory over the Sports Shoppe. Kenney yielded five hits and struck out eight.

Ridgeley took a 6-2 lead with a three-run outburst but got a real scare when the Sports Shoppe came back with three tallies in its half of the inning.

Bill Houdersheldt had a perfect day at the plate for Ridgeley with two hits, a walk and sacrifice hit. Harry Widdows smacked a double and Eddie Golden provided the fielding highlight with a running catch in left field of Rich Smith's drive in the second frame. Smith had two of the Shoppers' six safeties and Wayne Holly banged a double.

Dr. J.P. McDonough, veterinarian at Chenery's Meadow Stable here said First Landing had completely recovered from a kidney ailment that caused his return to the farm in June. He was shipped out by van Wednesday for Belmont Park to rejoin the Chenery racing string.

In Memoriam

Richard (Bud) Valentine—Death Sept. 3, 1954.
September brings sad memories,
Of a loved one gone to rest,
He will never be forgotten
By the ones who loved him best.
Sadly missed by his WIFE AND CHILDREN.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank all our neighbors and friends who were so kind to us during our recent bereavement, the death of our wife and mother, Mary Elizabeth Kamauf. We also want to thank Father Montgomery, those who sent floral tributes, the pallbearers and those who donated the use of their cars for the funeral.

HUSBAND AND SON.

We take this means of extending our sincere thanks and appreciation to all the friends and neighbors who were so kind during our recent bereavement, the death of our mother, Mrs. Margaret Higgins. We especially wish to thank the pallbearers, those who donated cars, sent floral tributes, spiritual bouquets, and all others who in any way rendered assistance.

THE FAMILY.

Masked Man Tries To Rob Farm Woman

Gunman Frightened By Telephone Call

West Virginia State Police and the Sheriff's Office at Berkeley Springs are investigating an attempted armed robbery reported early yesterday by a Morgan County farm woman.

Deputy Sheriff James T. Batt said yesterday that authorities received a report from Mrs. John Maas, who resides in a farm house near Unger Store, about 16 miles south of Berkeley Springs.

Mrs. Maas said she was alone about 11:30 p.m. Tuesday when a man wearing a face mask and carrying a gun, presumably a .32 calibre, entered her home and asked for money and something to eat.

She told authorities the man threatened her a number of times but did not harm her.

The man was in the farm house for about 45 minutes. Mrs. Maas got a telephone call from her husband while he was there.

The call apparently frightened the man, who left and drove off in a car which had been parked near the home.

Mrs. Maas was unable to give a full description of the man, and she did not know whether any other men were in the car.

The man reportedly did not take anything from the farm house. When he left in the car, Mrs. Maas called Cpl. Charles Burke and Sheriff William J. Clark.

Men Ordered Held For Action Of Grand Jury

Three men charged with conspiring to attempt to break into the Montgomery Ward Store here were ordered held yesterday for action of the October term of the Grand Jury.

The preliminary hearing was held yesterday in Trial Magistrate Court before Magistrate Peter J. Carpenti, who set bond at $500 for each of the three men.

The men, Albert Samuel Wright, 42, and Charles Issacs, 32, both of Newport, Ky., and Andrew Joe Forkes, 51, Phoenix, Ariz., were released after posting bond for their appearance next month.

City Police arrested the three men last Thursday night in connection with an attempted breaking and entering at the Montgomery Ward Store.

Officers Harold Gibson, Royce Clayton, Detective Kenneth Morrissey and Ronald Windle, a Potomac Edison employe, testified for the state at the hearing.

James S. Getty, state's attorney, presented the state's case and Edward J. Ryan, local attorney, represented the defendants.

Fire Damages Plant At Berlin

Quick action by volunteer firemen of Berlin and Somerset, Pa., averted a serious fire yesterday morning at the Snyder Potato Chip plant located at the east end of Berlin.

Volunteers kept the flames confined to a potato chip machine and a section of the roof above the machine which was recently installed at the plant.

The fire apparently started at about 10 a. m. when grease used in the process of manufacturing the chips caught fire, spread up through a chimney and caught the roof on fire.

Firemen used foam to quench the blaze. The machine will probably be shut down for a day or so until the damage is repaired. Knives used in the machine to cut the potatoes were reported to have been damaged.

Another machine at the plant will continue production of chips while the other machine is repaired.

Firemen Called

West Side firemen received a call last night of a grass fire in the vicinity of the 700 block of Greene Street.

It turned out to be leaves being burned in the rear of 735 Washington Street and the smoke had drifted toward Greene Street. The call was received at 8:18 p.m.

Man Burned While Using Blow Torch

A 29-year-old local man was admitted to Sacred Heart Hospital yesterday evening with burns sustained while he was using a blow torch to remove enamel from a kitchen chair.

Attaches said George Thomas, 532 Broadway, suffered first and second degree burns on his right arm, shoulder and chest. His condition last night was reported as "favorable."

Firemen from East Side station were called at 6:28 p.m. and extinguished the fire in a vacant first-floor room where the man had been burning the enamel from some chairs.

When they arrived on the scene, the blow torch and a cover thrown over the torch were burning. Firemen quenched the flames with an extinguisher.

Two other partially burned chairs were in another part of the room, according to the firemen, who said the wooden chair apparently burst into flames while the man was using the torch.

Mr. Thomas had already been taken to the hospital when the firemen arrived.

Paper Mill To Erect Huge Warehouse

Building Site Near Westernport

Plans for the construction of a large paper storage warehouse near Westernport have been announced by John A. Luke, general manager of the Fine Papers Division of West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company with headquarters at Luke.

Details of the construction job were disclosed yesterday during a three-day meeting of the division's sales representatives at the Bedford Springs (Pa.) Hotel.

The new warehouse will hold 10,000 tons of finished paper produced at the company's Luke mill. The structure will be of steel frame construction with aluminum siding. It will be 340 feet by 240 feet, with 81,600 square feet of storage space.

Construction will begin immediately and completion is expected by the middle of December. The warehouse will be located three miles east of Westernport on the Westernport-McCoole Road.

The contract for engineering and construction has been awarded to the Austin Company, New York City. Cost of the project was not disclosed.

The capacity of the warehouse will represent approximately one month's total first quality production from the Luke mill's present seven paper machines.

Because the mill's production is expected to be doubled as a result of its current $50 million expansion program, the new warehouse also is being designed for future growth. Erection of additional units can increase capacity to as much as 25,000 tons of paper.

Mr. Luke said the new ware-

Fire Chief Helps Nab 2 Suspects

Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker yesterday afternoon assisted city police in the arrest of two young men who were taken to jail for investigation in connection with a reported theft at a local store.

Chief Parker was in the Fire Department's car near the corner of North Centre and Frederick streets when Officer Charles W. Thompson asked for assistance.

The two men had run down Centre Street to an alley in the rear of the old St. Paul's Lutheran Church. While driving up Centre Street, Chief Parker noticed the men running down the street toward the alley when he looked in the rear view mirror of the car.

Within a few minutes Chief Parker and Officer Thompson drove to George Street and caught up with the two men in the alley. Chief Parker radioed Central Fire Station. The firemen at the switchboard used the direct line to Police Headquarters and called for the patrol wagon.

The men were questioned by City Police Detective Lieutenant James E. Van and were booked for investigation. Last night they were questioned further by Detective Kenneth Morrissey and were released.

Edward Young, chairman of the project, said there will be a discussion of the unit's participation in the street parade Friday evening at Cresaptown in conjunction with the annual jubilee being held by volunteers and the auxiliary unit of that community.

Golden Gifts At $85,383 In First Week

CUF Unit Nears 75% Of Goal

"County United Fund is receiving greater acceptance than ever before," George B. Newman, general chairman of the 1959 CUF campaign said last night as he announced that the Golden Gifts Division, headed by William E. Crooks and Lewis J. Ort, has in one week achieved a total of $85,383, or nearly 75 per cent of the goal of $118,000 set for the division.

The GG Division kicked off its campaign last Wednesday night and had its first report meeting at the Cumberland Country Club last night.

"There is little to add to this imposing report," Mr. Crooks said. "I am proud to be associated with such a wonderful community undertaking."

Mr. Ort told the assembled team captains and workers:

"It's a little hard to believe—the speed with which you folks have responded to this great humanitarian task."

The first "Oscar" of the 1959 campaign was awarded to team captain William H. Oburn, whose team is the first in any division to exceed its 1959 goal.

William C. Walsh, president of CUF, told the GG workers:

"Humbly, I want to thank you for your splendid cooperation and hard work."

The GG division has been running at least 15 per cent ahead of last year. Last night it was learned that the percentage of increase in gifts has in many cases been much higher.

This is the third annual County United Fund campaign for the support of 31 health, welfare, youth and community agencies in 31 communities of Allegany and Mineral Counties. During the past two years, CUF has assembled gifts amounting to nearly two-thirds of a million dollars.

Latin American Students To Attend Labor Picnic

Sixteen Latin American trade union students have accepted an invitation to attend the annual Labor Day picnic which will be held by the Western Maryland Central Labor Council at Mt. Calvary picnic grounds, Mason Road.

Stanley Zorick, secretary-treasurer of the Council, said the students, who are attending the Front Royal (Va.) Trade Union Training Institute, will arrive here by chartered bus about 11 a. m. Monday.

He received a letter from James Carper, director of the Institute, sponsored for a 90-day period by the Postal Telegraph and Telephone International Unions.

The purpose of the Institute is to help foreign unions offset the penetration of Communism in Latin America and also to teach the students various phases of the trade union movement, he said.

At the opening of the Institute the students were greeted by Secretary of Labor James Mitchell and AFL-CIO Secretary William Schnitzler.

Solomon "Al" Barkin, research director of Textile Workers of America for many years, will be the featured speaker at the family picnic which is expected to attract some 7,000 persons affiliated with labor organizations of this section.

Master of ceremonies will be Culver B. Windsor, Baltimore director of the Committee for Political Education of Maryland-District of Columbia AFL-CIO Council.

Council President Woodrow Strong and State Treasurer Charles Della, both of Baltimore, will speak.

Graydon S. Dunlap is general picnic chairman. He said there will be games for children in charge of the Cumberland Recreation Department and music for dancing will be provided by a string band. Cumberland Local 787, Musicians Union, will provide an orchestra.

Men Of LaSalle will serve chicken and ham dinners and ham sandwiches.

Local Man Hurt At ABL Plant

William A. Taylor, 37, of 214 Utah Avenue, was burned about the face and hands yesterday in a flash fire at Allegany Ballistics Laboratory at Pinto.

Mr. Taylor was taken to Sacred Heart Hospital, where he was reported in "fair" condition last night.

No additional injury or damage resulted from the fire, according to ABL officials.

$40,000 Sought As Result Of Fatal Crashes

Two Occurred On Route 36

Two fatal accidents on State Route 36 figured in damage suits totaling $40,000 which were filed yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court.

One suit, for $25,000, was titled State of Maryland, for use and benefit of James P. Wilson and Pearl Wilson, his wife, of Barton, against Harry B. Kyle, also of Barton.

Kyle was identified in the declaration, filed by Attorney Edward J. Ryan, as the owner of an automobile which he was driving last January 16 in the vicinity of Barton. Richard B. Wilson, son of the plaintiffs, was a passenger in the car, which struck a bridge along State Route 36 at Barton, tumbling 20 feet into a creek. Wilson was killed in the crash.

The younger Wilson was identified as the person who had provided financial support for his parents.

The second action, filed for Doris Michaels Layton, by her husband James Layton, seeks $15,000 from Oakie W. Halbritten, Franklin. Mr. Ryan also filed this suit.

Mrs. Layton, then 17 years old and unmarried, was seriously injured August 24, 1958, in a crash on State Route 36 at Lonaconing when the car Halbritten was driving and in which she was a passenger struck a concrete bridge. She sustained bad scars on her right knee and face, her teeth were damaged and her chest and back were injured.

Mrs. Betty Jose, then 29, who lived on Mill Run Road in Barton, was so seriously injured in the same crash that she died in Miners Hospital, Frostburg, on the morning of August 26, 1958.

Also docketed yesterday was a $2,500 damage suit. This action was brought for Ronald Russell Bruce, a minor, by Mildred C. Bruce and Earl D. Bruce, his parents and next friends, 647 Sedgwick Street, against Raymond Harold Reuse and Raymond Henry Reuse, both of LaVale. Attorney James Alfred Avirett filed this suit.

Young Bruce was injured about 4:30 p.m. last February 25 in an automobile acident on U.S. Route 220 near Rawlings. He was a passenger in a car owned by Raymond Harold Reuse and driven by Raymond Henry Reuse which was proceeding toward Cumberland.

The Reuse car crashed into the rear of another vehicle driven by Ruth R. Millenson. Young Bruce was hurled against the dashboard and windshield. His injuries, the suit stated, included lacerations over his right eye, ligaments in his right hand were torn and bruised and he suffered bruises and contusions over his head and body.

Ridgeley Needs PSC Approval For Water Hike

Hearing Delay Poses Problem

The delay that the Town of Ridgeley faces in passing along the increased water rate to its consumers was stressed last night at a meeting at the City Hall here of officials from Cumberland and Ridgeley.

Mayor Charles H. Fryer of Ridgeley emphasized that his town must obtain permission from the West Virginia Public Service Commission in Charleston before it can raise the water rates which it charges its consumers.

The Ridgeley mayor noted that it usually takes about two or three months to get such a PSC hearing. He estimated that it will cost the Mineral County town about $525 in miscellaneous costs to prepare for the hearing.

Ridgeley also figures that the 48 per cent increase in the rate which the City of Cumberland charges, effective September 1, will cost that community about $291 more each month. Adding together the $525 and the $291 a month for three months, Mayor Fryer figured that the town will have to spend a total of close to $1,450 before it can get the increase.

Letter To PSC

Mayor Fryer reported that he had a telephone conversation with the executive secretary of the West Virginia PSC last week about this increased water rate and as a result of that talk, a letter was sent to the PSC last Friday requesting immediate permission for Ridgeley to raise its water rates. No answer has yet been received.

The Ridgeley mayor also sought assurances that this lastest increase in the water rates charged by Cumberland to outside users will not become an annual boost. The last increase of 33⅓ per cent was effective in 1955. At that time the PSC allowed Ridgeley to raise its rates 30 per cent.

Ridgeley has been buying water from Cumberland ever since 1924. The latest agreement between the two cities became effective October 24, 1938.

City Attorney William R. Carscaden and Water Commissioner G. Ray Light both sought to assure the Ridgeley representatives that no annual boost in water rates is planned.

Mr. Carscaden stressed that the increase is essential for the efficient operation of the water department. One of the major needs is to repair the main transmission line from Lake Gordon to Cumberland because thousands of gallons are lost through leaks in this line every day.

He cited one particular point to emphasize the need for improvements to the city's water system. At the time Lake Gordon was completed in 1912 it was equipped with a gate which could be regulated so that water could be drawn from different levels of the dam. However, this gate apparently never did work properly and a vast quantity of cement was dumped into the gate. This situation must be corrected.

Maintenance Needed

The city attorney said the present administration believes that the costs of maintaining the water system should come from water revenues. Every improvement in the system should not be charged off as capital improvement, they feel.

Mr. Carscaden said he believes that people living outside the city limits should pay more for water than those living within. "If they want city services while living outside where the taxes are lower they should be willing to pay substantially more for these services."

As a general rule, the city does not intend to charge any outside users more than 90 per cent more than city residents pay for water. He pointed out that Ithaca, N.Y., as one illustration, charges outside users 135 per cent more for water.

Mr. Carscaden and Mr. Light represented the city at last night's session. Tonight at 7:30, city officials will meet with representatives of the Wiley Ford Water Company and at the same hour Friday they will meet with the Cresaptown Civic Improvement Association.

Mayor Fryer was accompanied to last night's meeting by Water Commissioner Ted Dayton and Recorder Archie Lough.

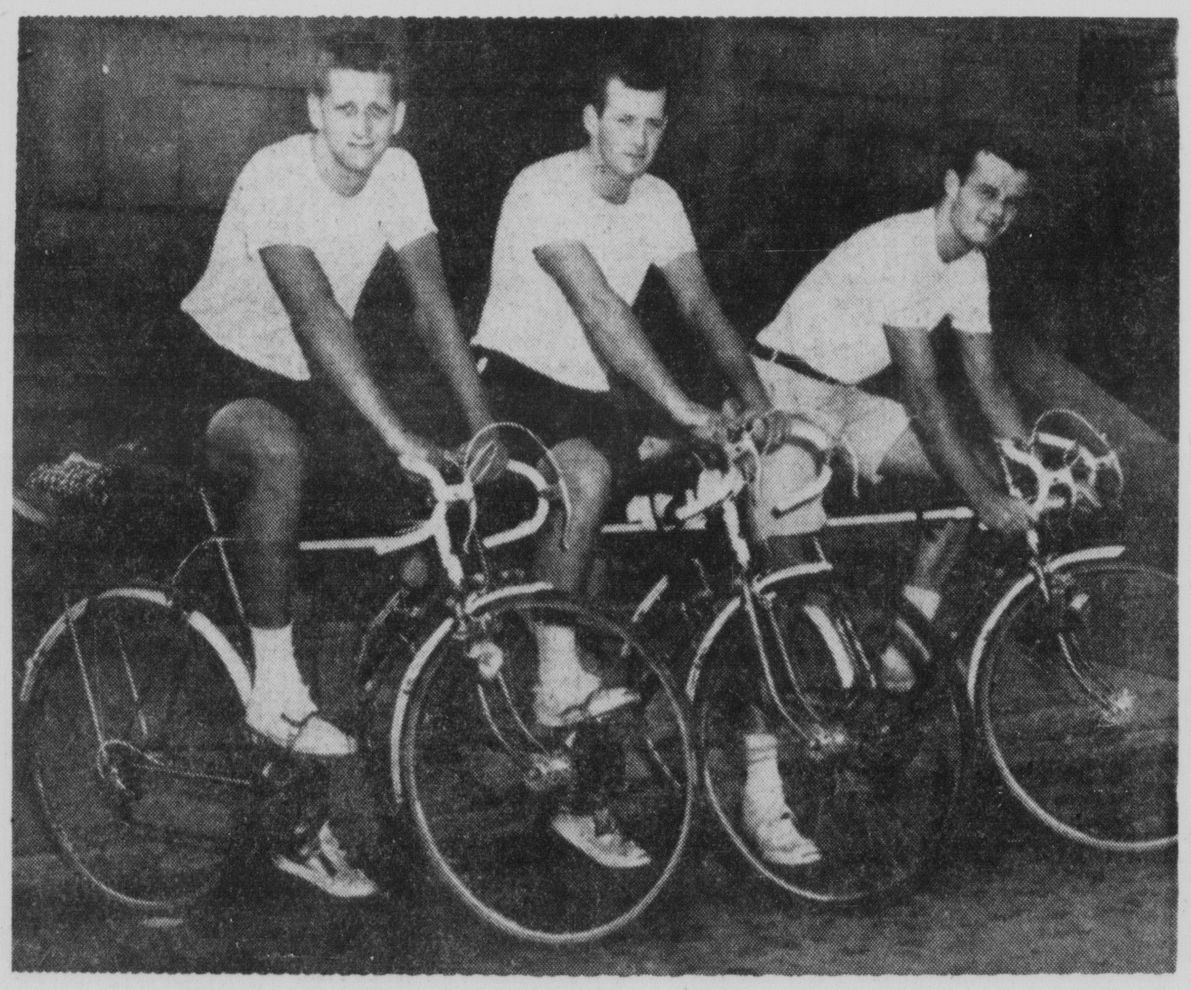

Kelly Wage Talks Continue

Negotiations between Local 26, United Rubber Workers of America and the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company, which started yesterday, will resume today, a union spokesman said.

Union personnel will meet at the Union Hall at 9 o'clock this morning and expect to hold another meeting with company officials at the plant this afternoon.

This is the second session between the parties on talks concerning wages.

Cyclists Visit City

Three medical students from Chicago, who are completing an 1,800-mile bicycle tour of Canada and the Eastern United States spent Tuesday night here and left yesterday for home, where they hope to arrive next week. Left to right are Robert A. Bilinski, 21, who attended Loyola University of Chicago and will enter the University of Illinois this month, Leo F. Close, 21, and William P. Gibbons, 20, pre-med students at Loyola. The cyclists left Chicago August 10, and averaged 100 to 120 miles each day on their English racing bicycles until they hit the mountains east of here. Their traveling equipment includes sleeping rolls, rain ponchos and a transistor radio. They figure their food bill each day runs about three dollars.

Million Parisians Give Ike Hero's Welcome

Conferees Adopt Labor Bill

Scene Rivals Capital's Day Of Liberation

First Two Talks With De Gaulle "Encouraging"

PARIS (AP)— President Eisenhower toured Paris in triumph Wednesday and opened his talks with President Charles de Gaulle amid an outpouring of excitement and affection rivaling the city's day of liberation in World War II.

Swept with emotion and choking as he spoke, Eisenhower told a vast, silent French throng: "I can only say that over the years, this city, this country has become (to me), like it is for almost every American, something very dear."

Then he said he would attempt one sentence in French: "Je vous aime, tous"—"I love you, all."

Thousands of people, packed tight in the great square in front of the Hotel de Ville (city hall), yelled, cheered, waved flags and handkerchiefs in a frenzy of almost hysterical enthusiasm.

Paris is the third major European capital—Bonn and London were the others—to explode with a thrilling, spine-tingling demonstration over Eisenhower, who is consulting with his allies as the prelude to an exchange of visits with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Million Line Streets

In numbers, it equalled the gigantic London outpouring. A million or more Parisians lined the streets and jammed the squares where the President appeared. In fervor, it was like the roaring, chanting scenes in Germany.

"We like Ike," said a red-white-and blue placard blazing down two floors of a great department store.

"Vive Ike," the crowds roared.

"Eek! Eek! Eek!" yelled a short, bereted Frenchman, jumping up and down to see over the heads of the crowds lining the broad avenue Champs Elysees.

That's the French pronunciation of "Ike."

Between public appearances, Eisenhower and De Gaulle held their first two conferences. One was private except for the presence of two interpreters. At the second and longer meeting, Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and French and American aides joined them.

First Talks Go Well

"Everything has gone very well between us," De Gaulle told the throng at the Hotel de Ville in a statement introducing and warmly praising Eisenhower before Eisenhower rose to speak.

Eisenhower said the talks began in a "good and encouraging manner."

Diplomatic sources said they covered four points—a summit conference, NATO, Algeria, and Berlin.

From the French point of view, the Algerian rebellion is the thorniest topic and perhaps the one De Gaulle wants most to discuss with Eisenhower.

De Gaulle would like American support in the United Nations for whatever plan he proposes to advance for solving the Algerian nationalist rebellion that is costing France a billion dollars a year. The details are his own closely guarded secret—unless he disclosed them to Eisenhower.

But it was the excitement, the pageantry, the ritual, the massed bands, the forest of flags, the storms of applause, and the sight of loved old regimental colors that thrilled Paris Wednesday.

Eisenhower rode the crest of a great wave of affection all day.

A high point came when he and De Gaulle relived the heady days of World War II victory in a parade up the Champs Elysees to the tomb of France's unknown soldier.

Eisenhower Admires His Golden Key To Paris

'Pork Barrel' Veto Upheld By One Vote

Action By House Keeps President's Record Unmarred

WASHINGTON (AP) — After frantic last-minute vote switching, the House Wednesday upheld—by a single vote—President Eisenhower's veto of a big "pork barrel" money bill.

This kept unblemished Eisenhower's record of never having had a veto overriden in his more than 6½ years in the White House. So far, he has rejected 144 bills, seven of them this year.

The roll-call vote Wednesday — announced after feverish maneuvering—was 274-138 in favor of passing the $1,216,000,000 water projects bill over the veto. This was one short of the required two-thirds majority.

New Bill Planned

Eisenhower rejected the bill because it provided funds for planning and starting 67 projects he had not recommended, along with hundreds of other rivers and harbors and flood control works provided for in his budget.

The House Appropriations Committee made plans immediately to meet Thursday and draft a new bill omitting the 67 projects. Chairman Clarence Cannon (D-Mo) said he expected the revised bill to pass without difficulty Thursday or Friday.

Meanwhile, a move was started in the Senate to tack the public works money onto Eisenhower's 3½-billion-dollar foreign aid appropriations bill now being prepared in committee.

Demo Leaders Jolted

The outcome in the House was a jolt to Democratic leaders, who had radiated confidence in advance. Since the bill contained money for projects in virtually every congressional district, these leaders counted on holding the Democrats in line while picking up support from many Republicans.

But on the final vote only 11 Republicans joined 263 Democrats in voting to override. At the same time, 6 Democrats voted with 132 Republicans to sustain the President's veto.

Compromise Victory For Eisenhower

Follows Pattern Of Tough Version Passed By House

WASHINGTON (AP)—After 12 days of haggling, Senate-House conferees agreed Wednesday on a compromise labor bill to curb union racketeering.

The final product was closer to the somewhat stiffer version the House passed than to the measure the Senate passed last spring. Leaders of organized labor had opposed both, especially the House bill.

The compromise immediately was taken to the Senate, where a vote was scheduled Thursday.

The conferees topped their final hurdle in late afternoon, working out an agreement on how to deal with picketing at construction sites.

In its final form, the compromise provides means that are intended to guarantee the rights of union members and to safeguard union treasuries.

Bans Secondary Boycotts

It also would ban secondary boycotts and extortion picketing, limit organizational picketing, and spell out a procedure for the states to dispose of labor disputes the National Labor Relations Board refuses to handle.

The product of the conference represented a victory for President Eisenhower who had urged many of the provisions it contains, especially bans on secondary boycotts and blackmail picketing.

It was a victory, too, for Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark), chairman of the Senate rackets investigating committee, which laid the background for the new bill.

McClellan called the compromise "a long stride in the right direction."

There was no immediate comment from the White House, or from Eisenhower, now in Paris.

But Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell issued a statement in which he said: "I am extremely pleased that the Senate and House conferees have agreed to labor-management relations legislation of the type the President has long requested."

Labor "Explosion" Likely

There was no immediate reaction from organized labor leaders who had bitterly fought the House bill, some of whose key provisions found their way into the compromise, although in modified form.

The AFL-CIO didn't like the Senate's original version either, but was inclined more to it than the House bill which it called a union-busting measure.

Reps. Phil Landrum (D-Ga) and Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich), co-authors of the House bill, said in a joint statement the conferees had retained the essential elements of their measure.

India's Defense Command Will Continue Intact

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — India's defense command came through its political crisis intact Wednesday.

Tension over the northeast frontier also relaxed somewhat with reports that Red Chinese troops may be pulling out of border posts they grabbed last week.

Prime Minister Nehru told Parliament the nation's defense command will continue unchanged despite a dispute over army promotions between Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon and Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, army commander.

Nehru said Thimayya resigned Monday but was persuaded to stay in his post.

Nehru indicated his complete support for Krishna Menon, praising the controversial defense minister and diplomatic trouble-shooter.

Nehru's statement that "civil authority must remain supreme" apparently squashed reports that Krishna Menon would leave the cabinet.

Sources close to Menon and high in the ruling Congress party said Menon had offered his resignation. Menon and other high government officials refused to comment until Nehru could appear in Parliament.

Nehru termed Thimayya a gallant soldier but scolded him for resigning when India's borders were threatened.

Nehru did not refer to the commanders of the air force and navy who were reported to have resigned with Thimayya.

A Socialist demand for a secret session to discuss the issue and a Socialist request to see Thimayya's letter to Nehru was rejected.

The newspaper The Statesman reported the border troubles with the Communist Chinese on the northeast frontier apparently had eased, and that the Chinese may be pulling out.

Red Forces Smash Laos Outer Defense

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Communist forces sweeping into northern Laos have knocked out the government's first line of defense outposts and penetrated to within 12 to 18 miles of military headquarters in Sam Neua, officials said here Wednesday.

Defense Secretary Phoumi Nosavan said rebel units and North Viet Nam Red regulars swarmed into the Nam Ma River valley parallel to the twisting mountain of North Viet Nam, and drove towards the interior, capturing or occupying some 80 Laos villages.

The government forces, mostly irregulars, withdrew.

But Vientiane, the administration capital some 200 miles from the front, remained calm. All government offices, including the Ministry of Defense and military headquarters, were closed for the Buddhist festival of the dead.

The attack was launched Sunday morning along the Nam Ma River about 10 miles inside the northeastern border of Sam Neua province, and was supported by 105mm. howitzers, said Col. Phoumi Nosavan, the defense secretary.

Phoumi said government soldiers captured by the Communists later escaped and confirmed that at least one of the attacking forces was a Vietminh—Red North Vietnamese—battalion.

Phoumi estimated that some 2,000 to 2,500 Communist troops — Pathet Lao tribesmen and Vietminh soldiers—were engaged in the offensives. Pathet Lao is the Communist-led movement that ruled Sam Neua until two years ago when it agreed to cooperate with the royal government.

All traffic to the town of Sam Neua was suspended Wednesday. But planes were reported delivering supplies by airdrop.

Million Dollar Donation Given Steel Strikers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Walter Reuther announced Wednesday a million-dollar union donation to steel strikers. He also charged that President Eisenhower is evading his public responsibility in dealing with the eight-week walkout.

Reuther, head of the United Auto Workers Union, said the million dollars comes as an initial down payment from unions comprising the AFL-CIO Industrial Union Department he also heads.

He said the IUD unions are mobilizing funds and picket line demonstrations around steel plants to bolster the strikers in a labor showdown that he said may last into the winter.

Reuther said Eisenhower is evading his leadership responsibilities by not appointing a public fact-finding board to sift steel dispute issues and recommend a solution. He said fact reports issued by Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell are too little and too late.

"If Eisenhower publicly takes a hands-off position in this, as he has done, and then turns around and invokes the Taft-Hartley law to stop the strike and bail out the industry when it begins to feel a pinch, the President will be using his office as an antilabor weapon and strike-breaking agency," Reuther told a news conference.

Reuther was reminded that the Taft-Hartley emergency provisions are a matter of law, while there is no statute either authorizing or forbidding a fact board that would recommend a strike settlement plan.

"The essence of White House leadership is not what the law technically requires you to do, but what common sense and the public good requires. The President can't escape his moral obligation by hiding behind legal technicalities," Reuther replied.

Three Chicago Cops Indicted In Narcotic Ring

WASHINGTON (AP)—A federal grand jury at Chicago Wednesday indicted three Chicago police officers and a former Treasury agent in connection with the operation of a nationwide narcotics distribution ring.

Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers, who made the announcement, said 21 defendants were named in two conspiracy indictments returned by the jury.

The indictments said the defendants made up a narcotics distribution ring headquartered in Chicago that supplied illicit drugs coast-to-coast. San Francisco, Los Angeles, Miami, Cleveland, Detroit, and Gary, Ind., were named among the receiving points.

The three Chicago policemen charged with giving protection to the ring by supplying information on the activities of law enforcement officials, were named as Sheldon R. Teller, Miles J. Cooperman and Richard E. Austin.

The indicted former Treasury agent is Edward Richardson Gayles, now a practicing attorney in Chicago.

According to records here, Gayles became an agent with the Federal Narcotics Bureau operated by the Treasury Department Nov. 20, 1950, serving until Dec. 5, 1952, when he resigned.

Return of the indictments followed an exhaustive investigation by Justice and Treasury officials in the field. It was described as a major development in Justice's announced drive against organized crime and racketeering across the nation.

According to the announcement here, the three Chicago policemen named by the grand jury were only recently transferred from that city's police narcotics squad.

The indictments were returned under sections of the federal narcotics laws which provide a mandatory penalty of five years' imprisonment for a first offender and possible maximum penalties up to 20 years' imprisonment and a fine of $20,000.

Alaska Plane Crash Kills Six Girls, Two Men

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP)— A twin-engine plane crashed Tuesday night in a storm, killing six girls on a magazine subscription tour, their crew chief, and the pilot.

Dead are C.W. (Bud) Priest of Anchorage, the pilot; C.A. Bailey, 35, of Seattle, formerly of Lynchburg, Va., who had charge of the group; Rose Johnson, Minneapolis; Diane Nelson, Fargo, N.D.; Shirley Salazar, Hawaii; Cathy Clark, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Virginia Lee Ostrander, Seattle; and Alberta McKellop, Oklahoma.

The plane was nearing McGrath, 300 miles southwest of here, on a flight from Tanana when the pilot reported at 10:12 p.m. that he was lost in a storm and running low on fuel. That was his last report.

Searchers sighted wreckage from the air early Wednesday 5 miles from the town of Ophir. A helicopter from the 71st Air Rescue Service investigated and identified the wreckage.

Because of the rugged terrain, the helicopter crew had to land some distance away and walk to the site.

Except for Miss Ostrander, the group had been selling magazines in Alaska for several weeks. She had joined them for a final week. They had finished the tour at the Eskimo village of Kotzebue on the west coast, above the Arctic Circle, leaving there Tuesday morning.

Once forced down by fog near Tanana, they had taken off again in the late evening for McGrath.

Bailey's wife, waiting in Seattle with their three children, said her husband called her during the Tanana stop. She said the girls were in their early 20s or late teens. Miss Ostrander was 18.

Bailey worked on contract for the Local Reader Service of Chicago. The plane was chartered by Bailey in Anchorage.

Fed Up Farmer Turns His Land Into Drag Strip

CLOQUET, Minn. (AP)—A dairy farmer said Wednesday he's fed up with agricultural controls and is turning his farm into a hot-rod drag strip.

Ernest Luomala said he is using about 80 acres of his best land for the strip.

"I'm tired of government controls, milk marketing regulations, Secretary Benson and the whole works," said Luomala.

Woman Plunges 198 Feet To Death From Bay Bridge

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — A 37-year-old Baltimore woman died Wednesday in a 198-foot plunge from the center span of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge.

State Police identified the victim as Mrs. Lois Mae Schaible from a billfold which had been left on the seat of her parked automobile.

Later, her husband Gorman Schaible, went to Anne Arundel General Hospital and identified her. Police quoted him as saying his wife had been despondent lately.

The body was retrieved from the water by a nearby fisherman and Mrs. Schaible was pronounced dead at the hospital by Dr. Elmer G. Linhardt, county medical examiner.

Penny Gas Tax Hike Bill Sent To House Floor

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposed penny increase in the federal gasoline tax to keep the interstate highway construction program from stalling for lack of money went to the House Wednesday on a take-this-or-nothing basis.

Rules Committee clearance of the bill put it up for House debate Thursday with passage expected quickly.

The procedure under which the measure was sent to the floor prohibits amendments, blocking the efforts of House members who want extra money for the highways to come from sources other than a bigger gasoline tax. However, the way is still open in the Senate for changes after the House votes out a bill.

The proposal would boost the present three-cent federal gasoline tax by one penny only until July 1, 1961—for the next 21 or 22 months depending on when it could go into effect.

During the three years after that, the extra money would be obtained by diverting one-half of the 10 per cent manufacturers' excise tax on new automobiles and two-thirds of the 8 per cent tax on auto parts and accessories. These now bring about 800 million dollars a year into the general fund of the Treasury.

Defiant 'Dracula' Seized In N.Y. Teen-Age Killings

NEW YORK (AP)—Sharp-eyed officers Wednesday grabbed the object of one of the city's greatest searches—the teen-age "Dracula" sought in the senseless playground slaying of two boys of 16.

"I'm the guy you're looking for," snapped arrogant little Salvatore Agron, 17, a Puerto Rican youth who fancied himself a modern counterpart of a blood-sucking fiend in a novel of long ago.

He and two pitiful companions were grubbing for food in a garbage can as two radio car patrolmen, George Perette and Patrick O'Hare, spotted them at 2 a.m. on a Bronx street.

"Well," said young Agron, "you're going to find out anyway."

In a final burst of bravado, he snarled at the policemen: "I don't care if I burn. My mother could watch me."

The reference was to death in the electric chair.

Agron's mother, who left the boy's father behind to come to this country when her son was a child of 8, rushed to the police station with a Bible in hand. She said her son used to read it but had quit.

She caught a glimpse of him and pushed through a crowd of officers and newsmen. But the 5-foot-7, 110-pound boy stonily brushed past.

The mother asked a detective to take the Bible to him. The officer came back a moment later and said: "He doesn't want it."

Asked if she thought her son capable of murder, the mother, Frances Rodriguez, 37, now remarried to a minister, replied: "I don't know. I don't think so. But he is seldom home. I don't know what he does or who his friends are."

New Military Crisis

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Gen. Elbio Anaya, Argentine secretary of war, has fired Gen. Carlos Severo Toranzo Montero, commander in chief of Argentina's army. The ouster Wednesday appeared certain to spark another round in the series of military crises which have plagued the government of President Arturo Frondizi since it assumed power 16 months ago.

Exiled Dalai Lama Confers With Nehru

NEW DELHI (AP)—The Dalai Lama came here Wednesday and conferred with India's Prime Minister Nehru on the future of Communist-ruled Tibet.

Informants said the exiled Dalai Lama of Tibet felt an appeal to the United Nations would be helpful in bringing world attention to the situation but that Nehru felt otherwise.

The Dalai Lama has been living in Mussoorie, an Indian town in the foothills of the Himalayas, since he fled his homeland after the Red Chinese suppressed a Tibetan uprising last spring.

Harpists Compete

JERUSALEM, Israeli Section (AP)—Forty-one harpists from 11 countries will take part in the first international harp competition opening Sept. 17. Twelve contestants are from the United States.

Adenauer, NATO Target Of New Khrushchev Blast

NEW YORK (AP) — Nikita Khrushchev accuses the North Atlantic Alliance of letting the West Germans convert it into an instrument for aggressive plans that could "plunge the whole world into the chasm of a devastating war."

The Soviet Premier says the West has no choice but to fall in with the Soviet policy of peaceful coexistence of communism and capitalism if it wants to avoid the most destructive war in history.

He expresses confidence the Communist system eventually will win out in what he calls peaceful competition, but says that does not mean Red interference in other nations' affairs.

In an article appearing less than two weeks in advance of his U.S. visit, Khrushchev reserves his harshest words for Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany.

The article appears in the current Foreign Affairs, quarterly review of the Council on Foreign Relations.

The article was arranged before the actual invitation to Khrushchev to visit America, but in it the Communist party boss refers to the forthcoming visit as providing hope for reaching an understanding.

The article is entitled "Peaceful Coexistence." In it the Soviet leader attempts to persuade his readers that there is neither Communist fraud nor trap but a real policy aimed at ensuring world peace. But the article deals harshly with NATO and West eGrmany, pushing his proposal for a demilitarized West Berlin and a peace treaty with both West and Communist East Germany.

Compromise 'Equal Time' Bill Approved By House

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House gave its final approval Wednesday to a compromise bill to exempt radio and television newscasts from the law requiring stations to grant equal time to all political candidates.

The bill, passed by a standing vote of 142-70, was worked out by a House - Senate conference committee after the House and Senate approved differing versions.

It now goes to the Senate where swift favorable action was expected that would send the measure to President Eisenhower to be signed into law. He has characterized the present statute as ridiculous.

The federal Communications Commission has interpreted the present law to mean that radio and TV stations must grant political candidates equal time when their rivals are featured on any type of program, including spot news.

The House - approved compromise would waive the requirement in the case of "bona fide" documentaries where the candidate's appearance is incidental to the overall show.

The measure likewise would apply to on-the-spot news coverage of political candidates—a point of considerable interest in the Senate which is brimming over with potential 1960 presidential candidates.

In drafting the bill, the conferees drafted a report making clear that the bill would apply to such news panel shows as "Meet the Press," "Face the Nation" and "College News Conference."

Mother Ends Lives Of Self, Three Children

TROY, Ohio (AP)—The bodies of a 28-year-old mother and her three children, missing since Monday afternoon, were found Wednesday in a parked station wagon in a picnic grove along the Stillwater River at nearby West Milton.

Miami County Coroner William Adkins said it was a case of suicide by the mother and murder of the three children with carbon monoxide fumes.

Officers identified the woman as Elizabeth Altic of West Milton and the children as Leonard Gene, 5; Lynn Louise, 3, and Laura Lee, 2.

Officers said the woman's husband, Donald, had reported his wife's disappearance Monday night and said she had left a suicide note. He said they had been separated about six months, and that he had been making an effort for reconciliation.

Marylanders Vote To Override Veto

WASHINGTON (AP) — Following is the vote by which the House Wednesday sustained President Eisenhower's veto of the public works appropriation bill. The question was on passage of the bill over the President's objections, a two-thirds vote being required for passage.

Democrats for:

Maryland — Brewster, Fallon, Foley, Friedel, Garmatz, Johnson, Lankford.

Middies End Cruise

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — Two Navy destroyers will return 227 midshipmen to the Naval Academy Thursday from their summer training cruise in the Mediterranean.

Others are due in later in the week from submarine training in the Atlantic and Pacific and from aviation training at Pensacola, Fla.

Saturday And Labor Day Senate Sessions Loom

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas was reported getting generally favorable response Wednesday to a proposal that the Senate meet Saturday and Labor Day, next Monday, in a drive for Sept. 12 adjournment.

In polling senators on this question, Johnson was understood to have notified Southern opponents that he intends to bring up the civil rights issue in some form next week.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois has predicted Senate passage, without lengthy debate, of what he called a skeletonized bill.

Johnson also was seeking assurances that the Senate will pass without amendment a bill to abolish the present 3¼ per cent interest rate ceiling on government "E" and "H" savings bonds.

Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) said an effort will be made to pass such a bill in the House, where this type of legislation originates. He said the success of any such move depended on the Senate's action.

The House plans a session on Labor Day, but none this Saturday.

U.S. India Ocean Fleet Advocated

LOS ANGLELES (UPI) — Delegates to the 60th annual national convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Thursday urged the government to establish a new naval fleet in the Indian Ocean because of troubled conditions in that part of the world.

Approval of the resolution came shortly after Secretary of Navy William B. Franke told a news conference at the convention that while the Navy would like to have such a fleet, he did not believe it was necessary at this time.

The resolution to create the new fleet was offered to the delegate by VFW Commander-in-Chief John W. Mahan.

Pilot Injured In Plane Crash

BALTIMORE (AP) — A student pilot crashed a single-engine airplane into a creek while coming in for a landing Wednesday at Harbor Field. He wasn't seriously injured but the $6,000 plane was a total loss.

Philip A. Derring, 26, of Baltimore, also a tower operator at the field, was alone in the two-seat Champion 7-FC when the light green craft dropped into the water beside a seawall.

One gash in Derring's forehead was sewed up at City Hospitals. Hospital personnel said x-rays showed some very minor fractures around the sinus and nasal areas and Derring probably would be sent home.

Derring made it ashore by himself. The Maryland Air National Guard dispatched a truck-crane which retrieved the plane.

The cause of the 2 p. m. crash was not determined. There were reports — unconfirmed officially—that Derring was caught in the strong propwash of a four-engine Constellation practicing instrument landings about 500 yards in front of him.

China Communists Deny Encroachment

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China's Foreign Minister Chen Yi declared in Peiping Wednesday "China has never encroached upon other countries." His statement was an apparent reference to incidents on the India-China border.

"Neither will it tolerate encroachment by other countries," Chen said at a reception of the North Vietnamese Embassy in Peiping.

China has contended that Indian border points its troops recently occupied were part of China.

Two Virginians Held For Robbing Co-op

TOWSON, Md. (AP)—Two Radford, Va. men were charged Wednesday with robbing the Southern States Cooperative in Cockeysville last week and held under $2,500 bail each for police court hearing.

Frank E. Turpin, 20, and Cloyed J. Ross, 32, were captured Friday night by State Police near the Conowingo Dam after a 95 m.p.h. chase which ended when they abandoned their car and tried to escape on foot.

Police said the burglary at Cockeysville netted the thieves $398.34 in cash, $600 in stock, $40 worth of postage stamps, and merchants stamps valued at $200.

NEW CHURCH, Va. (UPI)—A Maryland man was killed Wednesday in a traffic wreck tinged with irony.

William Isaac West, 41, Pocomoke, Md., died in a two-car collision near New Church. The driver of the other car, William Lee Bundick was from the same Maryland town.

"Most Wanted" Fugitive Nabbed

WASHINGTON (UPI- — The FBI announced the arrest Tuesday night in Philadelphia of James Francis Duffy, one of its 10 most wanted fugitives.

Duffy, wanted for unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for the armed robbery of a Drexel Hill, Pa., inn in 1958, was apprehended by FBI agents shortly after he had arrived in Philadelphia by bus from Newark, N.J.

Duffy, 51, a native of England with a crime record dating back to the age of 19, had been added to the FBI's "most wanted" list only one week ago.

PRR Installs Hot Box Detector

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad is going to enlist electronic aid in detecting hot boxes on freight cars.

The railroad said Wednesday it is installing a hot box detector at Bengies, Md. on the main line between Baltimore and New York.

The device consists of electronic scanners on the track at Bengies, 12 miles northeast of Baltimore, and a recorder at Edgewood, about 8 miles farther northeast.

When the scanner finds a freight car with an overheated journal, it automatically sets a signal and stops the train. The recorder shows which car and wheel is affected.

The railroad said the new system not only is a safeguard against derailment, but reduces the time required to locate trouble of this nature. Heretofore, the entire train had to be examined to find the trouble spot.

Similar devices are being placed in operation at other points.

Good Turn Ends In Fatal Crash

BALTIMORE (AP) — A motorist doing a good turn was involved Wednesday in a two-car collision that killed two persons and injured five others.

Mrs. Corrine V. Julian, 42, was killed in the accident in suburban Essex. John Colley, 25, died later at City Hospitals from head injuries and multiple fractures.

Police said William L. McDonough, 23, met Colley at a service station. Colley's car had broken down and McDonough offered him a lift back to the disabled vehicle.

Mc Donough apparently was making a U turn to park behind Colley's car, officers said, when the headon crash occurred with a car driven by Walter R. Bisarz, 26.

Critically hurt were Clayton Davis, 30, and Mrs. Helen Smith, 35.

All involved were from the Baltimore area.

Two Cecil Co. Girls Win Top Prizes At Fair

TIMONIUM, Md. (AP) — Two young girls from Cecil County, one a blonde and the other brunette, won top prizes Wednesday in 4-H Club judging at the Maryland State Fair.

The brunette, Ruth MacCauley, 18, who lives on a farm in northern Cecil County, was far and away the top winner in the judging of food exhibits. She won seven first place ribbons, four second prizes and two third place awards.

The awards covered 4-H exhibits in food preservation and baking.

The blonde winner was pretty 16-year-old Adele Brown, whose father, Frank D. Brown Jr., is chairman of the Maryland State Fair Board. He has a large dairy farm near Port Deposit in Cecil County.

Adele's senior yearling heifer was judged the best of its class in 4-H Guernsey competition over 13 other entries. She has been in 4-H activities for seven years and has shown cattle at the fair the past six years.

She and first place winners in other Guernsey classes will compete for the junior, senior and grand championship. Other judging Wednesday included 4-H Holstein.

Brown, who was elected chairman of the Fair Board last fall, presented special awards to 4-H youngsters who are showing cattle for the first time this year and whose parents have shown livestock in past years.

It was Eastern National Livestock Day and fair officials also gave that name to the day's feature purse at the half-mile track.

There were a few showers during the day, but the weather was nice enough to draw 15,018 persons to the fair. Of the total, 5,582 attended the races.

One feature Wednesday which was revived after a lapse of several years was a 4-H horsemanship contest. Some 21 youngsters competed for prizes by showing their ability at judging various ponies in five catagories, including breeding, anatomy, and general characteristics. The winner was Mary Whedbee of Baltimore County.

Sound Sleeper Is $520 Poorer

BALTIMORE (AP)—George W. Wood had a good night's rest but it cost him $520.

The tavern owner reported to police that early Wednesday someone placed a 20-foot ladder against his three-story building, forced a living-room window in his apartment, and removed from the living-room floor a cash register containing $340.

The thief then went into the kitchen, opened another cash register and took $80.50. On his way out, he picked up a cloth money bag containing $100 in nickels.

Wood slept through it all.

M&P Plans To Quit Operations

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Maryland & Pennsylvania Railroad Co. plans to go out of business. To do that it needs approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The line now operates between York, Pa. and Whiteford, Md.

James M. Hood, president of the American Shortline Railroad Assn. said deficits over the last 18 months have forced the company to the decision to abandon operations.

"The company does not intend to operate any further," Hood said. "It has concluded that is the only out."

The company has applied to the ICC for authority to abandon its 46 miles of tracks. It gave up service between Baltimore and Whiteford some time ago.

Hood speculated that the Pennsylvania Railroad or the Western Maryland Railroad might take over some of the Maryland & Pennsylvania terminal tracks at York.

Tanker Launching Set

BALTIMORE (AP)—A new 29,250 deadweight ton tanker, the S.S. Gulfsolar, will be launched Sept. 9 at the Bethlehem Steel Co. Sparrows Point shipyard.

The craft was built for the Gulf Oil Corp. and is one of six under contract. Two others have been completed.

When you have a bad day and everything goes wrong, look for the common denominator of your troubles!

Secrets Of Charm

A "Bad Day" Suggestion . . .

As often as it happens each day, every time a Powers Girl looms on my horizon, I automatically note all the details of her appearance. I can no more help it than a Geiger counter can help picking up radiations. The beauty, grooming and behavior of the Powers Girls has been my business for so many years that it's a spontaneous reaction — not critical, just fact-finding.

So naturally I was puzzled yesterday when a model I had already noted and approved, burst out with, "I don't know what's wrong with me today! I feel utterly drab and dismal. Everybody's down on me!"

But even a second, sharper survey of her appearance proved that she looked just as pretty, healthy and well-groomed as she should!

"Who's wrong with you today?" I asked, tsk-tsking a bit and lifting an eyebrow.

With a startled look, (I suppose she was mentally adding me to her list of wrong people of the day) she rushed to summarize the sad events. "Well, first thing a bus driver barked at me. Then, my sitting didn't go right because the stylist was cranky. A new dress I wanted for tonight did not arrive, and my luncheon date was the all-time bore of the year. . ."

"Sounds like the whole world's sure out of step with you today," I interrupted. "You don't look like a girl who deserves such a fate. I wonder just what the common denominator of all your day's troubles could be?"

Suddenly she laughed. "I know . . . you're just pointing out to me that I'm the one who's been uncooperative all day, and that nobody's down on me except myself!"

"You said that, I didn't! But you couldn't possibly have a bad day on any day that you are your natural, out-giving self!" I added.

She left my office singing this spur-of-the-moment jingle:

"Next time I feel this way,
I'll ask
Who's wrong with me today?"

Exchange Farmer Brings Ideas To Garrett County

The visit of a New Zealand dairy farmer to a Garrett County dairy and broiler farm brought about an exchange of ideas.

Twenty-five-year-old John Rodney Dodd of Dargaville, near Auckland, an International Farm Young Exchange farmer, put on his work clothes and worked right alongside Ross Crowe, of Gortner, president of the Garrett County Farm Bureau and winner of the Farming for Better Living Award.

Crowe has 100 acres along Route 219 between Oakland and Red House and he has 24 Holstein dairy cows and 12,000 chickens

Dodd brought with him some interesting information on his New Zealand farms. His father and his brother operate two farms—one of 200 acres and another of 73 acres. They have 110 dairy cows and 300 sheep.

He informed the Crowes that they had a pipeline milk system installed in their milking barns 20 years ago.

Very little grain raising is done as the cattle are pastured all year round. The New Zealander brought with him pictures verifying the results of heavy fertilizing of the pastures.

As a use of their byproduct of dairying, the Dodds raise hogs, feeding them skim milk.

The pastures can be used nearly all year around as the Dodds live in the northern (warmer) part of the country. Some years, young Dodd said, there has been no frost.

The Crowes said Dodd arrived in hay season and worked in the fields with the family.

He also took in the Garrett County Fair, showing interest in all of the exhibits and events. He said in his country they have one-day fairs sponsored by the Young Farmers Clubs. This organization corresponds to the older 4-H groups.

Dodd left Garrett County to stay on the Fred Kutschenreuter farm in Baltimore County and later he will go to the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Savage in Montgomery County.

Jury Will Hear Assault Case

The assault and battery case against Roscoe Tutwiler, a member of the Hampshire County Board of Education, will be heard before a jury in Circuit Court later this month.

Transfer of the case from the court of Justice of Peace A. L. Russell was arranged yesterday when State Sen. Ralph Bean, attorney for Tutwiler requested a jury trial.

R. W. Haines, prosecuting attorney, then asked that the case be transferred to the higher court.

Tutwiler was arrested on a warrant charging him with assault and battery upon A. Clinton Loy, superintendent of schools, prior to a meeting of the board at Romney last month. Loy obtained the warrant and it was served on Tutwiler by Sheriff M. R. Hott.

Loy told officers that Tutwiler grabbed hold of his (Loy's) shirt while he was seated talking to the president of the board, Russell Oates. No blows were struck as Tutwiler was grabbed by another board member, Loy said.

Speed Limit In LaVale Section To Be Lowered

The LaVale Civic Improvement Association board of directors was informed Tuesday that the speed limit on Route 40 in western LaVale will be lowered.

The association's directors, meeting in the LaVale Fire Hall, were informed by Lloyd Buchanan, president, of the results of the group's letter to the State Roads Commission.

The SRC traffic division stated that the limit will be lowered from 50 miles per hour to 40-35 from Cupler Drive to the Intersection of Route 40 with Route 53 at the Six Mile House.

The request for this action was made by the association due to the danger of school buses having to stop in that section.

Introduced as new members of the board of directors were Mrs. Verna Huff, 6 Richard Way, and Douglas Smith, 157 National Highway.

Cromwell Zembower, treasurer of the LaVale Volunteer Fire Company, reported on plans for the company's annual fund drive. This campaign held annually will be conducted with the assistance of the civic improvement association.

A fire tax for LaVale failed in a two-to-one vote in the referendum last month.

Zembower was informed that a committee will be named to assist in the door-to-door canvass scheduled next month.

Buchanan named a special committee on fire, sewage and water—Mrs. Florence Whitworth, Frank Tepper and Douglas Smith.

Committee reports read included Henry Wintermyer, police and fire; Byron Bonebreak, finance; Tepper, zoning, and Mrs. Whitworth, water and sewage.

Omicron BSP Rush Party Will Be Held October 6

Activities, beginning with a Rushing Party, were discussed at the first fall meeting of Omicron Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, which was held Tuesday evening at Central YMCA in the form of a dinner, marking the annual get-together to open the season. Mrs. Eve Sliviak presided. The party is to be held October 6, with Miss Patricia Golden chairman of arrangements. Plans will be completed at a meeting of the social committee to be held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Alpha Barb, LaVale.

A year's leave of absence was granted to Miss Dolores Chase and Miss Ellen Newnam; and Mrs. Kathryn Koon was appointed a member of the BSP City Council, replacing Miss Newnam.

Christmas cards, to be sold, were distributed. The standing rules for the chapter were adopted. Program books were distributed and each was assigned a topic for the meeting programs, which this year will be on the theme, "Heart To Heart," and are to be based on "Happiness."

Each member told of her vacation activities.

Miss Brunhilde Seidel was a guest. Other members present were Mrs. Koon, Mrs. Helen Arthur, Mrs. Loretta Smith, Miss Margaret Smith, Mrs. LaVerne Hankins, Miss Helen Mae Kreiling, Mrs. Martha VanHorn, Mrs. Charlotte Northcraft, Miss Shirley Sandsbury, Miss LeAnnah Matthews, Miss Golden, Mrs. Shirley Showengerth, Mrs. Emma Brugh, Mrs. Alpha Barb, Miss Newnam, Mrs. Mary Harrison and Mrs. Frances Frank.

East Side Club Favors Home Cake

Demonstrations featured the meeting of the East Side Homemakers Club Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Willmettie Haller, Goethe Street. A check for $15 from the Fair Association was placed in the club treasury for the sewing demonstration given at the Fair. The report on it was given by Mrs. Herman Curry, Mrs. Clara Flora and Mrs. Stanley Leasure. Routine reports were given by Mrs. Thomas Buser and Mrs. Stanley Morris. Mrs. Earl Smith reported on birthday cards sent.

Four types of devil's food cake were made by Mrs. Daniel Klavuhn and Mrs. Clarence Stewart in a food and nutrition demonstration on "Shall I Use a Mix or Mix it Myself?" Fourteen of the 15 presented voted in favor of the completely home-made cake.

Mrs. Lawrence Miller presided and gave the history of the hymn of the month, "Jerusalem, the Golden." Roll call was answered with ways to stretch the family food dollar. Mrs. Ella Simons was welcomed as a member and the group sang, "Fairest Lord Jesus," and "My Old Kentucky Home."

The next meeting will be October 6 at 7:30 at Melvin Methodist Church, with Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Leasure as hostesses. Concluding the meeting refreshments were served. Others present were Mrs. Debra Burkett, Mrs. Joseph Goodyear, Mrs. John Aaron and Mrs. Nettie Dicken.

They are symbols of her office as Maryland Farm Queen. The Prince Georges County co-ed was selected Monday evening to reign over the Maryland State Fair, now under way at Timonium. The Frederick County 4-H booth won the blue ribbon with its Study Center emphasizing "Light Bright-Study Right." The Howard County exhibit, "Be a Clean Jean," of a girl's bedroom, also won a blue ribbon. Red ribbons were awarded to Caroline 4-H'ers, "Be Alert-See Home Hazards," showing frayed electric cords, rubbish in the attic, open trunks, scatter rugs and overloaded outlets; Dorchester and Charles counties with exhibits on grooming and bedroom closet accessories. Junior Civic Club Board Outlines Year's Activities

Plans for the year were outlined at the board meeting of the Junior Woman's Civic Club, which was held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Sell Jr., Camden Avenue, acting president.

Discussing the vacancy of vice president, when Mrs. Sell assumes the duties of Mrs. Ray Hull, who is moving to Pennsylvania, it was decided that the nominating committee is to submit a slate at the September meeting and election will be held in October.

The first general meeting will be a dinner September 8, instead of the 9th as originally scheduled. It is to be at the Cumberland Country Club at 6:30 p.m. Mrs. Leslie Clark and Miss Marilyn Heiskell are co-chairmen of arrangements.

Activities discussed included the annual dance to be held late in November or early December; the annual style show, Christmas bazaar, and speakers and programs for the general meetings.

Board Of Education Spends $11,659 To Correct Fire Hazards In Schools

Much work has gone into public schools for correction of fire hazards, Ralph R. Webster, superintendent of Allegany County public schools, noted yesterday.

During the fiscal year that ended June 30, a total of $11,659 was spent on repairs to correct the hazards reported during the winter inspection by Jesse E. Jacobs, assistant state fire marshal.

More was spent this summer, Webster noted, when boiler rooms and coal bins were idle.

One of the main steps taken, as advocated by the state fire marshal, John Meyers, is plastering boiler rooms with fire resistant materials.

Many have already had this treatment and this summer the work was done in Midland, Corriganville and LaVale schools.

Doors of many boiler rooms were covered with metal and coal bins were partitioned.

All fire extinguishers are of the new type, CO 2 or soda acid. Panic doors were installed this summer on Penn Avenue, LaVale, Central Elementary, Barton and Columbia Street schools.

Doors and panic equipment were checked on every school. The fire escape on Virginia Avenue School was repaired.

The Board of Education continued on its program of eventually having all schools with new wiring. This is a continual process, keeping the electric systems up to date.

Stage curtains of older variety were flame-proofed this summer. The later curtains all have flame proofing according to the Board of Education's specifications.

Treasure In Coins

LISBON (AP)—A crock of gold coins worth around $20 each has been found in a ruined house in Moncarapacho, in southern Portugal, by the village gravedigger. The hundreds of coins are 18th century and earlier. The gravedigger for years had been telling people there was treasure in the house but no one could find it.

Accident 50 Years Ago Figures In Award Case

An accident 50 years ago in which a Lonaconing man, then 11 years old, suffered the loss of his left foot when run over by a street car, figured in a Workmen's Compensation Commission award.

Simon F. Reilly, attorney for Archie H. Ferrens, 61, of Lonaconing, yesterday received notice of an award of $20,000 for Ferrens for being totally disabled.

Reilly explained that Ferrens lost the left foot 50 years ago and that some months ago while employed at the Mt. Wilson State Hospital in Baltimore the man slipped on a wet porch and was thrown. He suffered an injury to his right leg.

A hearing was held on Ferrens' claim by the Workmen's Compensation Commission and under the provisions of the Second Injury Fund it was found that he was totally disabled.

The $20,000 is being paid at the rate of $35.73 per week. Under the state regulations the insurance company pays part of the award and the balance comes from the Second Injury Fund. Ferrens was carrying a container while at work at the hospital when he fell.

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN: My wife's mother lived with us for 12 years. She helped with the house work and cooking and was wonderful with the children. We never considered her a burden. The only time I became slightly annoyed with her was when she'd take the page with your column out of the paper and forget to put it back.

My wife has two sisters and a brother. They never offered to help with Grandma's expenses. We bought her clothes, paid her doctor bills and saw to it that she had a little money in her purse. The last year of her life was expensive. She was ill a great deal.

Grandma's will was probated last week. We didn't know she had anything. To our surprise she owned modest amounts of stocks and War Bonds from both World War I and II.

The estate is not large by some standards, but it's a lot of money to people like us.

Now the big question: Grandma left everything to us. The brother and sisters are closing in. They say Grandma was "all there" and it's up to us to do the "right thing." So—Ann Landers, what is the right thing? Shall we let them share in Grandma's money? B and C.

DEAR B and C.: The money isn't Grandma's, it's yours. She left it to you—all of it. If you want to share your money with a swarm of locusts, go ahead.

DEAR ANN: What do you do about friends who borrow books and forget to return them? (Sometimes, when they do come back, several pages are folded over, passages are underlined in ink and coffee-cup circles appear here and there.)

Do you suggest such friends buy you a new book?

THE SIMP.

DEAR SIMP: If this happens more than once with the same slob—I mean friend—then you deserve it.

People who forget to return books, or return them in poor condition are boors—and their name is legion. Don't ask for a new book. If they aren't decent enough to bring back the old one they'll never buy you a new one. Just inform them (when they want another book) that the lending library has gone out of business—and why.

DEAR ANN: I came from a small town and grew up with a fine girl I'll call Molly. Before I left for service I gave her a ring. She wrote to me every day and I wrote whenever I felt like it, which was about twice a month.

When she began to describe the things she was buying for our home I felt like a dog because I'd already started to date Anita, who lived in the town where I was stationed.

I don't know how to explain this, but before I knew it, Anita and I were married. My mother and dad are no longer living but I have two brothers back in the home town and I haven't told them yet because of Molly.

I know if I don't tell them soon the news will leak. To make matters worse, I think I love Molly and not Anita. What shall I do? G. I. J.

DEAR G. I. J.: What do you mean "Before you knew it you were married to Anita"? Did you just look in the church—and there you were, getting married?

Write Molly at once. And now that you're married, make the best of it. Peersonally I think Molly is lucky. You sound like a double-dealing, faithless heel. It's Anita who got stuck.

To learn the difference between a marriage that "settles down" and one that "gets dull," send for Ann Landers' booklet, "What To Expect From Marriage," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

WIFE PRESERVERS

Avoid burning out the bottom of a tea kettle or double boiler by placing two or three marbles inside. When water gets low, marbles will rattle loudly.

Asks Contributions

LONDON (UPI) — The Communist Daily Worker Wednesday appealed to its readers to contribute $2,000 to help defray the costs of sending a correspondent to the United States to cover the "story of the century"—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's visit.

County To Receive Constables' Fees

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners voted unanimously Tuesday to require all constables to turn all of their fees in to the county treasure.

Constables then will be paid a salary in lieu of the lost fees. The action was taken on motion of Commissioner William A. Wilson, seconded by Commissioner John T. Mason and concurred in by Commissioner John J. Rowan.

The world's largest off-shore fishing grounds are the Grand Banks, off Newfoundland.

• Industry-Union Showdown Nears

Big labor is using the occasion of Labor Day this year to post a unified battle line in support of David J. McDonald and his beleaguered Steelworkers. The AFL-CIO Executive Council, in a militant resolution August 20, declared the federation's "determination to make the steel strike the struggle of the whole American labor movement."

Members of 135 affiliates were asked to demonstrate the "solidarity of American workers (in) this historic struggle for human justice" by observing "Support-the-Steelworkers" Day instead of the usual garden-variety holiday. More to the point, the affiliates were asked to help refurbish the Steelworkers' war chest by kicking in perhaps a penny a day per member. A wholehearted response would bring in about $4 million a month, exclusive of whatever cash value may be placed on James R. Hoffa's offer of "100 per cent support" from the Teamsters.

The common front appears to have developed out of a spreading conviction among union tacticians that more is involved in the current steel strike than the usual two-sided paring down from rhetoric to essentials. When negotiations began last spring, the general prognosis was for a small wage increase followed by a small price increase or, alternatively, for some concessions involving fringe benefits and no price increase.

But industry negotiators have shown no disposition to split the difference in the customary way. In fact, they've even proposed abolishing the cost-of-living escalator clause in the old contract.

In the face of record profits, what is billed on the industry side as a battle against inflation looks increasingly to labor like a straight power play, aimed, says one pro-labor commentator (Paul Jacobs in The Reporter, August 20), at freeing "American industry from its bondage to the trade unions." What began as a mild labor dispute could very well turn into one of the bitterest labor struggles in the past quarter century.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

The Chien Lung Line

The Manchus, a Tatar race, came through the Great Wall into China in 1644 and conquered the country. They continued their conquests until they reached their apogee during the reign of the Emperor Chien Lung. At that time, the indefinite Chinese boundaries "included" such areas as Manchuria, Mongolia, Turkestan, Tibet and some parts of what are now Burma and India.

I put the word, included, in quotation marks because the Manchus never rules any part of China. They reigned but did not rule. They conquered some areas by military force, but they employed Chinese to govern and they employed mostly Chinese troops to fight for them. They accepted tribute and sold tax rights, but the government of peoples was always in the hands of those directly concerned with localities.

So when it is claimed that such areas as Bhutan, Sikkim and Nepal and parts of Kashmir were once Chinese territory and are included in China on a map prepared by the Communists, it is meaningless phraseology. At one time or another many Asiatic countries sent tribute to the Chinese throne, but such tribute was not evidence of ownership of the territory by China.

In fact, it has always been difficult to define the term, China. The Chinese themselves referred to their country as "The Middle Kingdom," that is the center of the universe, and all lands on the periphery of "The Middle Kingdom" were either tributaries or barbarians. When the Ta Ching Dynasty collapsed and China became a republic, the five-barred Chinese flag was adopted and the variegated racial character of the country was recognized, each bar representing a distinct race. The Kuomintang, when it took over the government of China under Chiang Kai-shek, gave up the five-barred flag, denying, in effect, the racial differences and distinctions among the Chinese people. The number of distinct races in China is greater than the flag represented, including many aboriginal pre-Chinese peoples.

The Kuomintang adopted the principle of nationalism, a principle which had never existed in China before and was not understood by the Chinese people. They had believed in the principle of local self-government, "difan chui," which had stood them in good stead for centuries.

The significance of this in the present quarrel with India is that the term, China, is geographical and has never been political in the sense of a national state because no government before ruled over the entire extent of the territory that at any time appeared on the map as China. Arnold Toynbee, in his study, makes a distinction between Sinic and Chinese in order to explain the very complex distinction which I am attempting to explain here.

In effect, China has historically been a civilization rather than a country; a way of life rather than a government. Whether the Chinese Communists can alter varying traditions; create a single tongue out of more than a hundred languages and dialects; break down countless variations of traditional habits — all this is yet to be seen. Present indications are that they are not succeeding as rapidly as they had expected.

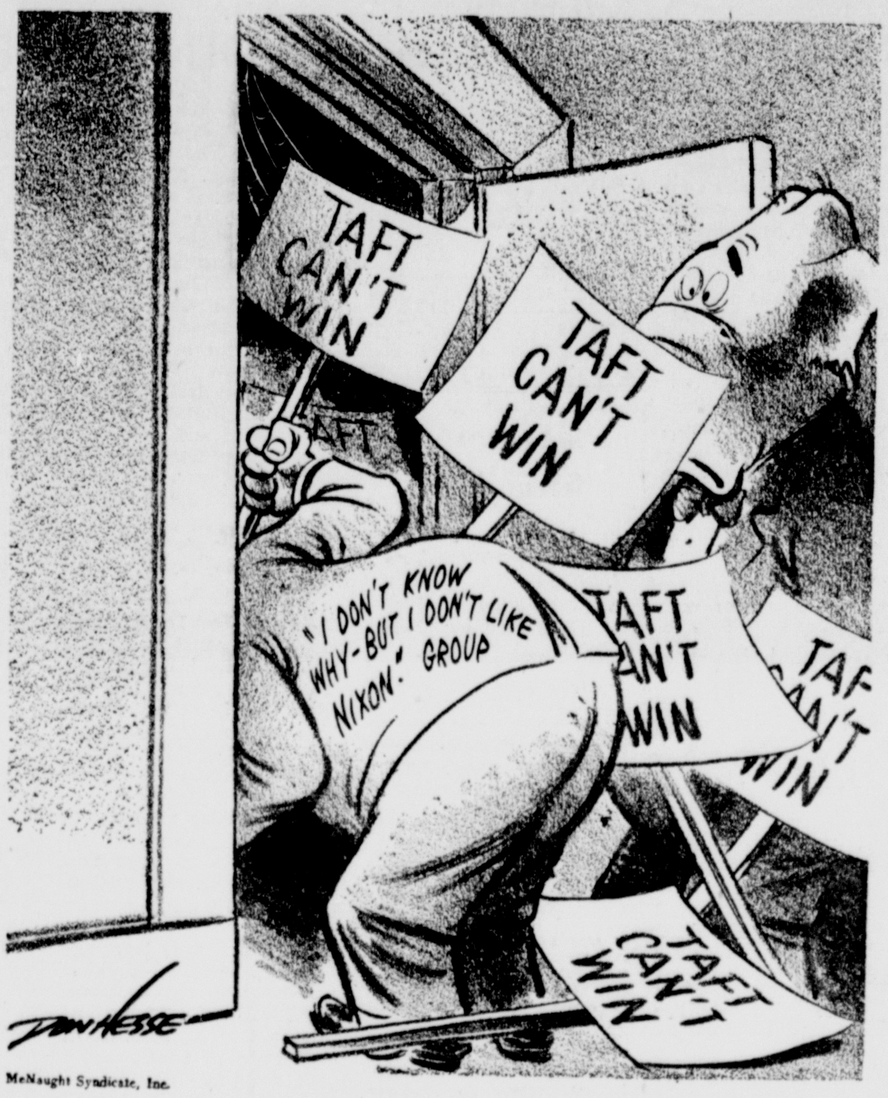

Such countries as Nepal, Bhutan and Sikkim lie in the Himalayas on the borders of two civilizations, the Chinese and the Hindu. In such countries, the variations of religious and traditional and linguistic experience become mixed. The influence of Hinduism (Brahmanism), Buddhism and Confucianism are strongly intermingled and produce blooms that are different and variegated. The peoples are blended, as all border peoples are mixed everywhere in the world. In Asia, where plural marriage has been usual, centuries of intermixture of races and peoples have produced new races and new peoples in each generation with a sturdy peasantry that represents a basic stock.

Red China, by moving into Bhutan and Sikkim, serves notice on India and the world that its immediate territorial designs reach to the Chien Lung line which will also include some territory in Kashmir. This can produce a war with India that could, and probably will if it happens, involve Great Britain as a member of the Commonwealth, and the United States as a SEATO power. Nehru is, however, not one to make war readily. Whether it is cowardice or an Asiatic brand of pacifism, he prefers to talk rather than to fight. The Communists are breathing down his neck and he cannot talk much.

Is this a pleasant introduction to Khrushchev's visit to this country?

Allies Must Avoid Appearance Of Indecision

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON—Although President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Macmillan gave an impression of unity of purpose in their joint television-radio broadcast from London Monday night, there were plainly apparent some substantial differences as to what are the best tactics to use in dealing with Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Quite clearly the political under-currents in Britain require a Prime Minister to favor "summit" meetings and personal negotiations with the Soviet Premier irrespective of the ultimate consequences, whereas Mr. Eisenhower seems to feel that even a "summit" meeting should be preceded by some show of progress toward peace with the Moscow government.

These postures are not new. London and Washington have made them plain before. But it was nevertheless significant that in this impromptu conversation between the two leaders of the West the same skepticism and doubts about Soviet policy that hitherto have been expressed by the United States government are accompanied by the same words of confidence uttered by the British that somehow by continuous talk with Khrushchev solutions will be found, even if it takes a dozen meetings of the top leaders of both sides.

Mr. Eisenhower, on the other hand, is troubled by the impression of weakness which a marathon of talks could produce. He was careful to point out that talk is all right in its place as a means of exploration or search for a solution but that principles cannot be abandoned.

Mr. Macmillan agreed broadly with this approach, but he left some doubt as to whether he believes principle is worth standing on indefinitely, when he said that "We have got to be flexible about the new conditions that arise and how to deal with each situation." The President graciously translated this into flexibility of "tactics," rather than retreat on the principle itself. He said:

"In other words, you are saying strategic principle stays immutable—tactics change according to armed weapons and the different changes."

Mr. Eisenhower then, as an example, emphasized the principle involved in West Berlin, where, he said, two million free Western Berliners cannot be abandoned—a case in which we've really got to be firm, in my opinion."

While the British leader was trying hard to give the appearance of harmony, he still put in a boost just the same for his favorite concept — "flexibility." He commented:

"I agree with that, and I agree also with your other principle, that we've got to use the right tactical methods to achieve our purpose with a reasonable amount of adjustment that is necessary from time to time."

All this may sound as if the television broadcast was a kind of struggle with words and their finer meanings as applied to the diplomatic problems of the hour, but actually the differences are ingrained in the philosophy of the London government and in the point of view toward Europe taken by the United States in the last four decades.

Thus in Britain, as the President recognized, there is a pressure for more trade with the Soviet Union and a trend toward "adjustment" of differences on what is called a "practical" basis. But the United States has been able, in connection with the policies it followed in entering the two world wars, to disassociate itself from the material side and to emphasize its many sacrifices for the cause of human liberty and freedom.

The most realistic portion of the broadcast was the pointed references made by Mr. Macmillan to the circumstances that led to the two world wars. He thought the First World War could have been prevented and "happened by mistake," but that the Second World War could not have been avoided, no matter what preceded it, "because wicked men plotted it who were determined to achieve their aims."

The British Prime Minister refers to the "danger that we might drift into something by mistake," but, unfortunately, the situation facing the world today is more like that which preceded World War II than World War I. For "wicked men" are in power in Moscow, and again there is a tendency on the part of their potential adversaries to appease them. These are the tactics which can lead to another miscalculation as to the resoluteness and determination of the West.

Altogether, the decision of Messrs. Eisenhower and Macmillan to avoid the explicitness of a question-and-answer press conference, and to deal instead with current problems in an implicit way through carefully chosen phrases in an extemporaneous broadcast, is a sign of the gravity of the whole situation. For, while the President has undertaken his present trip to Europe in order to cement the Western Alliance, he is well aware that the psychological effects of any British-American pronouncements could be far-reaching. The alert-minded Khrushchev could take advantage of any signs of cleavage or indeed weaknesses, despite every outward appearance of unity.

The Eisenhower mission to the Allies is as important as, if not more important than, the subsequent parleys with Khrushchev himself. For the Soviet Premier knows appeasement when he sees it and recognizes irresoluteness if there is the slightest suggestion of it by word or deed.

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

WASHINGTON — As Congress nears completion of its session's work, it can be sized up as a political draw between Republicans and Democrats.

Neither side will emerge from the contest unscathed. President Eisenhower and his administration won some notable victories, including a slow-down on Democratic big-spending plans and an unblemished record of never having had a veto overridden.

However, the Democrats can point to some solid accomplishments, too. They succeeded in delivering a stinging rebuke to the President by rejecting his nominee, Lewis Strauss, as secretary of Commerce. They have markedly reduced the foreign aid program, forced some spending concessions from the White House, and successfully bottled up measures which the administration deeply desired.

Neither political faction can point to a record of accomplishment that is either unusual or "far reaching." It was a pretty routine session of the legislators.

Actually, behind the scenes there is solid evidence that both parties wanted it this way. After all, there are limits to the number of issues that catch the voters' interest, and there's no sense in wasting ammunition prematurely.

Next year is a presidential election year. Democrats feel they are ahead in this race. Republicans act as though they realize they must overtake public sentiment which went against them so strongly in the 1958 congressional elections.

The big, sensational battles are apt to be fought then, under more urgent political conditions, and with a bigger prize immediately at stake.

Reducing Pills No Shortcut For Losing Weight

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

There are no short cuts to dieting if you really want to lose weight. The record sales of reducing tablets is the response to the demand for an easy way to shed a few pounds. But, despite claims to the contrary, to lose weight, a person must eat less.

Added poundage represents fat that has been deposited in the tissues. It does not come in through the air. This fat must be burned by the body to make it disappear. This is done by reducing the intake of food to such an extent that the body must call upon the stored fat to obtain its energy requirements. When this stage is reached, weight loss occurs.

Weight reducing tablets or capsules cannot eliminate surplus fat. The most they can do is to discourage appetite, which helps the individual eat less. Some capsules also impart a sense of well-being and, in this respect, nullify the weakness bothering so many reducers. But the effect of these products usually wears off in a few weeks and thereafter tubby is on his own again.

Dietary supplements, such as vitamins and mineral, do not melt away the excess fat. They are recommended on the assumption that a low caloric diet may lack certain food elements. They are advertised as supplements and that is all they are.

Failure to lose weight is traced to lack of will power in some and ignorance concerning foods and calories in others. Many persons sneak tidbits during the day that add hundreds of calories to the diet. Sauces, spreads, and other food extras are loaded with hidden calories. Cocktails are poison to a dieter and the fat on meat doubles the calorie count. There is no need to go hungry so long as celery or fresh fruit is available. A glass of water is better than nothing for this purpose.

Take it easy and don't go overboard on dieting. Cutting down to a normal size takes time, and maintaining a slim figure represents a lifetime job.

(Dr. Van Dellen will send a leaflet on reducing if stamped, addressed envelope accompanies request.)

HE CAN'T REMEMBER

S. N. writes: If, after many drinks on an empty stomach, a man cannot recall certain events the next morning, does this mean he is an alcoholic?

REPLY

No. He was intoxicated. But more information would be needed before he could be labeled an alcoholic. It depends on how often he drinks and what his drinking is doing to him. Many alcoholics go through a stage in their downfall during which they drink so much they do not remember what they did the night before.

HAY FEVER BRINGS TEARS

L. R. writes: Why do the tear ducts become overly active with hay fever?

REPLY

Because pollen irritates the inner lining of the eyelids, causing congestion.

NOT TOO HELPFUL

W. B. writes: Is a vaccine available against staphylococcal infections?

REPLY

Yes, but it is not always effective.

TOMORROW: Why they stopped smoking.

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Old Doc Schnitzel, in the hillbilly country, was called upon to treat the very young bride of a worried moonshiner. He assured the husband, "That little wife of yours is going to be all right. She's just teething."

Another time, Doc. Schnitzel gingerly raised his scalpel to perform an appendectomy on what looked like a long black cord on the table. A nurse whispered admiringly, "There goes old Doc Schnitzel again—operating on a shoe string."

Three gents in a hurry had lunched together in a beanery. "I want some tea," the first one told the waiter, "and it should be in a glass." "I also will have a glass of tea," said the second. The third added, "Make mine tea, too—but remember, I want it in a clean glass."

The waiter returned in his own good time with three glasses of tea. "Now which one," he demanded, "wanted the clean class?"

Mitchell, Summerfield Feud Over Who's In Charge Of Labor Affairs

By Jack Anderson

WASHINGTON—The backstage tugging and tussling over labor reform legislation has brought to a head a feud inside the President's official family between Secretary of Labor Jim Mitchell and Postmaster General Art Summerfield.

Long annoyed over Summerfield's obsession with labor matters, Mitchell finally threw up his hands in despair when the Postmaster General took over the lobbying campaign to pass the Landrum-Griffin bill.

This is a labor bill which has nothing to do with the post office. It was up to Mitchell, not Summerfield, to decide how to steer it through Congress. Except for setting forth the administration's views in a letter to Congressman George Wallhauser (R-N. J.), Mitchell left the lobbying to the legislative experts from the White House and Labor Department.

But Summerfield marched up to Capitol Hill, set up a command post in Illinois Congressman Les Arends' office close by the House floor and summoned wavering Republicans into his presence.

He put on the heat with the skill of a housewife cooking Sunday dinner. On some he used threats to cut off their post-office patronage. To others, he simply pleaded: "The President wants this bill badly. He's depending on you. Please don't let him down."

Pressure Cooker

Among those who stuck their heads in Summerfield's pressure cooker were Congressman Bill Cahill and Frank Osmers of New Jersey, Bob Corbett and John Saylor of Pennsylvania, Arch Ward of West Virginia, Bill Bray of Indiana and Fred Schwengel of Iowa. All voted exactly opposite to the way Summerfield instructed them.

The reason the Postmaster General temporarily dropped his campaign against smutty literature to lead the fight for labor reform was to appease the Republican bosses in his home state of Michigan. He has been on the defensive with them over many Eisenhower policies, but their stand on the labor issue happily coincided.

Knowing the GOP powers in Michigan are more interested in cracking down on labor unions than cleaning up the mails, Summerfield leaped into the middle of the labor reform battle. By this he hopes to gain their support for the vice presidential nomination, a prize Mitchell also is known to covet.

But the Labor Secretary wishes Summerfield would campaign for the vice presidency in his own department. At a recent Cabinet meeting, Mitchell offered not to interfere with the mails if Summerfield would keep his nose out of the Labor Department.

Lobbyists' Tactics

An attempt by the trucking lobby to bring Congressional pressure on the Interstate Commerce Commission has backfired like a truck with a bad engine.

The truckers helped prepare a letter which Sen. George Smathers, Florida Democrat, unwittingly signed. When he found out how the letter had been used, however, he fired off a second letter withdrawing the first.

The issue: The truckers hoped to influence the ICC's decision on piggy-back service, the name given to railroads' practice of hauling trailers on flat cars for less than trucks can pull them over the highways. Those in the trucking business understandably would like to outaw the practice.

To give political emphasis to their arguments before the ICC, their lobbyists slipped around to see Senator Smathers who, as chairman of the Senate's Surface Transportation subcommittee, is a big power in this field.

Without taking sides, Smathers agreed to investigate their complaints and asked Frank Barton of the subcommittee staff to draft a letter to the ICC for his signature.

Loaded Letter

The letter was supposed to invite the commissioners simply to participate in an informal discussion. But Barton permitted the trucking lobbyists to help compose it.

They twisted the letter into a propaganda document for the truckers. Sample: "Some of the rates being published for performance of piggy-back service are destructively low and violate the established principles of transportation rate-making."

Barton delivered the finished composition to Smathers as he was about to board a plane. With only a quick glance at it, he scrawled his signature across the bottom.

Next day he learned that his letter had been written to influence the ICC's decision on the piggy-back cases. He hastily dictated another letter, declaring: "It has long been my personal view that the Commission was in the best position to decide problems of this type and certainly it was not my wish to be pictured as an advocate of being on either one side or the other of an active litigation going on. For these reasons, I respectfully request that the Commission ignore in toto my (previous) letter."

Political Potpourri

Two big guns in the Republican Party — Kentucky's Sen. Thruston Morton, GOP National Chairman, and Pennsylvania's Congressman Dick Simpson, GOP Congressional Campaign Chairman, recently flew to Kansas City together. Browsing through a news magazine, Simpson came upon a report that he was the Republican Congressman Ike dislikes most . . . "I wonder who the hell put this out," snorted Simpson, pointing out the passage to his seatmate. Morton discreetly didn't mention that the passage was based upon his own remarks to newsmen at an off-the-record dinner . . . President Eisenhower, before his European departure, tried to make up with Simpson by phoning him and thanking him warmly for his help in pushing the Landrum-Griffin labor reform bill through the House.

More On Birrell

By Leslie Gould

NEW YORK — An Over-the-Counter brokerage firm — which is still active — in January of 1956 — put out a circular on Greater New York Industries. This was one of fugitive financier Lowell Birrell's vehicles for picking up millions.

The circular puffing Greater New York Industries started:

"Practically overnight this company has changed from a status of slow growth to one of dynamic aliveness — a change which we believe gives investors with vision an unusual opportunity for profits.

"The business acumen and foresight of the management of Greater New York Industries has never been more clearly demonstrated than by the recent exchange of over 200,000 Doeskin Products, Inc., on a basis of 2½ for one giving Greater New York Industries more than 500,000 shares of Swan-Finch Oil Co. Through this move Greater New York Industries still retains working control of Doeskin and assumes control of Swan Finch which is a 103-year old business formerly part of the Standard Oil empire. . .

"We believe that the market price of this stock has not yet begun to reflect the tremendous improvement that Swan Finch exchange has made in its affairs and that discerning investors who purchase at current levels will receive large profits."

The brokerage firm that sent out the above quoted "puff" says it had no contact with Birrell, being merely impressed by the outlook and the market at that time.

The firm is J. A. Winston & Co., members of the National Association of Securities Dealers, with offices at 11 Broadway.

The date of this circular was Jan. 30. The stock went up right after this plug was sent out.

The stock in January had a range of 50 to 68 ¾ cents on the bid side, 75 cents to $1 on the asked. On Feb. 2 it was quoted at $1.25 bid and $1.43 ¾ asked. The stock has never been that high since.

Today the market is one cent a share bid and 4 cents asked. The company has vanished as also have its books and records. The office was closed with no forwarding address.

Greater New York Industries has been a scandalous operation almost from its inception. It started out as a combination of four New York area breweries, taking the name of Greater New York Breweries in 1940. Birrell became chairman and president in 1942 and two years later changed the name to Greater New York Industries.

The shares were in the penny class when he took over, being around 6¼ cents. He got the stock up to $1.35 in 1944, when the name was changed and it was pushed to its all-time high of $5.12½ in 1946. It settled back, getting as low as 15 cents in '49.

Birrell was still in control and as far as records show he held the top office until just before he became a fugitive in 1957 — more than two years ago.

Another character in deals with Birrell is Alexander Guterma, just indicted with him on SEC charges involving United Dye & Chemical, when its shares were listed on the Stock Exchange.

Guterma, as disclosed by this column, is having other difficulties. A Federal Grand Jury in Washington is seeking to discover whether he obtained $750,000 in cash from Dominican strongman — Rafael Trujillo — to publicize that country over the radio.

If Guterma got his cash, putting up as reported securities purporting to be control of the Mutual Broadcasting System, which he headed for a time, he faces charges of failing to register as agent of a foreign government. The Grand Jury is seeking to find out whether this Mutual stock had been freshly printed and were not the true certificates.

Greater New York Industries was Birrell's main vehicle for financial juggling. He used it to get control of Doeskin and Swan-Finch. He is charged with getting away with $14 million of the assets of those two.

It was done by the swapping around of securities. In 1949 a subsidiary of Greater New York —Louisville Fire & Marine — at Birrell's direction bought out the controlling shareowners in Doeskin — then San-Nap-Pak. He became an officer. In 1953, Greater New York sold out its Louisville Fire shares but took over the insurance firm's holdings of Doeskin.

The next year Birrell got control of Swan-Finch, with its American Stock Exchange listing. In 1956 Swan-Finch exchanged 500,000 shares of its stock for 200,000 shares of Doeskin from Greater New York.

Investors in all these ventures have fared the same — badly. Doeskin shares went from $5 in '49 to $11.75 in '53 and $19.37½ in '54 — its high. The current market is $1.87½ bid.

Swan-Finch shares, which got to $38 the year Birrell got control, were split three for one the next year. The American Stock Exchange suspended trading and the split stock got down to 11 cents — or 33 cents on the old basis in 1957. The current market for the split stock is 37½ cents bid.

And Birrell has yet to be brought before a jury.

Syndicate Buys Two Million In Highway Bonds

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—A syndicate headed by the Northern Trust Co. of Chicago was the successful bidder Wednesday for $2,000,000 worth of West Virginia state road bonds.

State Treasurer Orel J. Skeen said the group offered a net interest rate of 3.75 per cent. Second lowest among a record 17 bidders was the Philadelphia National Bank which quoted an interest rate of 3.77 per cent.

The bonds were issued under the 1920 Good Roads Amendment which set up a $50,000,000 revolving fund for highway improvements in West Virginia.

The 1959 Legislature approved the sale of $5,000,000 of the bonds this year. The state sold the other $3,000,000 worth last May at an interest rate of 3.44 per cent.

The net cost of the bonds sold to the syndicate will be $977,400.

Squirrel Trouble

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—A Clay County man is having squirrel troubles.

The State Conservation Commission said a hearing will be held Thursday for Charles White of Clay. He is charged with having 54 squirrels in his possession.

White was arrested by a conservation officer who was investigating reports of illegal hunting. The squirrel season opens Oct. 3 and 36 is the season bag limit.

Child Drowns Self

TOKYO (UPI)—Police reported Wednesday that 10-year-old Shoko Yamada drowned herself in a pond Monday night after her parents scolded her for being careless. Shoko was giving a ride to a 6-year-old playmate on her bicycle when her friend fell and broke an arm.

Two Britons Arrested

LONDON (UPI)—Two Britons were arrested for "a breach of the peace" at the London airport during President Eisenhower's departure for Paris Wednesday. One shouted through a megaphone at Prime Minister Harold MacMillan: "Why are you feting the victor of Suez"—a reference to Eisenhower's refusal to endorse the Anglo - French invasion of Egypt. He and his companion were hustled away by police.

Market Follows Narrow Course On Light Trading

NEW YORK (UPI) — Absence of new incentive, and the thorn of tight money kept the stock market in a narrow course on routine turnover Wednesday.

Prices in most groups were irregular although the motors, metals, drugs, and steels generally favored the upside.

Volume lightened again with turnover of 2,370,000 shares 60,000 behind Tuesday's total. Brokers generally expect little of the market the rest of this week in view of the coming long Labor Day weekend.

American Motors, which countered in Tuesday's lower market with a gain of a point, added another ⅜ point on the day's most active trading. Studebaker issues also were active with the common and the common when-issued among the top five actives.

Standard Oil (N. J.) which, after the close announced plans to merge all its domestic producing, refining and marketing affiliated companies, also was well up on the active list. It rose a fraction.

Thiokol Chemical, off 2½ points, completed the top five volume leaders. In the same group, U.S. Borax dropped nearly a point.

Opening lead: Ten of ♣.

East discovered in today's hand that his innocuous looking holding actually contained an overabundance of assets which he was unable to protect against the onslaughts of an excessively ambitious declarer.

South's four no trump call was rather questionable in view of his spade holding, but it is his final leap to seven hearts that inspires our strongest criticism. After North showed only one king, South should surely have been content to settle for a small slam. It was not reasonable to expect North to be able to take care of all his losers.

West opened the ten of clubs, which was taken by declarer with the ace. The ace and king of diamonds were cashed and a low diamond ruffed in dummy with the nine of hearts. Declarer returned to his hand with the eight of trumps and ruffed the remaining diamond with the ten of hearts. East felt that he could not afford to part with a club so he discarded a spade.

Declarer then led the queen of hearts and overtook it in his hand to lead out the rest of his trumps. Two spades were thrown from dummy which came down to the lone ace of spades and three clubs while South held the queen-nine of spades and the queen-eight of clubs.

East found himself in an impossible position. On the third trump lead he could throw a spade. But on the last heart it seemed obviously futile to throw a club so he parted with another spade in the hope that partner had the queen of that suit. Declarer then cashed the ace of spades and the battle was over.

The taunting temptress of "THE YOUNG LIONS" . . . even more taunting and tempting as the half-angel, half-witch whose beauty made fools of all men. No woman ever offered a man more—and gave him less!

She teased, taunted and tempted a man until the fatal fascination of her flesh made her kind of woman—and her kind of love, irresistible!

She knew every trick and wile in the book, every twist and turn of temptation and invented more of her own!

Moorefield High School Has Overflow Enrollment

Additional Space Being Provided

MOOREFIELD—A sharp increase in the enrollment of Moorefield High School will necessitate additional classrooms, according to the announcement of Raymond Dispanet, county school superintendent. Moorefield high's enrollment jumped by nearly 40 students to 515, the first time in history the enrollment is over 500.

Both Mathias and Wardensville high schools have approximately the same enrollment as last year.

Dispanet said that temporarily the classrooms at Moorefield high would be overcrowded but that the present Board of Education offices and the warehouse would be turned over to the high school as soon as the move could be made and minor alterations completed. An adequate science hall and chemistry laboratory will be prepared in the present board offices and warehouse. Adequate toilet facilities are available. Due to the Federal Aid program which Hardy County qualified for in passing the Special Levy, all equipment will be secured through Federal funds. Dispanet said the additional classrooms would be made available at no additional cost.

The Board of Education offices will be moved to Sanders School which is closed this year.

The three additional classrooms should take care of Moorefield High School's steadily increasing enrollment for the next several years, and will accommodate an enrollment up to 550, according to Dispanet.

Sanders students are attending Moorefield graded school and Toll Gate this year with no significant change in the enrollment at either school. Miss Sara Brooks is assigned to Toll Gate school from Moorefield high as originally announced and Mrs. Mollie Harvey is assigned to Moorefield graded school.

An extra classroom has been equipped at Moorefield graded school for a special educational program for students who need special help.

Enrollment figures for the county schools will be compiled by the end of the week. Dispanet said he doesn't expect a significant change from last year's total enrollment of 2327.

OAKLAND — Fifteen women were drawn for jury duty from among the 48 persons selected by Associate Judge Neil C. Fraley to serve at the September term of Circuit Court. This is the first jury chosen since the law went into effect granting women the right to serve on juries.

The law does not actually compel a woman to serve on a jury, but after being selected, if she does not want to serve, she must go through a stretch of "red tape." She must present her objections in writing to the clerk of the Circuit Court within a certain period after being notified that she has been called to duty.

The 23 grand jurors and 25 petit jurors were selected in the presence of attorneys and court officials. Judge Fraley named Gerald R. Iman, of Kitzmiller, foreman of the grand jury which is scheduled to convene Monday, September 14, at 10 a. m.

Other members of the grand jury include Louise M. Shaffer, Edward R. Harris, Eugene N. Johnson, Mahlon Miller, R. Thomas Thayer Jr., Herbert C. Wildesen, Ray Teets, Frank B. Biser, Geraldine E. Beachy, Dewey Gnegy, Anne Gordon Bell, Francis McKenzie and J. Logan Weber. Five of the 25 are women.

The petit jury is scheduled to report for duty Monday, September 28, at 9 a. m. Members include Agnes Carey, Otis W. Kamp, Reynold E. Ashby, Thelma S. White, Everett B. Weimer, E. Robert Dodge, John I. Wilt, Frank Guy Parks, Agatha Beachley, Nevada J. Hostetler, Hallie Pritts, Leighton W. Harvey, Patience Grant, Charles V. Harvey, C. B. Kimble, Darwin O Fike, Harley M. Pittsburgh Drops Doubleheader To Reds, 6-3 And 2-1

Buccos Dealt Severe Blow By Cincinnati

Jones' Homer Wins First; Newcombe Bags 13th In 2nd

CINCINNATI (UPI) — The Cincinnati Reds delivered a crippling blow to Pittsburgh's pennant chances Wednesday night by sweeping a twi-night double-header from the Pirates, 6-3 and 2-1.

Johnny Temple's two-out triple and Vada Pinson's 44th double of the season, one short of the club record, broke a 1-1 tie in the eighth inning of the nightcap and gave big Don Newcombe his 13th victory of the season against seven losses.

Willie Jones' three-run homer broke a 3-all tie in the eighth inning of the opener. Rookie lefty Jimmy O'Toole went the route to earn his third straight victory.

A passed ball by Smoky Burgess, coupled with singles by Ed Bailey and Newcombe gave the Reds' an unearned run off Bob Friend in the fifth inning of the nightcap.

Whitey Lockman's bobble of Burgess' grounder, and his wild throw which followed, paved the way for an unearned Pirate marker in the seventh, knotting the score.

Jones' game-winning homer in the opener was one of three belted by the Reds who won after wiping out a three-run lead the Pirates had taken in the first inning. Frank Robinson and Pinson also homered.

Jones connected off relief ace Roy Face, but the loss was charged to Vern Law, who put two men on before leaving.

Donald Is Master In Final At Barton

Carl Donald pitched Lonaconing to the playoff title in the Twilight Baseball League yesterday when he shut out the pennant-winning Barton Braves in Barton in the fifth and deciding game of the series by the score of 6-0.

Winner of 11 out of 12 games during the regular season, Donald scored his fourth win in five outings against the Braves this season. He handed them two of their three losses during the regular season, 10-4 and 12-5, and lost once, 6-5, and notched two more wins over Barton in the playoffs, 5-2 and 6-0. Yesterday marked the first time in 35 games this season that the Braves felt the bristles of the whitewash brush. Donald had a 3-1 record in the playoff series with Zihlman and Barton.

Lou Fazenbaker, who started on the mound for Barton, was knocked out in the first inning and Ronald "Butch" Young came on to finish for the Braves.

Roger Wilson accounted for two of Lonaconing's seven hits. Tod Cuthbertson slammed a home run and Bill Richmond and Donald smacked two-baggers. Barton's five hits were shared by as many players.

Barton had won three pennants in a row and copped playoff titles in 1957 and 1958.

Lonaconing won the second, third and fifth games of the series by scores of 5-2, 11-2 and 6-0. Barton copped the first and fourth contests, 7-2 and 11-4. All games were played in Barton.

Barton and Lonaconing will be honored at the league's banquet and dance Saturday, Sept. 26 at the Midland Fire Hall. Supper will be served from 6 to 8 p.m., and dancing will be from 9 to midnight. Tickets may be purchased from team managers. The Hugh Kifer Trophy will be presented to Lonaconing while Barton will receive the league pennant and also the Wilson Hardware Company trophy.

On Critical List

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)— A University of Maryland football center collapsed from heat exhaustion at the end of a hot, humid practice session Wednesday and was put on the critical list Wednesday night.

Charles (Sonny) Lohr, a 6 foot 2, 204 pound sophomore from Bladensburg, Md., remained unconscious at Prince Georges Hospital in Cheverly, Md.

Dr. William A. Holbrook Jr. and other doctors were keeping vigil over the 19-year-old Lohr. Also at the hospital were head Coach Tom Nugent and assistant Coach Bill Dovell.

Lohr was first string center on the freshman squad last year.

Temperatures reached 91 here Wednesday.

I have been married a year and am having a tough time making ends meet. I can't afford insurance, yet can't afford not to have it. Is there some inexpensive policy which provides death benefits only, so my wife and child can have some protection until I can afford better insurance?

Dick Tiger Springs Upset, Decisions "Ace" Armstrong

African Given Nod By Jersey Referee

CAMDEN, N. J. (UPI) —Dick Tiger, British Empire middleweight champion and a 3-1 underdog, shattered previously unbeaten George (Ace) Armstrong's winning streak at 17 Wednesday night with a knockdown punctuated 10-round decision in their nationally televised bout at Convention Hall.

The 30-year-old Tiger from Amaigbo, Nigeria, found the key to victory in the third round when he floored the fifth-ranked Elizabeth, N. J., campaigner with a left hook to the jaw for a mandatory eight count.

The African invader gained his 34th victory in 44 bouts on the decision of referee Joey Harrison, sole official under the New Jersey boxing rules.

Harrison scored it 6-4 by rounds in favor of Tiger. The United Press International gave six rounds to the British champion with two to Armstrong and two even.

Tiger, unranked, had a five pound weight advantage at 162.

Tiger's weight was two pounds above the contract terms, and Armstrong went through with the bout only after promoter Jimmy Riggio gave him a $500 bonus.

Tiger originally came in at 163¼. Armstrong agreed to Riggio's offer provided Tiger trimmed off one pound and a quarter which he did.

Armstrong, 27, ranked fifth by the NBA and 10th by Ring Magazine, started off fast, boxing smoothly through the first two rounds. However, in the third, Tiger suddenly turned active and began moving inside and scoring with a left hook.

Berra's Homer Wins For Yanks

2-Run Belt In 8th Defeats Ramos, 4-3

NEW YORK (AP)—Yogi Berra's two-run eighth-inning homer gave the New York Yankees the cushion they needed Wednesday night for a 4-3 victory over the Washington Senators.

Berra's homer, his 18th, followed a leadoff single by Tony Kubek off loser Pete Ramos (12-16) and broke a 2-all tie.

The Nats then scored in the ninth, on Harmon Killebrew's double and a single by Clint Courtney, before Jim Coates, the winner relief, fanned pinch-hitter Faye Throneberry and got pinch-hitter Hal Naragon on a game-ending grounder with the tying run on second.

Coates (4-1) came on after starter Duke Maas was lifted for a pinch hitter when the Yankees tied it in the seventh on Enos Slaughter's two-out pinch single.

The Senators broke up a shutout duel with two runs in the fifth on singles by Zorro Versalles, Billy Consolo and Lennie Green. But the Yankees, blanked on one hit until then, got one in their fifth on singles by Hector Lopez and Gil McDougald and a doubleplay.

Braves Trounced By Phillies, 11-5

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—The last-place Philadelphia Phillies beat the Milwaukee Braves for the second straight time Wednesday night, 11-5, pounding the fading defending champions of the National League for 18 hits that included home runs by Carl Sawatski and Gene Freese.

Richie Ashburn added a triple and Ed Bouchee and Wally Post threw in a pair of doubles each in the assault on four Milwaukee pitchers. Every man in the Philadelphia lineup hit safely as the Phillies amassed their second highest hit total of the season.

It was the third straight loss for the Braves, who are still hopeful of pulling out their third consecutive pennant, but are now four games behind league-leading San Francisco with only 22 more games to play.

Robin Roberts was the benefactor of the Philadelphia slugging as he won his 12th game against 15 defeats even though he allowed ten hits and a two-run homer to Henry Aaron in the Milwaukee sixth. It was Aaron's 37th homer of the year.

Hardinger's 3-Run Homer Decides, 4-2

Harold Hardinger belted a three-run homer in the fifth inning to give the Bedford Road Optimist Club a 4-2 decision over the Rotary Club yesterday at Penn Avenue Field and with it went the circuit's playoff crown for the 1959 season.

By capturing yesterday's game, Manager Ced Miller's pennant winning club made a two-game sweep of the series, having won the first game, 9-3 on Tuesday evening. The Optimists eliminated the Kiwanis Club in two straight semi-final contests, 3-1 and 6-2, after taking the pennant by the margin of two games with a 16-5 record.

Previous playoff winners were: 1951 — Lions Club. 1952 — Times-News. 1953 — Times-News. 1954 — Cumberland Optimists. 1955—Cumberland Optimists. 1956 — B'nai B'rith. 1957 — Rotary Club. 1958 — Lions Club.

The Rotarians were leading 2-1 in last night's game when Harold Hardinger stepped to the plate and teed off to left-center. Mickey Lantz had singled and Bill Dean drew a pass before Hardinger connected with one of Ronnie Manges' offerings for the game's winning wallop.

Harold Hardinger, a lefthander, pitched until the 6th for Bedford Road and got credit for the victory, his eighth against one loss this season. He fanned eight. Homer Hardinger, his brother, came on in the sixth to finish on the rubber.

The Rotary Club's runs came in the second inning when Miller homered with Roy aboard. Miller, incidentally, had two of the losers' four hits.

Two double plays were executed by the league's champions. The first was started by Harold Hardinger in the opening frame while Tom Hamilton caught a fly and nipped a runner off second base for the other twin killing.

Ronnie Manges went the route for the Rotarians, yielded four hits and struck out eleven. The score:

Rotary Club	020 000 0—2 4 1
Bedford Rd. Optimists	001 030 x—4 4 3

Charles Town Cancels Keyser Game Saturday

Parsons Calls Off September 11 Tilt; Substitute Sought

A last minute cancellation by Charles Town High School will prevent Keyser High School from opening its football season at home on Saturday, Coach Frederick "Tack" Clark, announced last night.

Keyser was preparing for the lid-lifter when a call came through from Principal Gordon Eismon yesterday announcing that Coach Dick Harmison's team, would be unable to keep the Saturday engagement due to injuries suffered by key players in practice and because of the Jefferson County Fair this week at Shenandoah Downs at Charles Town.

The Charles Town cancellation was the second on Keyser High School's schedule to date. Parsons High School was to have played in Keyser on Friday, September 11, but the Tucker County team requested that the game be cancelled.

With two games knocked off the ten-game card Keyser managed to get one back when Berkeley Springs was scheduled for November 13 at Keyser, extending the season one week.

Coach Clark would like to line up a game this weekend and if he is unable to do so he still has an open date on Friday or Saturday, Sept. 1 1or 12, which he would like to fill.

If Keyser is unable to make connections it will have to wait until Friday, September 18, to play its opening game with Beall High School in Keyser.

Any schools interested in playing Keyser are requested to contact Coach Clark.

Cleveland Tops Athletics, 6-3

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Gary Bell, relieving Herb Score, who failed to retire a batter in the first inning, allowed the Kansas City Athletics only one run and five hits the rest of the way to pitch the Cleveland Indians to a 6-3 victory Wednesday night.

Dick Williams' third inning homer accounted for the only run off Bell, who came in with the bases loaded and the Athletics ahead, 2-0, in the first.

The sophomore right hander struck out four and walked three in receiving credit for his 15th triumph. He has lost 11.

The Indians exploded for five of their runs on five hits in the third to rout loser Ned Garver. Tito Francona's bases-loaded single drove in the first two tallies and Woodie Held's double brought in two more.

Ray Herbert worked 2 1-3 scoreless innings in relief of Garver. But the Indians added their sixth run in the sixth against Tom Sturdivant on Held's triple and George Strickland's sacrifice fly.

O'Dell, in posting his eighth win against 10 losses struck out five and walked two. He never was in serious trouble. Sammy White, Boston catcher, collected three of the seven Red Sox safeties, including a double and two singles.

The Orioles gave O'Dell all the runs he needed in the second inning when they scored twice on doubles by Bob Boyd and Barry Shetrone a single by Brooks Robinson, a walk and an error.

They added two more in the third when they chased starter Tom Brewer, who suffered his 10th setback.

Americans Set 22 Records: Baseball Team Victor, 28-0

By ED SAINSBURY

CHICAGO (UPI) — The United States Wednesday won five more track and field events, four of them with record performances, and wound up that phase of competition in the third Pan American games with 26 of the 32 gold medals.

In the six days of track and field events between athletes of the Americans at Soldier Field, the United States set 22 Pan American records, scoring 1-2-3 sweeps in 10 of the events.

With track and field completed, U. S. swimming and diving stars got going on their expected grab of most of the Gold Medals in their field.

They scored a sweep in 3-meter springboard diving. Gary Tobin, Glendale, Calif., was first, followed by Sam Hall, Kettering, Ohio, and Bob Webster, Santa Ana, Calif.

Farrell Wins 100 Meter

In the 200-meter breast stroke, William Mulliken, Champaign, Ill., a student at Miami University and 1959 NCAA champion, won in the Pan American record time of 2:43.1.

Jeff Farrell, Wichita, Kan., won the 100 meter freestyle in Pan American record time of :56.3, breaking his own previous record of :56.5 in trials two days ago.

Kelley Cops Marathon

Durable John Kelley of Boston Mass., got the United States started Wednesday with a record victory in the 26-mile marathon over Chicago streets. The 29-year-old Kelley, scoring the United States' first victory in international marathon competition in 50 years, won in Pan American record time of 2 hours, 27 minutes, 54.2 seconds. A countryman James Green, 26, Brockton, Mass., also broke the record of 2:35.00.2 set by Delfo Cabrera, Argentina, in 1951.

Relay Teams Win

In quick order after that, the men's and women's 400-meter relay teams, Dyron Burleson of University of Oregon in the 1,500 meter run, and Buster Quist, Albuquerque, N. Mex., in the javelin won Gold Medals.

The only "south of the Border" track breakthroughs were scored by Brazil's Adhemar da Silva in the hop, step, and jump and the West Indies Federation in the 1,600-meter relays.

Gibson, Fageros Lose

But in tennis, Mexico's Yolanda Ramirez and Rosa Reyes defeated Althea Gibson, New York, and Karol Fageros, Miami, Fla., in finals of women's doubles, 6-8, 7-5, 6-1.

Elsewhere, U.S. athletes had a good day. The baseball team swamped Costa Rica, 28-0, a record score in Pan American play. The victory lifted the United States into first place in the "B" division of the baseball round robin.

The soccer team blanked Cuba, 5-0.

Favored Diller Hanover Cops Rich Hambletonian

Wins In Straight Heats, Gets $73,667; 22,000 Witness Race

By BILL HUDSON

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP)—Unruffled by a lost shoe, odds-on choice Diller Hanover scored a straight-heat victory worth $73,667 Wednesday in the Hambletonian, richest harness race in history.

The bay son of Star's Pride lost a shoe on his right front foot at about the three-quarter pole of the second heat but it didn't stop him from taking the final dash in 2:01 4-5.

Ordinarily, such a mishap would throw a trotter off balance and cause him to break stride.

Diller Hanover, a bargain at $6,300, withstood the stretch challenge of stablemate Tie Silk to win the first mile in 2:01 1-5.

Pinch-hitter Frank Ervin, driving Diller Hanover for only the second time, said "I wasn't in doubt about the second heat but I was a little afraid of Tie Silk the first time."

The Diller Hanover-Ervin combination proved too much for 14 competitors in this 34th renewal of the year's biggest race for 3-year-old trotters, worth $125,284.

Tie Silk and Flight Song trailed him the first mile; Circo and Lady Belvedere, the lone filly in the field, in the second.

Ervin's strategy with Diller Hanover was nearly identical in each dash. In the first heat, he held the colt in favorable position until the three-eights of a mile post. Then Ervin made his move.

Turning into the stretch with Tie Silk on the drive, Diller Hanover edged over the line by a neck.

In the second heat, Ervin made his move a little later, bringing Diller to the front about the three-quarter spot and leaving little doubt by the outcome in the stretch.

A crowd of 22,000 in the fashionable racing quarters at the Duquoin State Fair saw Diller Hanover push his career earnings to $205,784.

Ervin, long frustrated in his attempts to win the Hambletonian, got his chance when regular driver-trainer Ralph Baldwin fulfilled a contract obligation and drove Tie Silk, the other half of the Baldwin entry.

Chattanooga Folds, Farm Club For Sale

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—The Chattanooga Lookouts, farm club of the Washington Senators, were put up for sale Wednesday, the second Southern Assn. club in the process of folding because of poor attendance.

Calvin Griffith, president of the Senators, directed Joe Engel, president of the local team, to close the Chattanooga park on Sept. 15 and sell the property. Dwindling attendance has made the club, now in sixth place in Southern Standings, too much of a financial burden, Griffith said.

The Atlanta franchise recently was offered for sale by Earl Mann, president and principal owner, but there have been no offers for that club, now in the cellar.

Tackle Lou Groza and defensive halfback Warren Lahr, both 35, are the oldest players on the Cleveland Browns 1959 football roster.

Mill Creek Earns Spot In Playoffs

Mill Creek won the contest for fourth place in the Mountain State Baseball League by beating Elkins last Sunday by the score of 4-0 at Huttonsville and will meet Century's Miners in the opening game of their semi-final playoff series Sunday at Century.

Moorefield and Belington, the other clubs participating in the playoffs, will clash in the second game of their best-of-three series Sunday at Belington. Moorefield dropped the opener at home last Sunday, 11-6, and if the Hardy Countians can square the series Sunday the third and deciding game will be staged in Moorefield, September 13.

Boston had the highest average number of points scored per game in the National Basketball Assn. last season: 116.4.

San Francisco Beats Chicago In Ninth, 4-3

Brandt's Home Run Whips Don Elston

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Jackie Brandt slammed a solo home run with one out in the last of the ninth, giving the San Francisco Giants a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs Wednesday. A crowd of 16,422 watched the National League leaders open their final home stand.

Brandt's blast, his 12th homer, came off reliever Don Elston and climaxed an afternoon in which two other Giants hit the ball out of the playing field.

Big Sam Jones, who came on in the ninth as the Cubs rallied with two runs to tie the score, gained credit for his 18th victory while Elston took his seventh loss.

Earlier, Felipe Alou and Willie McCovey homered for the Giants while Bobby Thomson connected with a Cub round-tripper off San Francisco starter Mike McCormick, who worked 8 1-3 innings.

Elston relieved Art Ceccarelli, lifted for a pinch hitter in the top half of the ninth.

San Francisco collected just five hits, but three of them went all the way. The Cubs had six hits, a homer and five singles.

Post's, Ridgeley Legion Take Rec Playoff Games

Old Germans Lose, 11-2; Sports Shoppe Is Nosed Out, 6-5

Post's Playground walloped the Old Germans to the tune of 11-2 at Post Field and the Ridgeley American Legion edged the Sports Shoppe, 6-5, at Naval Reserve Field, as the playoffs for the championship of the Men's Rec Softball League got under way yesterday.

James "Mo" Barrett fired a three-hitter and struck out seven as he notched win No. 14 at the expense of the Old Germans. He fanned the side in the opening frame and had a shutout going until the final frame when the Old Gees scored their two runs.

During Post's 7-run rally in the 6th inning, Paul Stickley hit a grand slam home run. He also had a single to his credit. Jim Leamon collected three of the winning team's 11 hits and Bob and Leo Williams garnered two safeties each. Leo Williams excelled in left field with several nice running catches.

Shrout obtained the Old Germans' first hit in the third inning and Junior Eversole and Dunn smacked singles in the 7th.

Mike Lease starred afield for the losers with a leaping catch of a liner from Ray Silvious' bat at third base in the second inning.

The second game of the best-of-three series is set for Friday at Post Field at 6 p.m.

Bill Kenney became a 20-game winner for the season as he pitched Ridgeley Legion to victory over the Sports Shoppe. Kenney yielded five hits and struck out eight.

Ridgeley took a 6-2 lead with a three-run outburst but got a real scare when the Sports Shoppe came back with three tallies in its half of the inning.

Bill Houdersheldt had a perfect day at the plate for Ridgeley with two hits, a walk and sacrifice hit. Harry Widdows smacked a double and Eddie Golden provided the fielding highlight with a running catch in left field of Rich Smith's drive in the second frame. Smith had two of the Shoppers' six safeties and Wayne Holly banged a double.

Play resumes in this series Friday at 6 p.m., at Stitcher Field.

September brings sad memories,
Of a loved one gone to rest,
He will never be forgotten
By the ones who loved him best.
Sadly missed by his
WIFE AND CHILDREN.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank all our neighbors and friends who were so kind to us during our recent bereavement, the death of our wife and mother, Mary Elizabeth Kamauf. We also want to thank Father Montgomery, those who sent floral tributes, the pallbearers and those who donated the use of their cars for the funeral.

HUSBAND AND SON.

We take this means of extending our sincere thanks and appreciation to all the friends and neighbors who were so kind during our recent bereavement, the death of our mother, Mrs. Margaret Higgins. We especially wish to thank the pallbearers, those who donated cars, sent floral tributes, spiritual bouquets, and all others who in any way rendered assistance.

Masked Man Tries To Rob Farm Woman

Gunman Frightened By Telephone Call

West Virginia State Police and the Sheriff's Office at Berkeley Springs are investigating an attempted armed robbery reported early yesterday by a Morgan County farm woman.

Deputy Sheriff James T. Batt said yesterday that authorities received a report from Mrs. John Maas, who resides in a farm house near Unger Store, about 16 miles south of Berkeley Springs.

Mrs. Maas said she was alone about 11:30 p.m. Tuesday when a man wearing a face mask and carrying a gun, presumably a .32 calibre, entered her home and asked for money and something to eat.

She told authorities the man threatened her a number of times but did not harm her.

The man was in the farm house for about 45 minutes. Mrs. Maas got a telephone call from her husband while he was there.

The call apparently frightened the man, who left and drove off in a car which had been parked near the home.

Mrs. Maas was unable to give a full description of the man, and she did not know whether any other men were in the car.

The man reportedly did not take anything from the farm house. When he left in the car, Mrs. Maas called Cpl. Charles Burke and Sheriff William J. Clark.

Men Ordered Held For Action Of Grand Jury

Three men charged with conspiring to attempt to break into the Montgomery Ward Store here were ordered held yesterday for action of the October term of the Grand Jury.

The preliminary hearing was held yesterday in Trial Magistrate Court before Magistrate Peter J. Carpenti, who set bond at $500 for each of the three men.

The men, Albert Samuel Wright, 42, and Charles Issacs, 32, both of Newport, Ky., and Andrew Joe Forkes, 51, Phoenix, Ariz., were released after posting bond for their appearance next month.

City Police arrested the three men last Thursday night in connection with an attempted breaking and entering at the Montgomery Ward Store.

Officers Harold Gibson, Royce Clayton, Detective Kenneth Morrissey and Ronald Windle, a Potomac Edison employe, testified for the state at the hearing.

James S. Getty, state's attorney, presented the state's case and Edward J. Ryan, local attorney, represented the defendants.

Fire Damages Plant At Berlin

Quick action by volunteer firemen of Berlin and Somerset, Pa., averted a serious fire yesterday morning at the Snyder Potato Chip plant located at the east end of Berlin.

Volunteers kept the flames confined to a potato chip machine and a section of the roof above the machine which was recently installed at the plant.

The fire apparently started at about 10 a. m. when grease used in the process of manufacturing the chips caught fire, spread up through a chimney and caught the roof on fire.

Firemen used foam to quench the blaze. The machine will probably be shut down for a day or so until the damage is repaired. Knives used in the machine to cut the potatoes were reported to have been damaged.

Another machine at the plant will continue production of chips while the other machine is repaired.

Firemen Called

West Side firemen received a call last night of a grass fire in the vicinity of the 700 block of Greene Street.

Man Burned While Using Blow Torch

A 29-year-old local man was admitted to Sacred Heart Hospital yesterday evening with burns sustained while he was using a blow torch to remove enamel from a kitchen chair.

Attaches said George Thomas, 532 Broadway, suffered first and second degree burns on his right arm, shoulder and chest. His condition last night was reported as "favorable."

Firemen from East Side station were called at 6:28 p.m. and extinguished the fire in a vacant first-floor room where the man had been burning the enamel from some chairs.

When they arrived on the scene, the blow torch and a cover thrown over the torch were burning. Firemen quenched the flames with an extinguisher.

Two other partially burned chairs were in another part of the room, according to the firemen, who said the wooden chair apparently burst into flames while the man was using the torch.

Mr. Thomas had already been taken to the hospital when the firemen arrived.

Paper Mill To Erect Huge Warehouse

Building Site Near Westernport

Plans for the construction of a large paper storage warehouse near Westernport have been announced by John A. Luke, general manager of the Fine Papers Division of West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company with headquarters at Luke.

Details of the construction job were disclosed yesterday during a three-day meeting of the division's sales representatives at the Bedford Springs (Pa.) Hotel.

The new warehouse will hold 10,000 tons of finished paper produced at the company's Luke mill. The structure will be of steel frame construction with aluminum siding. It will be 340 feet by 240 feet, with 81,600 square feet of storage space.

Construction will begin immediately and completion is expected by the middle of December. The warehouse will be located three miles east of Westernport on the Westernport-McCoole Road.

The contract for engineering and construction has been awarded to the Austin Company, New York City. Cost of the project was not disclosed.

The capacity of the warehouse will represent approximately one month's total first quality production from the Luke mill's present seven paper machines.

Because the mill's production is expected to be doubled as a result of its current $50 million expansion program, the new warehouse also is being designed for future growth. Erection of additional units can increase capacity to as much as 25,000 tons of paper.

Mr. Luke said the new ware-

Fire Chief Helps Nab 2 Suspects

Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker yesterday afternoon assisted city police in the arrest of two young men who were taken to jail for investigation in connection with a reported theft at a local store.

Chief Parker was in the Fire Department's car near the corner of North Centre and Frederick streets when Officer Charles W. Thompson asked for assistance.

The two men had run down Centre Street to an alley in the rear of the old St. Paul's Lutheran Church. While driving up Centre Street, Chief Parker noticed the men running down the street toward the alley when he looked in the rear view mirror of the car.

Within a few minutes Chief Parker and Officer Thompson drove to George Street and caught up with the two men in the alley. Chief Parker radioed Central Fire Station. The firemen at the switchboard used the direct line to Police Headquarters and called for the patrol wagon.

The men were questioned by City Police Detective Lieutenant James E. Van and were booked for investigation. Last night they were questioned further by Detective Kenneth Morrissey and were released.

Golden Gifts At $85,383 In First Week

CUF Unit Nears 75% Of Goal

"County United Fund is receiving greater acceptance than ever before," George B. Newman, general chairman of the 1959 CUF campaign said last night as he announced that the Golden Gifts Division, headed by William E. Crooks and Lewis J. Ort, has in one week achieved a total of $85,383, or nearly 75 per cent of the goal of $118,000 set for the division.

The GG Division kicked off its campaign last Wednesday night and had its first report meeting at the Cumberland Country Club last night.

"There is little to add to this imposing report," Mr. Crooks said. "I am proud to be associated with such a wonderful community undertaking."

Mr. Ort told the assembled team captains and workers:

"It's a little hard to believe—the speed with which you folks have responded to this great humanitarian task."

The first "Oscar" of the 1959 campaign was awarded to team captain William H. Oburn, whose team is the first in any division to exceed its 1959 goal.

William C. Walsh, president of CUF, told the GG workers:

"Humbly, I want to thank you for your splendid cooperation and hard work."

The GG division has been running at least 15 per cent ahead of last year. Last night it was learned that the percentage of increase in gifts has in many cases been much higher.

This is the third annual County United Fund campaign for the support of 31 health, welfare, youth and community agencies in 31 communities of Allegany and Mineral Counties. During the past two years, CUF has assembled gifts amounting to nearly two-thirds of a million dollars.

He received a letter from James Carper, director of the Institute, sponsored for a 90-day period by the Postal Telegraph and Telephone International Unions.

The purpose of the Institute is to help foreign unions offset the penetration of Communism in Latin America and also to teach the students various phases of the trade union movement, he said.

At the opening of the Institute the students were greeted by Secretary of Labor James Mitchell and AFL-CIO Secretary William Schnitzler.

$40,000 Sought As Result Of Fatal Crashes

Two Occurred On Route 36

Two fatal accidents on State Route 36 figured in damage suits totaling $40,000 which were filed yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court.

One suit, for $25,000, was titled State of Maryland, for use and benefit of James P. Wilson and Pearl Wilson, his wife, of Barton, against Harry B. Kyle, also of Barton.

Kyle was identified in the declaration, filed by Attorney Edward J. Ryan, as the owner of an automobile which he was driving last January 16 in the vicinity of Barton. Richard B. Wilson, son of the plaintiffs, was a passenger in the car, which struck a bridge along State Route 36 at Barton, tumbling 20 feet into a creek. Wilson was killed in the crash.

The younger Wilson was identified as the person who had provided financial support for his parents.

The second action, filed for Doris Michaels Layton, by her husband James Layton, seeks $15,000 from Oakie W. Halbritten, Franklin. Mr. Ryan also filed this suit.

Mrs. Layton, then 17 years old and unmarried, was seriously injured August 24, 1958, in a crash on State Route 36 at Lonaconing when the car Halbritten was driving and in which she was a passenger struck a concrete bridge. She sustained bad scars on her right knee and face, her teeth were damaged and her chest and back were injured.

Mrs. Betty Jose, then 29, who lived on Mill Run Road in Barton, was so seriously injured in the same crash that she died in Miners Hospital, Frostburg, on the morning of August 26, 1958.

Also docketed yesterday was a $2,500 damage suit. This action was brought for Ronald Russell Bruce, a minor, by Mildred C. Bruce and Earl D. Bruce, his parents and next friends, 647 Sedgwick Street, against Raymond Harold Reuse and Raymond Henry Reuse, both of LaVale. Attorney James Alfred Avirett filed this suit.

Young Bruce was injured about 4:30 p.m. last February 25 in an automobile acident on U.S. Route 220 near Rawlings. He was a passenger in a car owned by Raymond Harold Reuse and driven by Raymond Henry Reuse which was proceeding toward Cumberland.

The Reuse car crashed into the rear of another vehicle driven by Ruth R. Millenson. Young Bruce was hurled against the dashboard and windshield. His injuries, the suit stated, included lacerations over his right eye, ligaments in his right hand were torn and bruised and he suffered bruises and contusions over his head and body.

Ridgeley Needs PSC Approval For Water Hike

Hearing Delay Poses Problem

The delay that the Town of Ridgeley faces in passing along the increased water rate to its consumers was stressed last night at a meeting at the City Hall here of officials from Cumberland and Ridgeley.

Mayor Charles H. Fryer of Ridgeley emphasized that his town must obtain permission from the West Virginia Public Service Commission in Charleston before it can raise the water rates which it charges its consumers.

The Ridgeley mayor noted that it usually takes about two or three months to get such a PSC hearing. He estimated that it will cost the Mineral County town about $525 in miscellaneous costs to prepare for the hearing.

Ridgeley also figures that the 48 per cent increase in the rate which the City of Cumberland charges, effective September 1, will cost that community about $291 more each month. Adding together the $525 and the $291 a month for three months, Mayor Fryer figured that the town will have to spend a total of close to $1,450 before it can get the increase.

Letter To PSC

Mayor Fryer reported that he had a telephone conversation with the executive secretary of the West Virginia PSC last week about this increased water rate and as a result of that talk, a letter was sent to the PSC last Friday requesting immediate permission for Ridgeley to raise its water rates. No answer has yet been received.

The Ridgeley mayor also sought assurances that this lastest increase in the water rates charged by Cumberland to outside users will not become an annual boost. The last increase of 33⅓ per cent was effective in 1955. At that time the PSC allowed Ridgeley to raise its rates 30 per cent.

Ridgeley has been buying water from Cumberland ever since 1924. The latest agreement between the two cities became effective October 24, 1938.

City Attorney William R. Carscaden and Water Commissioner G. Ray Light both sought to assure the Ridgeley representatives that no annual boost in water rates is planned.

Mr. Carscaden stressed that the increase is essential for the efficient operation of the water department. One of the major needs is to repair the main transmission line from Lake Gordon to Cumberland because thousands of gallons are lost through leaks in this line every day.

He cited one particular point to emphasize the need for improvements to the city's water system. At the time Lake Gordon was completed in 1912 it was equipped with a gate which could be regulated so that water could be drawn from different levels of the dam. However, this gate apparently never did work properly and a vast quantity of cement was dumped into the gate. This situation must be corrected.

Maintenance Needed

The city attorney said the present administration believes that the costs of maintaining the water system should come from water revenues. Every improvement in the system should not be charged off as capital improvement, they feel.

Mr. Carscaden said he believes that people living outside the city limits should pay more for water than those living within. "If they want city services while living outside where the taxes are lower they should be willing to pay substantially more for these services."

As a general rule, the city does not intend to charge any outside users more than 90 per cent more than city residents pay for water. He pointed out that Ithaca, N.Y., as one illustration, charges outside users 135 per cent more for water.

Mr. Carscaden and Mr. Light represented the city at last night's session. Tonight at 7:30, city officials will meet with representatives of the Wiley Ford Water Company and at the same hour Friday they will meet with the Cresaptown Civic Improvement Association.

Mayor Fryer was accompanied to last night's meeting by Water Commissioner Ted Dayton and Recorder Archie Lough.

Kelly Wage Talks Continue

This is the second session between the parties on talks concerning wages.

Cyclists Visit City

Three medical students from Chicago, who are completing an 1,800-mile bicycle tour of Canada and the Eastern United States spent Tuesday night here and left yesterday for home, where they hope to arrive next week. Left to right are Robert A. Bilinski, 21, who attended Loyola University of Chicago and will enter the University of Illinois this month, Leo F. Close, 21, and William P. Gibbons, 20, pre-med students at Loyola. The cyclists left Chicago August 10, and averaged 100 to 120 miles each day on their English racing bicycles until they hit the mountains east of here. Their traveling equipment includes sleeping rolls, rain ponchos and a transistor radio. They figure their food bill each day runs about three dollars.
